Rationale:* As proposed, the M.S. in Themed Experience is a 33-hour program with a course sequence designed to teach the unique skills, processes and concepts utilized to design and produce themed experiences for spaces that include theme parks, zoos, aquariums, themed retail, dining, interactive theatre, escape rooms, immersive hotels, museums, virtual worlds and exhibitions. This graduate program will build upon the strength and diversity of UCF’s theater, art, and design programs as well as its ideal location in Orlando, the international hub of the themed entertainment industry.

Regionally, nationally, and globally, the themed experience industry is thriving with an expectation of continued expansion over the next ten years. Universal Studios Orlando will more than double in size, and Disney is rapidly updating and expanding parks and resorts worldwide. However, there is no dedicated degree program in the state of Florida that prepares graduates to design and produce... themed entertainment. Our proposed M.S. in Themed Experience would be the first of its kind.

Is this a Doctoral program?
☐ Yes  ☑ No

Add complete catalog copy here! Must include description, curriculum, contact information, application requirements, and application deadlines. After you add/import courses, click on the View Curriculum Schema button below to add the catalog copy. Please note: this information is what will flow directly to the graduate catalog. Any attached documents to this proposal will not be used for catalog purposes.

Tip: You can Import a similar program to use as a template instead of starting from scratch. Use the Import button at the top of the proposal.

Follow these steps to propose courses to the new program curriculum:

Step 1

There are two options for adding courses: "Add Course" and "Import Course." For courses already in the catalog, click on "Import Course" and find the courses needed. For new classes going through a Curriculog Approval Process click on "Add Course"-- a box will open asking you for the Prefix, Course Number and Course Title.

Step 2

Click on "View Curriculum Schema." Click on the area/header of the program where you would like to add courses. When you click on "Add Courses" it will bring up the list of courses available from Step 1. Select the courses you wish to add. For removing courses click on the ❌ and proceed.

Impact on Current Students

https://ucf.curriculog.com/agenda:294/print
Will students be moved from an existing program, track, or certificate into this new program?*
Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, state the name of the program or track where students are currently enrolled and attach a list of students if possible:

Will students have the option to stay in their existing program, track, or certificate?*
Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, how will current students be impacted by the addition of this program?
N/A. No students will be required to move from an existing program, track, or certificate.

Future Students

Indicate likely career or student outcomes upon completion:*
Students graduating from the M.S. in Themed Experience will be prepared for creative careers in the themed entertainment and experience industry. Some of the job titles are Designer, Art Director, Creative Director, Producer, Production Coordinator, Blue Sky or Concept Artist, Show Runner, Story Artist, Show Writer, Show Set Designer, Exhibition Designer and Show Set Coordinator.

Walt Disney Imagineering lists over 100 unique positions in their organization. Nomenclature for position titles varies from firm to firm. So, the generalized statement that Themed Experience M.S. graduates would be prepared for careers in production and design of themed environments can be applied to a multitude of synonymous position titles.

The following are the primary student learning outcomes for the M.S. in Themed Experience:

- Integrate and demonstrate the utilization of the core components of successful themed experiences
- Analyze and critique virtual, mixed, augmented, and physical narrative environments
- Experience each phase of the production process of creating designed spaces
- Design narrative-driven, thematic spaces to provoke emotions and communicate ideas for both entertainment and education
- Develop viable and original concepts for a themed experience utilizing professionally recognized practices.
Provide a statement of who is likely to enroll and why. Please state if there is licensure or certification that depends upon this education, etc.*

<td>Individuals drawn from agencies/industries in your service area (e.g., older returning students)</td>
<td>9 of the 23 students applying to the MFA in Theatre, Themed Experience track are returning, older students; however, this M.S. will attract a higher percentage of returning students already employed within the local attraction and entertainment industry. We project acceptance of 5-10 annually from this group, especially with the recent partnership between UCF and Disney's Aspire program.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Students who transfer from other graduate programs within the university</td>
<td>While the projected number is 3-4, we have received inquiries from students wishing to transfer degrees but expect this number to steadily decrease once the M.S. degree is established and our recruitment efforts become more strategically focused.</td>
</tr>
<td>Individuals who have recently graduated from preceding degree programs at this university</td>
<td>Currently, there is no undergraduate degree in Themed Experience at UCF, however, students in the college's existing undergraduate degree programs would be logical populations to target for our recruitment efforts. These programs include the B.F.A. in Emerging Media with tracks in character and experimental animation and graphic design; the B.A. in Digital Media, especially the game design track; the B.F.A. and B.A. in Theatre and the B.M. and B.A. degrees in Music. Additionally, students in Rosen College's Entertainment Management undergraduate program have expressed interest in the proposed M.S. The results of the student survey also suggest a potential interest from students in other STEM programs throughout the university looking to combine their technical knowledge with design skills.</td>
<td>Individuals who graduated from preceding degree programs at other Florida public universities</td>
<td>There are no undergraduate degree programs in the State University System in Themed Experience. However, we anticipate the M.S. in Themed Experience will draw students from graphic design, scenic design, fine art, digital media, animation and other creative degree programs offered throughout the SUS.</td>
</tr>
<td>Individuals who graduated from preceding degree programs at non-public Florida institutions</td>
<td>The Ringling College of Art and Design in Sarasota, Florida is starting an undergraduate studio degree program in Entertainment Design in fall 2019. The proximity of Ringling to Orlando suggests its graduates would be interested in continuing their education in Orlando by pursuing our M.S. degree. Since Ringling will not graduate its first class until 2023, any impact on our applicant pool would not be immediate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Additional in-state residents</td>
<td>We project at least 10-15 applicants with visual art or design undergraduate degrees from other SUS institutions.</td>

program marketing and reputation spread. If a limited residency option is added, we anticipate this aspect will be attractive to out-of-state prospects.

Additional foreign residents

This is an unknown entity given downward trends in the recruitment of international students. However, the program’s location in Orlando could make the program attractive to international applicants.

Subject: Library Assessment for the Proposed Themed Experience M.S. in the School of Performing Arts

Date: December 6, 2019

Projected Costs for New Library Resources

It is recommended that $500 be allocated for years 3, 4 & 5 to acquire new titles as the full program develops. This new allocation of $1,500 supplements the remaining $1,000 which was previously allocated for 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 for the Theatre M.F.A., Themed Experience Track.

Research Guide

An online library guide for Themed Experience describes specific online and print resources and provides links to electronic materials. https://guides.ucf.edu/themedexperience

Print and Online Access

The Themed Experience M.S. program intends to develop a low-residency program providing four to five of the eight courses online. All else being equal, electronic format with multiple simultaneous access is preferred for library resources to reach more users. Physical format will be selected if no viable electronic equivalent is available and will default to one copy per title due to budgetary restraints. Duplicate copies may be considered on a case by case basis. The physical copy (occasionally copies) will be housed at the locations chosen by the UCF Libraries to serve the needs of relevant programs.

Library materials relevant for the Themed Experience program will be housed in at least four UCF Libraries locations: Main Campus (Theatre, Art, Music, Communication, Film, Writing & Rhetoric, Marketing, Engineering); Rosen Campus (Hospitality Management, Theme Parks); Valencia West (Architecture); and Downtown Campus (Gaming & Interactive Media).
UCF Libraries offers a robust document delivery system and interlibrary loan service to ensure UCF users at all locations have access to library resources at all locations and beyond.

To achieve best cost efficiency within the library’s budget limits and to serve as many users as possible, most library collections, including books, serve multiple UCF programs. Decisions for how library resources are acquired and where the resources are housed are made by the UCF Libraries. The decisions on location are also driven by the integrity of intended use of the body of publications, and therefore typically physical resources on the same topic are kept at one location, rather than split between multiple locations. The shelving capacity and other aspects of a library’s physical space may also influence location decisions.

Previous Assessment

This evaluation of library resources builds on the brief assessment conducted in 2018 for the Theatre M.F.A., Themed Experience Track (attached). That assessment focused on determining the availability at UCF of 2 magazines and 105 book titles.

That track assessment also included a comparison of library book holdings by subject headings at four institutions:

- Savannah College of Art & Design (SCAD), Themed Entertainment Design, M.F.A.
- CalArts, Experience Design opportunities within the Theatre M.F.A. program
- Carnegie Mellon University, Master of Entertainment Technology
- Florida State University, School of Entrepreneurship, Themed Experience Institute

None of the four identified institutions provided a good statistical comparison for head-to-head benchmarking of library resources for reasons explained in that track assessment. Programs or tracks being developed at other institutions are too new to provide effective benchmarking and their collections are very small, but examining their holdings may be useful in the future to identify specific titles for potential purchase. Those new programs include:

- University of Florida, MS in Architecture, Themed Environment Integration, CityLab Orlando
- Ringling College of Art & Design, Entertainment Design, BFA

Instead of expanding the number of subject headings or institutions to benchmark for this full program assessment, an analysis has been conducted of relevant titles already held in support of three existing UCF programs which represent the core broadened subject areas of the full Themed Experience program: Hospitality Management, Architecture, and Gaming & Interactive Media.
Journals/Magazines:

Both magazines identified in the 2018 assessment are available in print at the Rosen campus library and will remain at that location.

- Funworld (2001+)

The Journal of Themed Experience & Attractions Studies (JTEAS) began in 2018 and is hosted online at UCF. Only one issue has been produced as of December 2019.

UCF Libraries provides online access to the proceedings of the International Conference on Virtual, Augmented & Mixed Reality (2007+).

No other journals were identified with a focus specifically on themed experience, but the UCF Libraries already provide a strong online and print collection of current and backfile journals with articles covering theatre, hospitality management, theme parks, architecture, and gaming & interactive media, as well as other related disciplines. Peter Weishar identified additional journals available at UCF which may provide relevant content:

- Comedy Studies (2010+)
- Contemporary Theatre Review (1992+)
- Dramatherapy (1977+)
- Ibsen Studies (2000+)
- Stanislavski Studies: Practice, Legacy & Contemporary Theater (2013+)
- Text & Performance Quarterly (TPQ) (1980+)
Databases

Current UCF databases of most relevance for the Themed Experience M.S.:

- Academic Search Premier
- Art & Architecture Source (subscription will be discontinued in January 2020 due to budget cuts)
- Art Index Retrospective (1929-1984)
- Arts & Humanities Citation Index (1975+)
- Arts & Humanities Commons
- Communication & Mass Media Complete
- Essay & General Literature Index (1984+)
- Film & Television Literature Index
- Hospitality & Tourism Complete
- Humanities & Social Sciences Retrospective (1907-1984)
- Humanities Source
- International Bibliography of Theatre & Dance
- JSTOR
- Leisure Tourism Abstracts
- LinkedIn Learning
- Project MUSE
- Theatre & Performance Studies Commons

The loss of the subscription to Art & Architecture Source will have a negative impact on multiple academic programs at UCF including this new program in Themed Experience, but there are no funds available at UCF for this recurring annual cost previously funded at the state level.

Monographs/Books – Previous Assessment for M.F.A. track

Of the 105 books evaluated for the track assessment:

- 50 titles already owned by UCF
  - 33 titles shelved at Rosen campus
  - 17 titles shelved at Main campus
- 53 titles purchased
  - 18 titles as eBooks
  - 35 titles as print books
    - 12 titles shelved at Main campus
    - 23 titles initially shelved at Rosen campus; per a request from the College of Arts & Humanities Dean’s Office, all 23 titles were transferred to the Main campus’ Automated Retrieval Center
- 2 titles will be purchased when the new editions are published in 2020
Monographs/Books – Future Purchases

Students in the Themed Experience M.S. program are likely to make use of books from all four library locations (Main, Rosen, Valencia West, and Downtown). The library’s delivery service can retrieve requested books from the other campuses, but students also may find it beneficial for their discovery process to travel to the other campuses to browse the books in context with similar materials.

The librarians overseeing each of these subject areas will coordinate the identification and purchase of relevant content overlapping the disciplines. The requested funds may be used to expand access. For example, if a title was going to be purchased in print for the Hospitality Management collection at Rosen, but it is also considered relevant for the Themed Experience program then instead it will be purchased for online access by multiple users if available.

Decisions regarding where the resources are housed are made by the UCF Libraries; typically physical resources on the same topic are kept at one location, rather than split between multiple locations. This may result in some titles purchased with funds allocated for Themed Experience being shelved at one of the other campuses with similar materials already owned by the UCF Libraries.

Examples of Current Collections of Related Disciplines

The Themed Experience program benefits significantly from access to the resources purchased in support of related disciplines which may be housed at the other campuses. The following title lists provide a sample of potentially relevant titles owned by the UCF Libraries. More information about each title is provided on the online guide.

Subject: Library Assessment for the Proposed Theatre M.F.A., Themed Experience Track in the School of Performing Arts

Date: November 19, 2018

When I met with Mr. Peter Weishar to discuss the proposed Theatre M.F.A., Themed Experience Track, he explained that this track is the initial step in preparing for a proposed new Master’s degree in Themed Experience which will be housed in the School of Performing Arts but which will be separate at that time from the Theatre and Music programs. He provided a list of 2 magazines and 105 books which he felt would be needed to support the full degree program. He later identified 20 of those 105 books which he considered “must-haves.” He identified the following institutions for comparison when evaluating resources for the full degree program:

- Savannah College of Art & Design (SCAD), Themed Entertainment Design, M.F.A.
- CalArts, Experience Design opportunities within the Theatre M.F.A. program
- Carnegie Mellon University, Master of Entertainment Technology
- Florida State University, School of Entrepreneurship, Themed Experience Institute

Projected Costs for New Library Resources

It is recommended that $3,200 be allocated for the first year to acquire the missing titles from the list of 105 books. In addition, $500 should be allocated for each of the next three years (4-year total of $4,700) to acquire new titles published in the existing subject areas plus additional subjects identified as the needs of the track expand in building toward the full degree program.

Summary of funds requested for four years:

The allocations for this Theatre M.F.A. track are only projected for four years with the assumption that the full degree proposal will be submitted during that period.

A more complete library analysis and revised budget will need to be done for the full degree proposal when it occurs.

Summary of Analysis

None of the four identified institutions provides a good statistical comparison for head-to-head benchmarking of library resources for the limited scope of this proposed Theatre M.F.A. track at UCF. The full degree programs at SCAD and Carnegie Mellon both focus much more heavily on the digital and technical design areas rather than theatre. Although CalArts incorporates Experience Design opportunities in their Theatre M.F.A. program they do not yet have a specific track for it and a search of their library catalog failed to identify many specific book titles or subject headings for meaningful comparison. The Themed Experience Institute at Florida State only existed briefly affiliated with the School of Entrepreneurship and ceased when Peter Weishar left for UCF. This analysis therefore focused primarily on determining UCF’s holdings for the 105 books identified by Peter Weishar. A brief subjectheading comparison of library holdings is provided as well.

As currently planned the Themed Experience Track at UCF will have a limited amount of coursework taught at the Rosen campus which will be focused on the specifics of themed experience. The theatre-focused coursework will be taught at the Main campus and should be fully supported by the existing resources for the Theatre M.F.A. program. Rather than writing a thesis the student in this track will create a themed experience project.

No new databases or journals are needed at this time. The library already subscribes to resources in support of existing programs in theatre, hospitality management, and digital media.

- Film & Digital Media – https://guides.ucf.edu/filmdigitalmedia

Current UCF Databases of most relevance for the Theatre M.F.A. track:

- International Bibliography of Theatre & Dance
- Art & Architecture Source
- Hospitality & Tourism Complete
- Leisure Tourism Abstracts
- Film & Television Literature Index
- Communication & Mass Media Complete
- LyndaCampus

Journals/Magazines:
Both magazines identified by Peter Weishar as needed for the program are currently available at the Rosen campus library.

- Funworld (2001+)

No other journals were identified with a focus specifically on themed experience, but the UCF Libraries already provide a strong online and print collection of current and backfile journals with articles covering theatre, hospitality management, and theme parks.

Monographs/Books:

Of the 105 books on Mr. Weishar’s list, the UCF Libraries already provide access to 50 of them: 33 titles at the Rosen campus and 17 titles at the Main campus. For the 55 remaining titles the UCF Libraries has older editions for 7 titles. The cost of purchasing or updating all 55 titles is projected to be approximately $3,200. Ebook versions are available and will be purchased for 14 of the 55 titles instead of print editions to provide greater access. Most of the remaining 41 print titles fit the subject-area profile for the print editions to be housed at the Rosen campus, but some of the print titles may be housed in the automated storage facility at the Main campus. Document delivery of the books is available between campuses.

Comparison of library book holdings by subject headings:

The UCF Libraries holdings of books in these four subject headings compares favorably with the other four institutions. These subject headings merely represent the main broad areas, but not covering the niche subjects for this proposed Track, which will be supported by the requested funds.

aquariums, themed retail, dining, museums, virtual worlds and exhibitions.

Curriculum
Total Credit Hours Required: 33 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor's Degree

Required Courses - 21 Credit Hours

Core - 6 Credit Hours
THE 5910 Research Methods in Theatre
TPA 6437 Careers in Themed Experience

Themed Experience Concentration - 15 Credit Hours
TPA 6158 Small Project Studio
TPA 6186 Immersive Experience Studio
TPA 6187 Themed Experience Seminar
TPA 6188 Visualizing Themed Environments
TPA 6921 Collaborative Project Studio

Restricted Elective/Internship Courses - 12 Credit Hours
Students may choose from a course list of restricted electives and/or enroll in internships for a total of twelve (12) hours of elective credit. Courses that qualify are pulled from a variety of disciplines across several colleges at UCF.

AMH 5077 Colloquium in Twentieth Century Tourism
ARH 5897 Advanced Seminar in Art History
ART 5284 Design Theory and Methods
DIG 5487 Media Aesthetics
DIG 6136 Design for Interactive Media
DIG 6432 Transmedia Story Creation
DIG 6551 Theory and Practice of Interactive Storytelling
Critique and Evaluation

A final critique and evaluation of student work is administered to all MS graduate students at the end of their course work. Students are permitted two attempts to successfully complete the final critique and evaluation.

Course Schedule

Year 1

Fall - 9 Credit Hours

THE 5910 Research Methods in Theatre
TPA 6158 Small Project Studio
TPA 6187 Themed Experience Seminar
Spring - 9 Credit Hours

TPA 6186 Immersive Experience Studio
TPA 6188 Visualizing Themed Environments
[After] Restricted Elective/Internship (see list) 3 Credit Hours

Year 2

Fall - 9 Credit Hours

[After] Restricted Elective/Internship (see list) 3 Credit Hours

Independent Learning

Both the capstone course, TPA 6437 Careers in Themed Experience, and the internship provide independent learning experiences. The capstone course provides development of professional goals, knowledge, marketing materials, and skills for the active themed experience industry professional. The internship allows students to work with industry partners.

Application Requirements

For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

In addition to the general UCF graduate application requirements, applicants to this program must provide:

- One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- A statement of interest.
- Three letters of recommendation from former professors and/or professional individuals.
- Resume.
- Portfolio comprised of visual art and design or creative written work.
Applicants applying to this program who have attended a college/university outside the United States must provide a course-by-course credential evaluation with GPA calculation. Credential evaluations are accepted from World Education Services (WES) or Josef Silny and Associates, Inc. only.

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement

4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements

  Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
  Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
  Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Full details of the syllabus policy can be found at: https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-403.pdf

The grades of the class will be curved up if needed.

X. Sequence of Course Activity

There will be 5-6 homeworks. You can submit it in person (preferred) or send a pdf to me by email, particularly if you are an online student. Midterm exam will be conducted in a regular class time. Final exam will be given in the time slot during the final exam week assigned by the university. The presentation of the project will be conducted in the last 1-2 classes at the end of the semester.

XI. Grade Dissemination

Graded homeworks will be returned to the students. You can access your scores at any time using the Grade Book function of Webcourses. Please note that scores returned mid-semester are unofficial grades.

XII. Course Policies: Grades

Late Work Policy:

No late homeworks will be collected.
Extra Credit Policy:
There are no extra credits for this course. Please pay attention to the diversified assessments at the beginning of the semester.

Grades of "Incomplete":
The current university policy concerning incomplete grades will be followed in this course. Incomplete grades are given only in situations where unexpected emergencies prevent a student from completing the course and the remaining work can be completed the next semester. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for an incomplete. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or the “I” will automatically be recorded as an “F” on your transcript.

XIII. Course Policies: Technology and Media

Webcourses: Syllabus, homework questions and solutions, lecture notes, and unofficial grades will be posted on webcourses periodically. The students are expected to check the webcourses at least twice a week.

XIV. Course Policies: Student Expectations

Disability Access:
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to discuss needed accommodations. No accommodations will be provided until the student has met with the professor to request accommodations. Students who need accommodations must be registered with Student Disability Services, Student Resource Center Room 132, phone (407) 823-2371, TTY/TDD only phone (407) 823-2116, before requesting accommodations from the professor.

Professionalism Policy:
Per university policy and classroom etiquette; mobile phones, iPods, etc. must be silenced during all classroom and lab lectures. Those not heeding this rule will be asked to leave the classroom/lab immediately so as to not disrupt the learning environment. Please arrive on time for all class meetings. Students who habitually disturb the class by talking, arriving late, etc., and have been warned may suffer a reduction in their final class grade.

Academic Conduct Policy:
Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. If you are uncertain as to what constitutes academic dishonesty, please consult The Golden Rule, the University of Central Florida’s Student Handbook (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/) for further details. As in all University courses, The Golden Rule Rules of Conduct will be applied. Violations of these rules will result in a record of the infraction being placed in your file and receiving a zero on the work in question AT A MINIMUM. At the instructor’s discretion, you may also receive a failing grade for the course. Confirmation of such incidents can also result in expulsion from the University.

Active Duty Military Students:
Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact their instructors as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they receive notification of deployment to make related arrangements.

Campus Safety:
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
• Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.
• Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
• If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF> (click on link from menu on left).
• To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <https://my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
• Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Though most emergency situations are primarily relevant to courses that meet in person, such incidents can also impact online students, either when they are on or near campus to participate in other courses or activities or when their course work is affected by off-campus emergencies. The following policies apply to courses in online modalities.

• To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <https://my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Justification for Course Continuation

What is the rationale for continuing this course?*

We would like to teach this course in Spring 2021. We have individuals interested in teaching, and the course would be used as an additional elective in the HF&C Psychology Ph.D. track, as well as being available as an elective to other graduate programs/students.
Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
  - Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
  - Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Full details of the syllabus policy can be found at: https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-403.pdf

Course Information
Course Name  EXP 5254 Human Factors & Aging
Credit Hours  3
Semester/Year  Spring/2021
Location  301H

Course Description
In this course, students will be presented with a collection of topics and conceptual foundations in the areas of human factors, ergonomics, and aging. The basic premise for the course is to introduce students to information and resources that are useful for enhancing the functional independence and the quality of life of older adults and their caregivers through the implementation of basic human factors principles in environmental, product, and task design.

Means of Evaluation

1. Discussion (10%)
   • Class participation will be assessed through your activity in the "Discussion" area of the course. I will periodically post a specific question for discussion and you will be required to make two postings related to that question. One posting will be a direct response to the question, and the other will be a response to a discussion posted by a fellow student. Participation in discussions will count for 10% of your final grade.

2. Mini Projects (15%)
   • You will have to submit 3 mini-projects as part of the course. Each mini-project will count for 5% of your final grade.

3. Articles (10%)
   • You will also have to read and critique two articles as part of the course. Each critique will count for 5% of your final grade.

4. Midterm Paper (25%)
• The midterm will cover the first two modules of the course and will be worth 25% of your final grade.

5. Review Paper (20%)
• Module three requires each student to write a review paper of a specific Human Factors and Aging application—some sample topics will be provided. You need to identify a topic and I need to approve it before you begin working on your paper. I expect the paper to be of publication caliber. Your review paper will count for 20% of your final grade.

6. Major Project (20%)
• Your final assignment will be to complete a major project which will entail the design of an environment, task, or product for aging users. You will be required to identify a project topic, subject to my approval, by the middle of the semester (no later than the midterm). You will also be required to read all the other student projects and rate each of them on a scale. The design project will count for 15% of your final grade and the ratings will count for 5%.

Grading Scale

• A = 93 - 100%
• A- = 90 - 92%
• B+ = 86 - 89%
• B = 83 - 85%
• B- = 80 - 82%
• C+ = 76 - 79%
• C = 73 - 75%
• C- = 70 - 72%
• D+ = 66 - 69%
• D = 63 - 65%
• D- = 60 - 62%
• F = 59% and below

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism and Cheating of any kind on an examination, quiz, or assignment will result at least in an "F" for that assignment (and may, depending on the severity of the case, lead to an "F" for the entire course) and may be subject to appropriate referral to the Office of Student Conduct for further action. See the UCF Golden Rule for further information. I will assume for this course that you will adhere to the academic creed of this University and will maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. In other words, don't cheat by giving answers to others or taking them from anyone else. I will also adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that will not apply to everyone.

Accommodations for Active Duty Military Students:

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Student Accessibility Access:

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) (<http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/>) (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Statement Regarding Emergency Procedures and Campus Safety:

Emergencies on campus are rare. If one should arise during our class, however, we will all need to work together. Everyone should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Familiarize yourself with evacuation routes from each of your classrooms, and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during an in-seat class, the class may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in your building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on your Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information (e.g., your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider), click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- If you have a special need related to emergency situations, please speak with me about this need.

Consider viewing this video (https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk) about how to manage an active shooter situation on campus or elsewhere.
Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Copyright

This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

*Information in this syllabus should be considered a general guideline. Slight deviations from the timeline provided may be necessary to better address the needs and interests of the class. Students will be notified prior to any changes, should they be necessary.

Future Students
The Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) - Assurance track will prepare a student for an auditing career in public accounting.

A student interested in becoming a CPA in the state of Florida is likely to enroll in the program. The MSA degree, along with the appropriate prerequisite work from an undergraduate degree in accounting, helps satisfy the education requirements to become a licensed CPA in the state of Florida.

Addition-New - Accounting MSA, Assurance Track

Track Description
The Accounting MSA, Assurance Track prepares individuals for careers as professional accountants and consultants in public accounting industry, financial institutions, government, and nonprofit organizations. Students in this program will specialize in auditing and assurance skills used in financial statement, compliance, internal control, and fraud contexts.

The Assurance Track, along with the appropriate undergraduate prerequisite work, satisfies the education requirements to become a licensed CPA in the state of Florida. For information on how this program may prepare you for professional licensure, please visit http://business.ucf.edu/degree/accounting-msa/.

Foundation Prerequisite Courses
All business and accounting foundation core requirements can be completed after a student has gained admission to the program, but must be satisfied before graduate MSA coursework can be undertaken. Applicants with a recent undergraduate accounting degree will likely have completed most, if not all, of the foundation prerequisite courses. Before taking any foundation courses, please have your undergraduate transcripts reviewed by the MSA Program Adviser.

Business Foundation Core—21 Credit Hours
The business foundation core is designed primarily to prepare students who hold a nonbusiness undergraduate degree (e.g., psychology, education, or engineering) for the accounting foundation core and graduate MSA coursework.

- ACG 2021 - Financial Accounting 3 Credit Hours
- ACG 2071 - Managerial Accounting 3 Credit Hours
- ECO 2013 - Macroeconomics 3 Credit Hours
- ECO 2023 - Microeconomics 3 Credit Hours
- QMB 3003 - Quantitative Business Tools I 3 Credit Hours
- QMB 3200 - Quantitative Business Tools II 3 Credit Hours
- FIN 3403 - Business Finance 3 Credit Hours

Accounting Foundation Core—24 Credit Hours
The accounting foundation core is designed primarily to prepare students who hold either a nonbusiness undergraduate degree (e.g., psychology, education, or engineering) or an undergraduate business degree in a field other than accounting (e.g., finance, marketing, or management) for graduate MSA coursework.

- ACG 3131 - Intermediate Financial Accounting I 3 Credit Hours
Curriculum
The Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) degree is awarded upon satisfactory completion of a minimum of 30 credit hours, and a final written exit exam. In the total program of study, a minimum of 21 credit hours of the coursework must be completed in accounting, tax, or business law courses. Students, with the assistance and approval of the program adviser, may select other courses that reflect their interests and career objectives.

Total Credit Hours Required: 30 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor's Degree

Required Courses—12 Credit Hours

- ACG 6185 Financial Statement Analysis
- ACG 6415 Advanced Accounting Information Systems
- ACG 6805 Accounting Theory
- ACG 6835 Ethics and Professionalism in Accounting and Auditing

Required Specialization Courses—6 Credit Hours

- ACG 6636 Advanced Auditing
- ACG 6675 Operational Auditing

Elective Specialization Course—3 Credit Hours

- ACG 6305 Advanced Managerial Accounting
- ACG 6685 Fraud Auditing
- TAX 5015 Advanced Tax Topics

Restricted Elective Courses—9 Credit Hours

MSA students can take additional ACG, TAX, or BUL courses as restricted electives (except for ACG 6425 and BUL 6444, which are not eligible for MSA credit). Most MBA electives may be taken as restricted electives. Please note that some of the MBA courses may be restricted to only those students enrolled within a specific MBA track. Up to three hours may be selected from outside the College of Business. Courses outside the College of Business must be selected with the student's area of interest and/or career objectives in mind and with the approval of the program adviser.

Comprehensive Examination
Satisfactory completion of an end-of-program comprehensive written examination is required. The MSA program does not require a thesis.

Additional Program Requirements
Students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in the accounting foundation core. Students must earn a grade of "B-" (2.75) or higher in any undergraduate course taken after completion of the Bachelor's degree in order for that course to count as a prerequisite in or to fulfill an admissions requirements for the MSA degree.

5000-level courses taken in the undergraduate career that are used to earn the undergraduate accounting degree cannot be transferred into the MSA degree program.

Application Requirements
For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

In addition to the general UCF graduate application requirements, applicants to this program must provide:

- One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- 3.0 GPA in upper-division accounting and tax courses.
- Official, competitive GMAT score taken within the last five years.
- Résumé.
- A computer-based score of 233 (or 91 internet-based score) on the Test of English as a Foreign language (TOEFL) if an applicant is from a country where English is not the official language, or if an applicant's degree is not from an accredited U.S. institution, or if an applicant did not earn a degree in a country where English is the only official language or a university where English is the only official language of instruction. Although we prefer the TOEFL, we will accept IELTS scores of 7.0.
- Applicants applying to this program who have attended a college/university outside the United States must provide a course-by-course credential evaluation with GPA calculation. Credential evaluations are accepted from World Education Services (WES) or Josef Silny and Associates, Inc. only.

Letters of recommendation are not required.

Financials

Graduate students may receive financial assistance through fellowships, assistantships, tuition support, or loans. For more information, see the College of Graduate Studies Funding website, which describes the types of financial assistance available at UCF and provides general guidance in planning your graduate finances. The Financial Information section of the Graduate Catalog is another key resource.

Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded based on academic merit to highly qualified students. They are paid to students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, based on instructions provided by the College of Graduate Studies. Fellowships are given to support a student’s graduate study and do not have a work obligation. For more information, see UCF Graduate Fellowships, which includes descriptions of university fellowships and what you should do to be considered for a fellowship.

Subject: Library Evaluation of the Proposal to add an Audit Track, a Taxation Track, and a Managerial Track to the Master of Science in Accounting in the College of Business Administration

Date: January 16, 2020

This memorandum is submitted for review and approval. As requested by Dr. Elizabeth Altiero Poziemski, MSA Program Director at the Kenneth G. Dixon School of Accounting, this analysis was conducted to evaluate the University of Central Florida (UCF) Libraries’ resources to support three new tracks in the Master of Science in Accounting program: Audit, Taxation, and Managerial.

Analysis

This analysis provides resource comparisons with peer institutions to evaluate current holdings for monographs, periodicals, and databases. To complete the analysis, the expertise and assistance of fellow UCF Librarians Sara Duff, Terrie Sypolt, Min Tong, and Ying Zhang was solicited, which significantly added to the overall evaluation.

Aspirational Peer Comparisons

When reviewing library support for the proposed track, the following aspirational peer institutions were selected for comparison:

- University of Florida
- University of Notre Dame
- University of Arizona
These schools were recommended by program faculty and were selected because they each offer a Master of Science in Accounting program.

Summary and Projected Costs for New Library Resources

UCF Libraries is currently supporting the existing Master of Science in Accounting program at UCF. In comparison with the program’s aspirational peer institutions, journal holdings are a close match. The Libraries’ monograph holdings are comparable to its peers in most areas. The Libraries’ database holdings fall slightly behind those of its peers, but may meet the needs for these programs as tracks. Therefore, no additional costs are requested at this point for the tracks.

Should any of these tracks expand to degreed programs, such as in taxations or audit, it is strongly recommended that Cheetah Accounting Research Manager be added. In the event that any new key journals or databases become critical for the program in the future, additional recurring funding will need to be provided to the Libraries to add these resources. Also note that in the unfortunate event of library budget shortfalls occur, some existing resource subscriptions may be cut or scaled back.

Databases: In general, the database list compares fairly with the chosen institutions, and should suffice the support for the proposed tracks. However, in the future if any of the tracks are expanded, the Accounting Research Manager add-on for Cheetah is recommended. Two out of three peers subscribe to this resource, and it is recommended by librarians who are familiar with this subject area. Should major budget cuts occur, some databases on this list might be cut.

Cost for ASM if any track is expanded to full program: $5,397.60 plus 5% inflation for each year thereafter

Journals: The UCF Libraries journal list compares favorably with the chosen institutions. We have the journals needed to support the new tracks. However, in the event of program expansion or any new key journal becomes critical for the program in the future, additional recurring funding will need to be provided to the Libraries to add these resources.
Monographs: The analysis of the Libraries’ monograph collections shows that its holdings compare favorably with its peers. However, the Libraries will still need to purchase additional monographs to support some areas. Gaps in the collection may either be partially covered by any available general monograph funds for now or remain unfilled.

College of Business Administration - Graduate Program
Addition-New - Accounting MSA, Management Track

Program Description
The Accounting MSA, Management Track prepares individuals for careers as professional accountants and consultants in public accounting industry, financial institutions, government, and nonprofit organizations. Students in this program will specialize in the use of accounting data to make managerial decisions, monitor operations, manage an effective control environment, and design effective compensation systems.

The Management Track, along with the appropriate undergraduate prerequisite work, satisfies the education requirements to become a licensed CPA in the state of Florida. For information on how this program may prepare you for professional licensure, please visit http://business.ucf.edu/degree/accounting-msa/.

Foundation Prerequisite Courses
All business and accounting foundation core requirements can be completed after a student has gained admission to the program, but must be satisfied before graduate MSA coursework can be undertaken. Applicants with a recent undergraduate accounting degree will likely have completed most, if not all, of the foundation prerequisite courses. Before taking any foundation courses, please have your undergraduate transcripts reviewed by the MSA Program Adviser.

Business Foundation Core—21 Credit Hours
The business foundation core is designed primarily to prepare students who hold a nonbusiness undergraduate degree (e.g., psychology, education, or engineering) for the accounting foundation core and graduate MSA coursework.

- ACG 2021 - Financial Accounting 3 Credit Hours
- ACG 2071 - Managerial Accounting 3 Credit Hours
- ECO 2013 - Macroeconomics 3 Credit Hours
- ECO 2023 - Microeconomics 3 Credit Hours
- QMB 3003 - Quantitative Business Tools I 3 Credit Hours
- QMB 3200 - Quantitative Business Tools II 3 Credit Hours
- FIN 3403 - Business Finance 3 Credit Hours

Accounting Foundation Core—24 Credit Hours
The accounting foundation core is designed primarily to prepare students who hold either a nonbusiness undergraduate degree (e.g., psychology, education, or engineering) or an undergraduate business degree in a field other than accounting (e.g., finance, marketing, or management) for graduate MSA coursework.
Curriculum

The Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) degree is awarded upon satisfactory completion of a minimum of 30 credit hours, and a final written exit exam. In the total program of study, a minimum of 21 credit hours of the coursework must be completed in accounting, tax, or business law courses. Students, with the assistance and approval of the program adviser, may select other courses that reflect their interests and career objectives.

Total Credit Hours Required: 30 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor's Degree

Required Courses—12 Credit Hours

ACG 6185 Financial Statement Analysis
ACG 6415 Advanced Accounting Information Systems
ACG 6805 Accounting Theory
ACG 6835 Ethics and Professionalism in Accounting and Auditing

Required Specialization Courses—6 Credit Hours

ACG 6305 Advanced Managerial Accounting
ACG 6675 Operational Auditing

Elective Specialization Course—3 Credit Hours

ACG 6841 Analytics in Managerial Accounting
BUL 5332 Advanced Business Law Topics
TAX 5015 Advanced Tax Topics

Restricted Elective Courses—9 Credit Hours
MSA students can take additional ACG, TAX, or BUL courses as restricted electives (except for ACG 6425 and BUL 6444, which are not eligible for MSA credit). Most MBA electives may be taken as restricted electives. Please note that some of the MBA courses may be restricted to only those students enrolled within a specific MBA track. Up to three hours may be selected from outside the College of Business. Courses outside the College of Business must be selected with the student's area of interest and/or career objectives in mind and with the approval of the program adviser.

Comprehensive Examination

Satisfactory completion of an end-of-program comprehensive written examination is required. The MSA program does not require a thesis.

Additional Program Requirements

Students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in the accounting foundation core. Students must earn a grade of "B-" (2.75) or higher in any undergraduate course taken after completion of the Bachelor's degree in order for that course to count as a prerequisite in or to fulfill an admissions requirements for the MSA degree.

5000-level courses taken in the undergraduate career that are used to earn the undergraduate accounting degree cannot be transferred into the MSA degree program.

Application Requirements

For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

In addition to the general UCF graduate application requirements, applicants to this program must provide:

- One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- 3.0 GPA in upper-division accounting and tax courses.
- Official, competitive GMAT score taken within the last five years.
- Résumé.
- A computer-based score of 233 (or 91 internet-based score) on the Test of English as a Foreign language (TOEFL) if an applicant is from a country where English is not the official language, or if an applicant's degree is not from an accredited U.S. institution, or if an applicant did not earn a degree in a country where English is the only official language or a university where English is the only official language of instruction. Although we prefer the TOEFL, we will accept IELTS scores of 7.0.
- Applicants applying to this program who have attended a college/university outside the United States must provide a course-by-course credential evaluation with GPA calculation. Credential evaluations are accepted from World Education Services (WES) or Josef Silny and Associates, Inc. only.

Letters of recommendation are not required.

Financials

Graduate students may receive financial assistance through fellowships, assistantships, tuition support, or loans. For more information, see the College of Graduate Studies Funding website, which describes the types of financial assistance available at UCF and provides general guidance in planning your graduate finances. The Financial Information section of the Graduate Catalog is another key resource.

Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded based on academic merit to highly qualified students. They are paid to students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, based on instructions provided by the College of Graduate Studies. Fellowships are given to support a student's graduate study and do not have a work obligation. For more information, see UCF Graduate Fellowships, which includes descriptions of university fellowships and what you should do to be considered for a fellowship.

Accounting Foundation Core—24 Credit Hours

The accounting foundation core is designed primarily to prepare students who hold either a nonbusiness undergraduate degree (e.g., psychology, education, or engineering) or an undergraduate business degree in a field other than accounting (e.g., finance, marketing, or management) for graduate MSA coursework.

- ACG 3131 - Intermediate Financial Accounting I 3 Credit Hours
Curriculum

The Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) degree is awarded upon satisfactory completion of a minimum of 30 credit hours, and a final written exit exam. In the total program of study, a minimum of 21 credit hours of the coursework must be completed in accounting, tax, and business law courses. Students, with the assistance and approval of the program adviser, may select other courses that reflect their interests and career objectives.

Total Credit Hours Required: 30 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor's Degree

Required Courses—12 Credit Hours

- ACG 6185 Financial Statement Analysis
- ACG 6415 Advanced Accounting Information Systems
- ACG 6805 Accounting Theory
- ACG 6835 Ethics and Professionalism in Accounting and Auditing

Required Specialization Courses—9 Credit Hours

- TAX 5015 Advanced Tax Topics
- TAX 6065 Tax Research
- TAX 6845 Tax Planning and Consulting

Restricted Elective Courses—9 Credit Hours

MSA students can take additional ACG, TAX, or BUL courses as restricted electives (except for ACG 6425 and BUL 6444, which are not eligible for MSA credit). Most MBA electives may be taken as restricted electives. Please note that some of the MBA courses may be restricted to only those students enrolled within a specific MBA track. Up to three hours may be selected from outside the College of Business. Courses outside the College of Business must be selected with the student's area of interest and/or career objectives in mind and with the approval of the program adviser.
Comprehensive Examination
Satisfactory completion of an end-of-program comprehensive written examination is required. The MSA program does not require a thesis.

Additional Program Requirements
Students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in the accounting foundation core. Students must earn a grade of "B-" (2.75) or higher in any undergraduate course taken after completion of the Bachelor’s degree in order for that course to count as a prerequisite in or to fulfill an admission requirements for the MSA degree.

5000-level courses taken in the undergraduate career that are used to earn the undergraduate accounting degree cannot be transferred into the MSA degree program.

Application Requirements
For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

In addition to the general UCF graduate application requirements, applicants to this program must provide:

- One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- 3.0 GPA in upper-division accounting and tax courses.
- Official, competitive GMAT score taken within the last five years.
- Résumé.
- A computer-based score of 233 (or 91 internet-based score) on the Test of English as a Foreign language (TOEFL) if an applicant is from a country where English is not the official language, or if an applicant’s degree is not from an accredited U.S. institution, or if an applicant did not earn a degree in a country where English is the only official language or a university where English is the only official language of instruction. Although we prefer the TOEFL, we will accept IELTS scores of 7.0.
- Applicants applying to this program who have attended a college/university outside the United States must provide a course-by-course credential evaluation with GPA calculation. Credential evaluations are accepted from World Education Services (WES) or Josef Silny and Associates, Inc. only.

College of Business Administration - Graduate Program
Revision - Accounting MSA

Program Description

The Kenneth G. Dixon School of Accounting offers a Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) degree program prepares with a choice of specialization in either Assurance, Management, or Taxation. These programs prepare individuals for careers as professional accountants and consultants in public accounting industry, financial institutions, government, and nonprofit organizations.

Faculty members in the Kenneth G. Dixon School of Accounting emphasize independent learning in various ways throughout the MSA program. Cases and research projects that involve independent work outside the classroom are incorporated into all coursework. The cases and projects are both individual and team prepared. Students are asked to do research that requires they utilize the library, internet, and resources other than the material provided by the professor. The results of independent research activity are presented in either a written report or case analysis or oral presentation. Students work to develop and enhance skills and competencies that will support them professionally throughout their careers. The approaches used in our courses encourage students toward life-long learning.

The MSA degree, along with the appropriate prerequisite work from an undergraduate degree in accounting, satisfies the education requirements to become a licensed CPA in the state of Florida. For information on how this program may prepare you for professional licensure, please visit http://business.ucf.edu/degree/accounting-msa/.

New-Core Program Tracks

Accounting MSA, Assurance Track
Accounting MSA, Management Track
Accounting MSA, Taxation Track

Curriculum

The Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) degree is awarded upon satisfactory completion of a minimum of 30 credit hours, and a final written exit exam. In the total program of study, a minimum of 21 credit hours of the coursework must be completed in accounting, tax, or business law courses. Students, with the assistance and approval of the program adviser, may select other courses that reflect their interests and career objectives.

Foundation Prerequisite Courses

The courses included in the business and accounting foundation core are listed below. An applicant with a recent undergraduate accounting degree should satisfy most of the core foundation requirements. Other recent-related business coursework may partially satisfy these core requirements. The business foundation core is designed for students with a nonbusiness undergraduate degree (e.g., psychology, education, or engineering). The accounting foundation core is designed for students with an undergraduate business degree (e.g., finance, marketing, or management). All business and accounting foundation core deficiencies must be satisfied before graduate MSA coursework can be taken. Before taking any foundation courses, please have your undergraduate transcripts reviewed by the MSA Program Adviser.

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF’s accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

<tr>
<td>Total Course Engagement</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

Justification for Course Addition

What is the rationale for adding this course?*
The course aims to supplement existing courses in Urban Design and GIS by preparing students without a design background to better communicate planning principles through visual, graphic and narrative expression.

What grad programs/tracks require or recommend this course for graduation?
Not required for graduation

What will be the source of students?*
Urban Regional Planning, Emergency Management

What is the estimated annual enrollment?*
25

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail any discussions you have had or attach relevant documents like email threads in the Attachment List Section.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to edcational activities

Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies

Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Full details of the syllabus policy can be found at: https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-403.pdf

Course Description: Integration of theory and practice in counseling supervision.

Prerequisite(s): Admission to PhD program in Education and MHS 7611.

Corequisite(s):

Does this proposal include revisions to prerequisites? Yes ☐ No ☐

Grading Scheme: ABCDF

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hour = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated. Also indicate who approves content before a course is repeated.

Repeat for credit? Yes No

If yes, indicate the degree program name and the total times the course may repeated.

If the course you are revising is a split-level class, please note this revision form will only impact the graduate side of the course. The undergraduate component of the course should be revised through the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. As a reminder, the graduate syllabus should clearly demonstrate more advanced subject matter, expectations, and rigor.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
  - Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Supplemental texts recommended for individual use:

I. Course Description & Content Area
MHS 7808 Internship in Counseling Supervision is intended to assist doctoral students to apply current supervision facts, concepts, and research in a counseling practicum setting. Furthermore, the course will provide opportunities for experiential learning and skill development in an applied supervisory setting and will enable students to develop their clinical supervision skills. This approach will develop out of an integration of knowledge (based on research) and experience, which can then be applied to a future work setting as a facilitating reflective practitioner.

II. Methods of Instruction
The content for this course will be delivered through assigned readings, seminar discussions, multimedia presentations, lectures, case presentations, small group discussions, and student assignments.
III. COURSE OBJECTIVES
At the conclusion of the course, students should be able to:

1. Understand the purposes of clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.a)
2. Demonstrate application of theoretical frameworks and models of clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.b)
3. Understand the roles and relationships related to clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.c)
5. Engage in triadic and group supervision to develop their personal style of clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.e)
6. Assess supervisees’ developmental level and other relevant characteristics (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.f)
7. Gain experience in the modalities of clinical supervision and the use of technology in supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.g)
8. Demonstrate competence in the administrative procedures and responsibilities related to clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.h)
9. Gain experience in evaluation, remediation, and/or gatekeeping in clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.i)
10. Identify the legal and ethical issues and responsibilities in clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.j)
11. Learn and demonstrate culturally relevant strategies for conducting clinical supervision (Doctoral Standards 6.B.2.k)
12. Understand and demonstrate assessment of student learning related to counseling performance assessment (Doctoral Standards 6.B.3.g)

IV. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Instructors’ Statement
Clinical supervision is defined as “an intervention that is provided by a senior member of a profession to a junior member or members of the same profession. This relationship is evaluative, extends over time, and has the simultaneous purposes of enhancing the professional functioning of the junior member(s), monitoring the quality of professional services offered to clients [or in this case supervisees] he/she sees, and serving as a gatekeeper for those who are to enter the particular profession.” In the content of this course, the supervision which students shall receive is evaluative in nature. In providing supervision-of-supervision in this course, I have five primary objectives:

1. To provide opportunities for you to demonstrate the supervision skills and techniques that have been learned thus far in your doctoral program in an intentional manner and within a theoretical framework;
2. To provide opportunities for you to demonstrate your ability to assess individual differences among supervisees, including cultural dimensions, in order to develop individualized plans to meet their supervision needs;
3. To provide opportunities for increased self-awareness of your own needs and attitudes that affect the supervision process and to begin to use these reactions within the supervision session (when appropriate);
4. To provide opportunities for you to demonstrate your understanding of the ethical and legal issues involved with supervision; and
5. To provide opportunities for you to learn effective workplace behaviors, particularly the special skills and norms appropriate to your future work as a counselor educator and supervisor.

Student Responsibilities
- Display professional behavior at all times (e.g., timely completion of paperwork, being on time for scheduled hours, dressing professionally and appropriately, following policies and procedures of the Clinic, and all other normal expectations of a representative of the UCF Counselor Education Doctoral Program).
- Familiarize yourself with all procedures regarding practicum.
- Be prepared for your triadic SOS supervision sessions.
- In addition to the textbook, short readings may be assigned from time to time to facilitate the supervision experience. These should be read and integrated into group discussions.

V. ASSIGNMENTS

1. Required Forms (20% of Final Grade) (Course Objectives 8, 10)
   - Student Liability Insurance
     Join the appropriate professional organizations (ACA, AMHCA, ASCA, AAMFT, FCA) and purchase student liability insurance.
   - Supervision Contract
     Personalize and edit the Sample Supervision Contract (located in webcourses) to use with your supervisees.
   - Statement of Learning Goals
     Complete and submit the written statement of individual learning goals for SOS. Due by your first individual SOS session.
   - Session Review Forms
     By individual SOS supervision session, students are required to have completed a Session Review Form (see Files in webcourses) for each supervisee they supervise each week (e.g., if you supervise two students, you will turn in two separate Session Review Forms in individual supervision each week).

2. SOS Supervision Requirements (40% of Final Grade) (Course Objectives 1 through 12)
   A. Practicum Supervision:
   - Each SOS student (that’s you!) will be placed with a section of master’s level practicum students and will assist the instructor of that group with both triadic and group supervision.
   - SOS students will be assigned 2 master’s students from your assigned practicum section. You will schedule one hour of weekly triadic supervision with these students (arranged according to the desires of the practicum instructor with whom you are working). Each session must be recorded and these arrangements must be made in the Community Counseling and Research Center.
• SOS students will attend and participate in the group supervision of your assigned section of practicum each week.
• SOS students will attend and engage in live observation of supervision in the assigned practicum section. Students will sit by the monitors in the practicum clinic and observe their supervisees (and other student counselors).

B. SOS Supervision
• Weekly individual/triadic supervision of your supervision (SOS supervision) will be scheduled with Dr. Jones. This supervision will focus both on your progress with your supervisee(s) and any concerns/interventions that the instructor is specifically addressing with the students enrolled in the practicum section. Students are required to complete the following for each weekly triadic SOS session:
  1. review the video recording of your supervision sessions
  2. complete a “Session Review Form” on each of your supervisees (usually two forms per week)
• Weekly group SOS supervision will consist of identifying any issues of concern as a basis for either discussion or instruction. Group SOS supervision will consist of case consultation, lecture, and discussion and/or case presentation.
• In addition to the session reviews, other activities that are outlined in the course requirements will occur on a regular basis.

3. Case Study Paper and Presentation (20% of Final Grade) (Course Objectives 2, 6, 12)
All students will be responsible for two formal case papers and presentations of a supervisee seen this semester. The purpose of case presentations is to provide opportunities for interactive group feedback. This assignment requires the following (Course Objectives 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 & 9):

1. Case Study Paper: Follow the Case Study Paper Outline for your paper (located in webcourses). Upload the complete Case Study Paper to webcourses. Provide copies of the case study summary (1 page) for all students and instructor. NOTE: The due date for your paper is different for each student. Your paper is due on the date that you present your case study in class.
2. Counseling Competency Scale: Complete the CCS-R on the supervisee from your case and upload to webcourses. Due on the day you present your case study in class. NOTE: You will also be completing a midterm and final CCS-R on your supervisee.
3. Presentation:
   a. Present a review of your case study summary (about 10 minutes)
   b. Show a portion of your supervision session video (choose approximately 15 minutes of one supervision session on which you would like specific feedback).
      • Show a video of the second session or later.
      • Choose a sample of your best work, a sample of lesser quality work, or a sample for which you have particular questions.
      • All video recordings must have excellent quality.
   c. Group feedback and discussion (approximately 30 minutes).
   d. Due as scheduled in class.

4. Supervision Evolution Paper (20% of Final Grade) (Course Objectives 1, 2, 5)
In this assignment, you will write about how your supervision theory (based on the supervision theory paper that you wrote last semester) evolved this semester. Provide specific examples. For example, if your paper last semester had an “evaluation” component, you will add the experiences you had this semester with your supervisees as they relate to evaluation and how those experiences impacted the evolution of your theory. This “evolved” model of supervision will be an APA formatted paper that includes a synthesis of:

a. the Professional Experiences you had this semester (e.g., seminars, readings, consultations, etc.),
b. the Practical Experiences that you had this semester (which can follow each section of your original supervision paper that notes what actually happened in your work with your supervisees)
c. the Attainment of Supervision Learning Goals (i.e. how well you attained your stated goals for supervision, what made it possible/what interfered with the attainment of your goals, etc.)

This paper must be an original work, must meet doctoral-level writing expectations, and serves as an outgrowth of your supervisory experience as well as your increased knowledge of supervision.

5. Attendance and Participation
Due to the experiential nature of the course and the depth and breadth of material presented, students are strongly urged to attend all scheduled SOS class meetings, SOS triadic supervision meetings, assigned practicum class sessions (both group supervision and live supervision), and masters’ students’ triadic supervision. Five (5) percentage points will be subtracted from students’ final grade for EACH absence. Students can be absent from ONE (1) class meeting or triadic session (either SOS or masters) (if he or she contacts instructor prior to class meeting) without incurring the 5-percentage point reduction from your final grade. There are no “excused” absences. If you know you will be absent, contact me through a text, phone message, email or meeting. Above all else, I want to know you are safe and well.

Regarding class participation, students are expected to attend class, be alert, respond to questions, and do in-class exercises. Students are not allowed to text, check emails, surf the Internet, or engage in any other non-class related activity on the laptop.

IMPORTANT: All assignments will be submitted via webcourses. No assignment will be accepted late, by email, or by hard copy. Assignments will be typed double-spaced and using 12-point New Times Roman font. All email communication is through webcourses.

VII. Policy Statements

Professionalism
Due to the experiential, interpersonal, and intrapersonal nature of this class, professionalism is critical. Within course discussions, students will need to display the ability to accept constructive feedback and collaborate with their peers. It is the instructor’s responsibility to ensure that students in education possess the abilities to handle these professional responsibilities. Please see the instructor if you have any concerns.

Confidentiality
We will be dealing with very personal and sensitive matters, both from our own, our supervisees’, and their clients’ lives. It is imperative that we engage in a respectful dialogue, even when we disagree. Please remember that any personal, supervisee, or client information revealed during supervision time is confidential and should be confined to the class. Any discussion about supervisees or clients with fellow class members and/or faculty must be conducted in such a fashion as to protect the limits of confidentiality. The only reason that the professor would break confidentiality is for the same reasons you would do so with a supervisee or a client.

Electronic Communication Devices
Please ensure that any pagers or cellular phones are turned off for the duration of the class. The professor reserves the right to answer any ringing telephone.

Academic Integrity
Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct at http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc. According to Section 1, “Academic Misconduct,” students are prohibited from engaging in:
1. Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
2. Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
3. Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.
4. Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.
5. Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.
6. Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.
7. Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity http://www.academicintegrity.org/cai/assets/FVProject.pdf. For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices” http://wpacouncil.org/node/9. In addition to the above, students in the MD Program should also familiarize themselves with the MD Program Student Honor Code, which can be found at https://med.ucf.edu/student-affairs/gps-a-good-place-to-start/policies/.
Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating
Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf, as well as the UCF COM MD Program Student Honor Code (https://med.ucf.edu/student-affairs/gps-a-good-place-to- start/policies/). UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a “Z Designation” on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

Course Accessibility Statement
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the Medical Student Accessibility Liaison (MSAL) as soon as possible. The MSAL can be reached in the medical education building, Room 205, by email (zoe@ucf.edu), or by phone (407-266-1392). Additional information is available at https://med.ucf.edu/student-affairs/student-academic-support-services/.

Campus Safety Statement
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door.
- Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). First aid kits and AED machines are located by the elevators on each floor of the medical education building.
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NIKYajEx4pk).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

Inclement Weather Policy
In the event of inclement weather, class will be canceled ONLY if UCF closes. Please monitor your texts and email for any message about canceled classes.

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement
2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement
3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement
Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, indicate the degree program name and the total times the course may repeated.

If the course you are revising is a split-level class, please note this revision form will only impact the graduate side of the course. The undergraduate component of the course should be revised through the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. As a reminder, the graduate syllabus should clearly demonstrate more advanced subject matter, expectations, and rigor.

Justification for Course Revision

What is the rationale for revising this course?*
As requested by Dr. Bartee, the CTE program course offerings have been revised to better sequence the POS.
Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail discussion you have had.

Detail Discussion
There are no possible duplications or conflicts with other departments or colleges as this course is a specific elective class for the Career and Technical Education M.A. program or for students who are interested in CTE.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
  - Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Webcourses
This course is offered in an online platform called Webcourses. It is an online course management system (accessed through my.ucf.edu and through https://webcourses.ucf.edu). You will find all the course materials, resources, assignments, discussions, and announcements in your Webcourse. My recommendation is to check Webcourses every two days for announcements and updates from your teammates or myself.

Academic Course Requirements

The following course expectations are used in determining your grade in the course.

Module Assignments (70%)
Your written work must be professional in appearance. It should also be free from grammatical and spelling errors. It is very important that your work be posted on or before the published due date/time to be considered on time. You will have until a specific date and time noted for each course (see Schedule). Please see the "Grading Procedures" provided below.

Module Discussions (5%)
There are five module discussion activities. Each discussion activity is worth 10 points for a total of 50 points or 5% of your final grade. You will contribute to a discussion about the course lessons and engage in a conversation with your peers. This is done to encourage class discussion and master the course content.
Reflection (5%)
At the very end of each course, we require a reflection. It is done to offer you an opportunity to sit and think about the course – any aspect of it – and note your reflections.

Final Examination (20%)
There will be one overall exam at the end of the course. It is weighted at 10% of the total course grade. Turnaround time for this varies, but is usually 7-10 days. Pay attention to the course Schedule.

Administrative Course Requirements

Attendance
Our online courses place a strong emphasis upon the interaction of the students. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class sessions. The failure to attend class will negatively affect your grade. Attending class in Webcourses includes, but is not limited to, logging in at least every two days, reading the syllabus and course schedule, reading course content, completing assignments, engaging in discussions as required, and reading announcements.

Academic Activity
Federal regulations require that federal aid awards be based on courses in which students have completed an academically related activity. Effective beginning in fall 2014, federal aid awards will disburse based on the number of credit hours in which an academic activity has been confirmed.

In order to document that you began this course, please complete the assignment posted on Webcourses@UCF as an “Academic Activity” by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than the fourth day of the start of the course. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.

Late Assignments
- Late point deductions are 10% of the assignment total per day late. For instance, if the assignment is worth 150 points or 15% of the final grade, then late points will be 15 points per day late. Late peer replies will not receive points as the assignment has already passed, and your peers are onto the next module.
Career and Technical Education M.A. Degree Program
Department of Educational Leadership and Higher Education

• Make-Up work and late excuses may be accepted on a case-by-case basis and only under approval of the instructor. Documentation must be provided, such as a doctor’s note. If you believe you will be late or would like to talk to me about this issue, please email me through the Canvas Inbox (conversations tool) above.

• Incomplete final grade. Incomplete final grades are rarely given and only in extreme circumstance. To be considered for an incomplete grade, at least 75% of all the assignments must have been completed before the end of the course.

*As per instructor policy.

Evaluation and Grading System

All of our courses use the same grading scale and follow the same grading procedure. This is based on specific principles:

• The work you do is performance-based; assignments are actual or simulate real-world work.

• There is one opportunity to revise selected work within five (5) days of the date it is graded as per your instructor.

• Work is assessed using criterion and not norm-referenced; a "normal curve" is not used in calculating grades or activity scores in our courses.

• We attempt to treat adult learners as adult learners; hence, exams, as such, are weighted lower than in most other college courses. There are no make-up exams.

• A "participation" component termed "Professionalism" is included in each course to simulate required participation in real-world work.

Each student earns points throughout the course. Below is the grading scale used in the course. Points available for each assignment are listed in the "Schedule".

The faculty in this program have chosen NOT to adopt plus or minus policy for grades.

Grading Procedures

The following are the grading procedures used in determining your grade in each course.

Assignments Posting

Assignments need to be posted to discussion areas by 11:55 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the due date. See the late policy above. Any time you feel you might be falling behind in the course, it is best to contact the instructor immediately to discuss your situation. No assignments will be accepted after the final day of class. Late assignment policies are at the discretion of the instructor.

Reposting

If you did not receive 100% of the points assigned to an activity, you have the chance to repost the activity within five (5) days of receiving the grade (please see the "Posting of Grades" section below) as per instructor’s policy. However, reposting does not apply to an activity that requires you to post a response to another student. In other words, you are not able to go back into an activity and post a response to another student’s original posting after the activity's due date. Reposting only applies to an original posting for an assignment that did not receive full point value.
Grade Availability
Grades are completed approximately one week after the due date. You can view your grades by selecting the "Grades" link from the Course Homepage. If you do not see your grade after two weeks, please notify your instructor.

Make-up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-Curricular Activities
Students are frequently asked to represent the university in authorized events and activities. In some cases, this participation conflicts with the students' course assignments and requirements. It is university policy that faculty members offer a reasonable opportunity for such students to complete missed classroom deadlines or assignments, including written or oral examinations, quizzes, term papers, or other assignments. Furthermore, the make-up assignment and grading scale should be equivalent to the missed assignment and its grading scale. No penalty due to absence may be applied to these make-up assignments.

The names of students participating in authorized activities, intercollegiate athletics, band, choir, co-curricular activities, and academically related program events will be listed on a Program Verification Form. It is the student’s responsibility to present a copy of this form signed by the appropriate individual to the faculty member(s) responsible for the class from which the student will be absent. The student must provide the Program Verification Form prior to the class in which the absence occurs. The university sponsor signs a copy of the Program Verification Form and files it with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for verification purposes.

UCF Policies, Guidelines, and Resources
Career Accessibility
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371).

Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety
This course is offered online. However, if there is a need for a student to come to campus, please read the following:

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts. In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance. Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.

Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. If there is a medical emergency, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html> (click on link from menu on left).

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

UCF Cares
During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges.

You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

UCF University Writing Center
The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Tutors provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix or edit papers, but to teach writing strategies that can be applied to any writing situation. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by clicking the Success Resources tab on Webcourses, calling the UWC at 407-823-2197, or through the UWC website. Contact the UCF University Writing Center for online help.

- The UWC seeks graduate and undergraduate tutors from all majors. To learn more about becoming a writing tutor, please contact us.
Online Learning
Online learning is not for everyone; some people may not be able to manage a course that does not meet face to face to learn. Online learning requires lots of planning and self-pacing so that you may be successful in my course. Since I will be covering much material in 16 weeks, I would highly recommend treating this course like a regular lecture course, and keeping up with lectures and assignments. Please do not be tempted to skip two weeks of lectures and expect to catch up easily. Review this website for more information: Student Support for Learning Online

Knight’s Email Account and Webcourse Communication
In this class, our official mode of communication is through email located inside Webcourses. All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. It is the student's responsibility to check the "course mail" tool frequently.

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you constantly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications.

To create your Knight's Email account, visit www.knightsemail.ucf.edu.

Copyright
This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Plagiarism & Turnitin
As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/).
In this course we may utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit assignments in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Ethical Policies
At UCF adhering to acceptable ethical practices is considered essential. To that end you are asked to:
- Access the Golden Rule on line
- Read thoroughly Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Rules of Student Conduct
- Student Academic Behavior Standards

The UCF Creed
Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Conceptual Framework

The graphical representation of our conceptual framework is based on basic geometric shapes that aptly portray key aspects of the framework:

At the heart of the model are three concentric circles creating a “target” for graduates from all of our professional education programs. The core objective (“bull’s eye”) is becoming a Professional Educator, an achievement that requires continuous reflective practice (middle ring) and professional development aligned with applicable national, state, and institutional standards (outer ring).

The three triangles represent three broad levels of professional development: Pre-professional, Professional, and Accomplished (note the physical progression indicating that professional development always moves in the direction toward Professional Educator). These triangles also represent the three major dimensions of professional development: knowledge, skills, and dispositions.

Integrated throughout all aspects of our conceptual framework and thus reflected as a circle-in-motion is our circle of core beliefs (Research Base, Best Practice, Life-Long Learning, Ethics, Social Justice, Equity, Diversity, Caring, Democracy, Academic Standards, and High Quality Education).

The outer pentagon of the conceptual framework represents five broad orientations regarding the preparation of professional educators (Academic, Teaching/Scientific, Practical, Critical/Social, and Humanistic), which serve as a broad foundation for the framework.
Career & Technical Education Educator Accomplished Practices

The Educator Accomplished Practices. Each effective educator applies the foundational principles through six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices. Each of the practices is clearly defined to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility.

Quality of Instruction

1. Instructional Design and Lesson Planning.

Applying concepts from human development and learning theories, the effective educator consistently:

a. Aligns instruction with state-adopted workforce standards at the appropriate level of rigor;

b. Sequences lessons and concepts to ensure coherence and required prior knowledge.

c. Designs instruction for students to achieve mastery;

d. Selects appropriate formative assessments to monitor learning;
e. Uses a variety of data, independently, and in collaboration with colleagues, to evaluate learning outcomes, adjust planning and continuously improve the effectiveness of the lessons; and

f. Develops learning experiences that require students to demonstrate a variety of applicable skills and competencies.

g. Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities

h. Models and implements the use of higher order thinking abilities

i. Reflects research-based best practices in instructional methods (Disposition)

2. The Learning Environment.

To maintain a student-centered learning environment that is safe, organized, equitable, flexible, inclusive, and collaborative, the effective educator consistently:

a. Organizes, allocates, and manages the resources of time, space, and attention;

b. Manages individual and class behaviors through a well-planned management system;

c. Conveys high expectations to all students;

d. Respects students’ cultural, linguistic and family background;

e. Models clear, acceptable oral and written communication skills;

f. Maintains a climate of openness, inquiry, fairness and support;

g. Integrates current information and communication technologies;

h. Adapts the learning environment to accommodate the differing needs and diversity of students; and

i. Utilizes current and emerging assistive technologies that enable students to participate in high-quality communication interactions and achieve their educational goals.

j. Values high academic standards and believes students deserve a high-quality education (Disposition)

3. Instructional Delivery and Facilitation.
The effective educator consistently utilizes a deep and comprehensive knowledge of the subject taught to:

a. Deliver engaging and challenging lessons;
b. Deepen and enrich students’ understanding through content area literacy strategies, verbalization of thought, and application of the subject matter;
c. Identify gaps in students’ subject matter knowledge;
d. Modify instruction to respond to preconceptions or misconceptions;
e. Relate and integrate the subject matter with other disciplines and life experiences;
f. Employ higher-order questioning techniques;
g. Apply varied instructional strategies and resources, including appropriate technology, to provide comprehensible instruction, and to teach for student understanding;
h. Differentiate instruction based on an assessment of student learning needs and recognition of individual differences in students;
i. Support, encourage, and provide immediate and specific feedback to students to promote student achievement; and
j. Utilize student feedback to monitor instructional needs and to adjust instruction.
k. Has a repertoire of teaching techniques and strategies to effectively instruct all students.
l. Values technology as a tool to enhance learning. (Disposition)

4. Assessment.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Analyzes and applies data from multiple assessments and measures to diagnose students’ learning needs, informs instruction based on those needs, and drives the learning process;
b. Designs and aligns formative and summative assessments that match learning objectives and lead to mastery;

c. Uses a variety of assessment tools to monitor student progress, achievement and learning gains;

d. Modifies assessments and testing conditions to accommodate learning styles and varying levels of knowledge;

e. Shares the importance and outcomes of student assessment data with the student; and

f. Applies technology to organize and integrate assessment information.

g. Grades student performance fairly and without bias (Disposition)

Continuous Improvement, Responsibility and Ethics.

5. Continuous Professional Improvement.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Designs purposeful professional goals to strengthen the effectiveness of instruction based on students’ needs;

b. Examines and uses data-informed research to improve instruction and student achievement;

c. Works with colleagues to meet identified educational, physical, social, linguistic, cultural, and emotional needs of students;

d. Engages in targeted professional growth opportunities and reflective practices, both independently and in collaboration with colleagues; and

e. Implements knowledge and skills learned in professional development in the teaching and learning process.

6. Professional Responsibility and Ethical Conduct.

a. Does not intentionally distort or misrepresent facts concerning an educational matter in direct or indirect public expression
b. Encourages student responsibility, appropriate social behavior, integrity, valuing of diversity, honesty, and honoring multiple perspectives

c. Understanding that educators are held to a high moral standard in a community, the effective educator adheres to the Code of Ethics and the Principles of Professional Conduct of the Education Profession of Florida, pursuant to State Board of Education Rules 6B-1.001 and 6B1.006, F.A.C, and fulfills the expected obligations to students, the public and the education profession. Rulemaking Authority 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. Law Implemented 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. History–New 7-2-98; Amended 12-17-10.

Demonstrates concern for student learning and promotes student well-being through professional commitment including being punctual, responsible, organized, attends class regularly, demonstrates pride in self and work, gets along well with others, is self-controlled, and is flexible (Disposition).

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement

4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement
Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

If yes, indicate the degree program name and the total times the course may repeated.

If the course you are revising is a split-level class, please note this revision form will only impact the graduate side of the course. The undergraduate component of the course should be revised through the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. As a reminder, the graduate syllabus should clearly demonstrate more advanced subject matter, expectations, and rigor.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
  - Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies

Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Course Overview
A "research" course in occupational education is meant to provide opportunities for review of research and discourse about career and workforce education. At the graduate level, courses should offer opportunities to write intensively and discuss research findings in preparation for the comprehensive examinations. The course starts out with an overview of types of research that has been conducted. Students will then focus on an area of interest to complete the other assignments of the course which involve the various types of research.
Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify an area of research in career and/or workforce education
2. Examine various types of research methodologies
3. Differentiate between qualitative and quantitative research
4. Analyze the components of a research article
5. Evaluate research findings
6. Discuss the results of a national research report
7. Develop a review of literature annotated bibliography
8. Develop a proposal draft for peer review
9. Create a proposal for a journal article or conference presentation
10. Reflect, evaluate and discuss the research topics covered in this course
11. Demonstrate the ability to use the Internet search engines
12. Research databases in the UCF Library using online access.
13. Demonstrate the ability to use APA format

Webcourses
This course is offered in an online platform called Webcourses. It is an online course management system (accessed through my.ucf.edu and through https://webcourses.ucf.edu/). You will find all the course materials, resources, assignments, discussions, and announcements in your Webcourse. My recommendation is to check Webcourses every two days for announcements and updates from your teammates or myself.

Academic Course Requirements

The following course expectations are used in determining your grade in the course.

Module Assignments (70%)
Your written work must be professional in appearance. It should also be free from grammatical and spelling errors. It is very important that your work be posted on or before the published due date/time to be considered on time. You will have until a specific date and time noted for each course (see Schedule). Please see the "Grading Procedures" provided below.
Module Discussions (5%)
There are five module discussion activities. Each discussion activity is worth 10 points for a total of 50 points or 5% of your final grade. You will contribute to a discussion about the course lessons and engage in a conversation with your peers. This is done to encourage class discussion and master the course content.

Reflection (5%)
At the very end of each course, we require a reflection. It is done to offer you an opportunity to sit and think about the course – any aspect of it – and note your reflections.

Final Examination (20%)
There will be one overall exam at the end of the course. It is worth 200 points or 20% of the final course grade. A late submission will not be accepted. There is no repost opportunity for a final examination. Pay attention to the course Schedule.

Administrative Course Requirements

Attendance
Our online courses place a strong emphasis upon the interaction of the students. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class sessions. The failure to attend class will negatively affect your grade. Attending class in Webcourses includes, but is not limited to, logging in at least every two days, reading the syllabus and course schedule, reading course content, completing assignments, engaging in discussions as required, and reading announcements.

Academic Activity
Federal regulations require that federal aid awards be based on courses in which students have completed an academically related activity. Effective beginning in fall 2014, federal aid awards will disburse based on the number of credit hours in which an academic activity has been confirmed.

In order to document that you began this course, please complete the assignment posted on Webcourses@UCF as an “Academic Activity “by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than the fourth day of the start of the course. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.
Late Assignments

- Late point deductions are 10% of the assignment total per day late. For instance, if the assignment is worth 150 points or 15% of the final grade, then late points will be 15 points per day late. Late peer replies will not receive points as the assignment has already passed, and your peers are onto the next module.

- Make-Up work and late excuses may be accepted on a case-by-case basis and only under approval of the instructor. Documentation must be provided, such as a doctor's note. If you believe you will be late or would like to talk to me about this issue, please email me through the Canvas Inbox (conversations tool) above.

- Incomplete final grade. Incomplete final grades are rarely given and only in extreme circumstance. To be considered for an incomplete grade, at least 75% of all the assignments must have been completed before the end of the course.

*As per instructor policy.

Evaluation and Grading System

All of our courses use the same grading scale and follow the same grading procedure. This is based on specific principles:

- The work you do is performance-based; assignments are actual or simulate real-world work.
- There is one opportunity to revise selected work within five (5) days of the date it is graded as per your instructor.
- Work is assessed using criterion and not norm-referenced; a "normal curve" is not used in calculating grades or activity scores in our courses.
- We attempt to treat adult learners as adult learners; hence, exams, as such, are weighted lower than in most other college courses. There are no make-up exams.
- A "participation" component termed "Professionalism" is included in each course to simulate required participation in real-world work.

Each student earns points throughout the course. Below is the grading scale used in the course. Points available for each assignment are listed in the "Schedule".
The faculty in this program have chosen NOT to adopt plus or minus policy for grades.

Grading Procedures

The following are the grading procedures used in determining your grade in each course.

Assignments Posting
Assignments need to be posted to discussion areas by 11:55 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the due date. See the late policy above. Any time you feel you might be falling behind in the course, it is best to contact the instructor immediately to discuss your situation. No assignments will be accepted after the final day of class. Late assignment policies are at the discretion of the instructor.

Reposting
If you did not receive 100% of the points assigned to an activity, you have the chance to repost the activity within five (5) days of receiving the grade (please see the "Posting of Grades" section below) as per instructor’s policy.

However, reposting does not apply to an activity that requires you to post a response to another student. In other words, you are not able to go back into an activity and post a response to another student’s original posting after... the activity's due date. Reposting only applies to an original posting for an assignment that did not receive full point value.

Grade Availability
Grades are completed approximately one week after the due date. You can view your grades by selecting the "Grades" link from the Course Homepage. If you do not see your grade after two weeks, please notify your instructor.

Make-up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-Curricular Activities
Students are frequently asked to represent the university in authorized events and activities. In some cases, this participation conflicts with the students' course assignments and requirements. It is university policy that faculty members offer a reasonable opportunity for such students to complete missed classroom deadlines or assignments, including written or oral examinations, quizzes, term papers, or other assignments. Furthermore, the make-up assignment and grading scale should be equivalent to the missed assignment and its grading scale. No penalty due to absence may be applied to these make-up assignments.

The names of students participating in authorized activities, intercollegiate athletics, band, choir, co-curricular activities, and academically related program events will be listed on a Program Verification Form. It is the student’s responsibility to present a copy of this form signed by the appropriate individual to the faculty member(s) responsible for the class from which the student will be absent. The student must provide the Program Verification Form prior to the class in which the absence occurs. The university sponsor signs a copy of the Program Verification Form and files it with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for verification purposes.

Course Accessibility
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371).

Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety
This course is offered online. However, if there is a need for a student to come to campus, please read the following:

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts. In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance. Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.

Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. If there is a medical emergency, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html> (click on link from menu on left).

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

UCF Cares
During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges.

You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

UCF University Writing Center
The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Tutors provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix or edit papers, but to teach writing strategies that can be applied to any writing situation. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by clicking the Success Resources tab on Webcourses, calling the UWC at 407-823-2197, or through the UWC website. Contact the [UCF University Writing Center](http://UCF University Writing Center) for online help.

- The UWC seeks graduate and undergraduate tutors from all majors. To learn more about becoming a writing tutor, please contact us.
Online Learning
Online learning is not for everyone; some people may not be able to manage a course that does not meet face to face to learn. Online learning requires lots of planning and self-pacing so that you may be successful in my course. Since I will be covering much material in 16 weeks, I would highly recommend treating this course like a regular lecture course, and keeping up with lectures and assignments. Please do not be tempted to skip two weeks of lectures and expect to catch up easily. Review this website for more information: Student Support for Learning Online

Knight's Email Account and Webcourse Communication
In this class, our official mode of communication is through email located inside Webcourses. All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. It is the student's responsibility to check the "course mail" tool frequently.

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you constantly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications.

To create your Knight's Email account, visit www.knightsemail.ucf.edu.

Copyright
This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Plagiarism & Turnitin
As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/).
In this course we may utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit assignments in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Ethical Policies

At UCF adhering to acceptable ethical practices is considered essential. To that end you are asked to:

- Access the Golden Rule on line
- Read thoroughly Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Rules of Student Conduct
- Student Academic Behavior Standards

---

The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence
I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.
Conceptual Framework

The graphical representation of our conceptual framework is based on basic geometric shapes that aptly portray key aspects of the framework:

At the heart of the model are three concentric circles creating a “target” for graduates from all of our professional education programs. The core objective (“bull’s eye”) is becoming a Professional Educator, an achievement that requires continuous reflective practice (middle ring) and professional development aligned with applicable national, state, and institutional standards (outer ring).

The three triangles represent three broad levels of professional development: Pre-professional, Professional, and Accomplished (note the physical progression indicating that professional development always moves in the direction toward Professional Educator). These triangles also represent the three major dimensions of professional development: knowledge, skills, and dispositions.

Integrated throughout all aspects of our conceptual framework and thus reflected as a circle-in-motion is our circle of core beliefs (Research Base, Best Practice, Life-Long Learning, Ethics, Social Justice, Equity, Diversity, Caring, Democracy, Academic Standards, and High Quality Education).

The outer pentagon of the conceptual framework represents five broad orientations regarding the preparation of professional educators (Academic, Teaching/Scientific, Practical, Critical/Social, and Humanistic), which serve as a broad foundation for the framework.
Career & Technical Education Educator Accomplished Practices

The Educator Accomplished Practices. Each effective educator applies the foundational principles through six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices. Each of the practices is clearly defined to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility.

Quality of Instruction

1. Instructional Design and Lesson Planning.

Applying concepts from human development and learning theories, the effective educator consistently:

a. Aligns instruction with state-adopted workforce standards at the appropriate level of rigor;

b. Sequences lessons and concepts to ensure coherence and required prior knowledge.

c. Designs instruction for students to achieve mastery;

d. Selects appropriate formative assessments to monitor learning;
e. Uses a variety of data, independently, and in collaboration with colleagues, to evaluate learning outcomes, adjust planning and continuously improve the effectiveness of the lessons; and

f. Develops learning experiences that require students to demonstrate a variety of applicable skills and competencies.

g. Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities

h. Models and implements the use of higher order thinking abilities

i. Reflects research-based best practices in instructional methods (Disposition)

2. The Learning Environment.

To maintain a student-centered learning environment that is safe, organized, equitable, flexible, inclusive, and collaborative, the effective educator consistently:

a. Organizes, allocates, and manages the resources of time, space, and attention;

b. Manages individual and class behaviors through a well-planned management system;

c. Conveys high expectations to all students;

d. Respects students’ cultural, linguistic and family background;

e. Models clear, acceptable oral and written communication skills;

f. Maintains a climate of openness, inquiry, fairness and support;

g. Integrates current information and communication technologies;

h. Adapts the learning environment to accommodate the differing needs and diversity of students; and

i. Utilizes current and emerging assistive technologies that enable students to participate in high-quality communication interactions and achieve their educational goals.

j. Values high academic standards and believes students deserve a high-quality education (Disposition)

3. Instructional Delivery and Facilitation.
The effective educator consistently utilizes a deep and comprehensive knowledge of the subject taught to:

a. Deliver engaging and challenging lessons;
b. Deepen and enrich students’ understanding through content area literacy strategies, verbalization of thought, and application of the subject matter;
c. Identify gaps in students’ subject matter knowledge;
d. Modify instruction to respond to preconceptions or misconceptions;
e. Relate and integrate the subject matter with other disciplines and life experiences;
f. Employ higher-order questioning techniques;
g. Apply varied instructional strategies and resources, including appropriate technology, to provide comprehensible instruction, and to teach for student understanding;
h. Differentiate instruction based on an assessment of student learning needs and recognition of individual differences in students;
i. Support, encourage, and provide immediate and specific feedback to students to promote student achievement; and
j. Utilize student feedback to monitor instructional needs and to adjust instruction.
k. Has a repertoire of teaching techniques and strategies to effectively instruct all students.
l. Values technology as a tool to enhance learning. (Disposition)

4. Assessment.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Analyzes and applies data from multiple assessments and measures to diagnose students’ learning needs, informs instruction based on those needs, and drives the learning process;
b. Designs and aligns formative and summative assessments that match learning objectives and lead to mastery;

c. Uses a variety of assessment tools to monitor student progress, achievement and learning gains;

d. Modifies assessments and testing conditions to accommodate learning styles and varying levels of knowledge;

e. Shares the importance and outcomes of student assessment data with the student; and

f. Applies technology to organize and integrate assessment information.

g. Grades student performance fairly and without bias (Disposition)

Continuous Improvement, Responsibility and Ethics.

5. Continuous Professional Improvement.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Designs purposeful professional goals to strengthen the effectiveness of instruction based on students’ needs;

b. Examines and uses data-informed research to improve instruction and student achievement;

c. Works with colleagues to meet identified educational, physical, social, linguistic, cultural, and emotional needs of students;

d. Engages in targeted professional growth opportunities and reflective practices, both independently and in collaboration with colleagues; and

e. Implements knowledge and skills learned in professional development in the teaching and learning process.

6. Professional Responsibility and Ethical Conduct.

a. Does not intentionally distort or misrepresent facts concerning an educational matter in direct or indirect public expression
b. Encourages student responsibility, appropriate social behavior, integrity, valuing of diversity, honesty, and honoring multiple perspectives

c. Understanding that educators are held to a high moral standard in a community, the effective educator adheres to the Code of Ethics and the Principles of Professional Conduct of the Education Profession of Florida, pursuant to State Board of Education Rules 6B-1.001 and 6B1.006, F.A.C, and fulfills the expected obligations to students, the public and the education profession. Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hour</th>

<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Course Engagement</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement
2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement
3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated. Also indicate who approves content before a course is repeated.

Repeat for credit? Yes No

If yes, indicate the degree program name and the total times the course may repeated.

If the course you are revising is a split-level class, please note this revision form will only impact the graduate side of the course. The undergraduate component of the course should be revised through the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. As a reminder, the graduate syllabus should clearly demonstrate more advanced subject matter, expectations, and rigor.

Justification for Course Revision
What is the rationale for revising this course?*

As requested by Dr. Bartee, the CTE program course offerings have been revised to better sequence the POS.

What grad programs/tracks require or recommend this course for graduation?

If not a major requirement, what will be the source of students?

What is the estimated annual enrollment?

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail discussion you have had.

Detail Discussion

There are no possible duplications or conflicts with other departments or colleges as this course is an elective class for the Career and Technical Education M.A. program.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies

Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Webcourses
This course is offered in an online platform called Webcourses. It is an online course management system (accessed through my.ucf.edu and through https://webcourses.ucf.edu). You will find all the course materials, resources, assignments, discussions, and announcements in your Webcourse. My recommendation is to check Webcourses every two days for announcements and updates from your teammates or myself.

Academic Course Requirements

The following course expectations are used in determining your grade in the course.

Module Assignments (70%)
Your written work must be professional in appearance. It should also be free from grammatical and spelling errors. It is very important that your work be posted on or before the published due date/time to be considered on time. You will have until a specific date and time noted for each course (see Schedule). Please see the "Grading Procedures" provided below.

Module Discussions (5%)
There are five module discussion activities. Each discussion activity is worth 10 points for a total of 50 points or 5% of your final grade. You will contribute to a discussion about the course lessons and engage in a conversation with your peers. This is done to encourage class discussion and master the course content.

Reflection (5%)
At the very end of each course, we require a reflection. It is done to offer you an opportunity to sit and think about the course – any aspect of it – and note your reflections.

Final Examination (20%)
There will be one overall exam at the end of the course. It is weighted at 10% of the total course grade. Turnaround time for this varies, but is usually 7-10 days. Pay attention to the course Schedule.

Department of Educational Leadership and Higher Education

Administrative Course Requirements

Attendance
Our online courses place a strong emphasis upon the interaction of the students. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class sessions. The failure to attend class will negatively affect your grade. Attending class in Webcourses includes, but is not limited to, logging in at least every two days, reading the syllabus and course schedule, reading course content, completing assignments, engaging in discussions as required, and reading announcements.

Academic Activity
Federal regulations require that federal aid awards be based on courses in which students have completed an academically related activity. Effective beginning in fall 2014, federal aid awards will disburse based on the number of credit hours in which an academic activity has been confirmed.

In order to document that you began this course, please complete the assignment posted on Webcourses@UCF as an “Academic Activity” by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than the fourth day of the start of the course. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.

Late Assignments
• Late point deductions are 10% of the assignment total per day late. For instance, if the assignment is worth 150 points or 15% of the final grade, then late points will be 15 points per day late. Late peer replies will not receive points as the assignment has already passed, and your peers are onto the next module.

• Make-Up work and late excuses may be accepted on a case-by-case basis and only under approval of the instructor. Documentation must be provided, such as a doctor’s note. If you believe you will be late or would like to talk to me about this issue, please email me through the Canvas Inbox (conversations tool) above.

• Incomplete final grade. Incomplete final grades are rarely given and only in extreme circumstance. To be considered for an incomplete grade, at least 75% of all the assignments must have been completed before the end of the course.

*As per instructor policy.
Evaluation and Grading System

All of our courses use the same grading scale and follow the same grading procedure. This is based on specific principles:

- The work you do is performance-based; assignments are actual or simulate real-world work.
- There is one opportunity to revise selected work within five (5) days of the date it is graded as per your instructor.
- Work is assessed using criterion and not norm-referenced; a "normal curve" is not used in calculating grades or activity scores in our courses.
- We attempt to treat adult learners as adult learners; hence, exams, as such, are weighted lower than in most other college courses. There are no make-up exams.
- A "participation" component termed "Professionalism" is included in each course to simulate required participation in real-world work.

Each student earns points throughout the course. Below is the grading scale used in the course. Points available for each assignment are listed in the "Schedule".

Grading Procedures

The following are the grading procedures used in determining your grade in each course.

Assignments Posting
Assignments need to be posted to discussion areas by 11:55 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the due date. See the late policy above. Any time you feel you might be falling behind in the course, it is best to contact the instructor immediately to discuss your situation. No assignments will be accepted after the final day of class. Late assignment policies are at the discretion of the instructor.

Reposting
If you did not receive 100% of the points assigned to an activity, you have the chance to repost the activity within five (5) days of receiving the grade (please see the "Posting of Grades" section below) as per instructor’s policy. However, reposting does not apply to an activity that requires you to post a response to another student. In other words, you are not able to go back into an activity and post a response to another student’s original posting after the activity’s due date. Reposting only applies to an original posting for an assignment that did not receive full point value.

Grade Availability
Grades are completed approximately one week after the due date. You can view your grades by selecting the "Grades" link from the Course Homepage. If you do not see your grade after two weeks, please notify your instructor.

Make-up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-Curricular Activities
Students are frequently asked to represent the university in authorized events and activities. In some cases, this participation conflicts with the students' course assignments and requirements. It is university policy that faculty members offer a reasonable opportunity for such students to complete missed classroom deadlines or assignments, including written or oral examinations, quizzes, term papers, or other assignments. Furthermore, the make-up assignment and grading scale should be equivalent to the missed assignment and its grading scale. No penalty due to absence may be applied to these make-up assignments.

The names of students participating in authorized activities, intercollegiate athletics, band, choir, co-curricular activities, and academically related program events will be listed on a Program Verification Form. It is the student’s responsibility to present a copy of this form signed by the appropriate individual to the faculty.
member(s) responsible for the class from which the student will be absent. The student must provide the Program Verification Form prior to the class in which the absence occurs. The university sponsor signs a copy of the Program Verification Form and files it with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for verification purposes.

Course Accessibility
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371).

Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety
This course is offered online. However, if there is a need for a student to come to campus, please read the following:

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts. In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance. Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.

Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. If there is a medical emergency, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html> (click on link from menu on left).

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

UCF Cares

During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges.

You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

UCF University Writing Center
The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Tutors provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix or edit papers, but to teach writing strategies that can be applied to any writing situation. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by clicking the Success Resources tab on Webcourses, calling the UWC at 407-823-2197, or through the UWC website. Contact the UCF University Writing Center for online help.

- The UWC seeks graduate and undergraduate tutors from all majors. To learn more about becoming a writing tutor, please contact us.

Online Learning
Online learning is not for everyone; some people may not be able to manage a course that does not meet face to face to learn. Online learning requires lots of planning and self-pacing so that you may be successful in my course. Since I will be covering much material in 16 weeks, I would highly recommend treating this course like a regular lecture course, and keeping up with lectures and assignments. Please do not be tempted to skip two weeks of lectures and expect to catch up easily. Review this website for more information: Student Support for Learning Online

Knight’s Email Account and Webcourse Communication
In this class, our official mode of communication is through email located inside Webcourses. All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. It is the student's responsibility to check the "course mail" tool frequently.

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you constantly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications.

To create your Knight's Email account, visit www.knightemail.ucf.edu.
Copyright
This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Plagiarism & Turnitin
As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/).

In this course we may utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit assignments in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Ethical Policies
At UCF adhering to acceptable ethical practices is considered essential. To that end you are asked to:
- Access the Golden Rule on line
- Read thoroughly Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Rules of Student Conduct
- Student Academic Behavior Standards

THIS SYLLABUS MAY BE MODIFIED AT THE DISCRETION OF THE INSTRUCTOR. CHANGES WILL BE DISCUSSED IN CLASS AND/OR VIA EMAIL.
The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

Conceptual Framework

The graphical representation of our conceptual framework is based on basic geometric shapes that aptly portray key aspects of the framework:

At the heart of the model are three concentric circles creating a “target” for graduates from all of our professional education programs. The core objective (“bull’s eye”) is becoming a Professional Educator, an achievement that requires continuous reflective practice (middle ring) and professional development aligned with applicable national, state, and institutional standards (outer ring).

The three triangles represent three broad levels of professional development: Pre-professional, Professional, and Accomplished (note the physical progression indicating that professional development always moves in the direction toward Professional Educator). These triangles also represent the three major dimensions of professional development: knowledge, skills, and dispositions.

Integrated throughout all aspects of our conceptual framework and thus reflected as a circle-in-motion is our circle of core beliefs (Research Base, Best Practice, Life-Long Learning, Ethics, Social Justice, Equity, Diversity, Caring, Democracy, Academic Standards, and High Quality Education).

The outer pentagon of the conceptual framework represents five broad orientations regarding the preparation of professional educators (Academic, Teaching/Scientific, Practical, Critical/Social, and Humanistic), which serve as a broad foundation for the framework.
Career & Technical Education Educator Accomplished Practices

The Educator Accomplished Practices. Each effective educator applies the foundational principles through six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices. Each of the practices is clearly defined to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility.

Quality of Instruction

1. Instructional Design and Lesson Planning.

Applying concepts from human development and learning theories, the effective educator consistently:

a. Aligns instruction with state-adopted workforce standards at the appropriate level of rigor;

b. Sequences lessons and concepts to ensure coherence and required prior knowledge.

c. Designs instruction for students to achieve mastery;
d. Selects appropriate formative assessments to monitor learning;

e. Uses a variety of data, independently, and in collaboration with colleagues, to evaluate learning outcomes, adjust planning and continuously improve the effectiveness of the lessons; and

f. Develops learning experiences that require students to demonstrate a variety of applicable skills and competencies.

g. Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities

h. Models and implements the use of higher order thinking abilities

i. Reflects research-based best practices in instructional methods (Disposition)

2. The Learning Environment.

To maintain a student-centered learning environment that is safe, organized, equitable, flexible, inclusive, and collaborative, the effective educator consistently:

a. Organizes, allocates, and manages the resources of time, space, and attention;

b. Manages individual and class behaviors through a well-planned management system;

c. Conveys high expectations to all students;

d. Respects students’ cultural, linguistic and family background;

e. Models clear, acceptable oral and written communication skills;

f. Maintains a climate of openness, inquiry, fairness and support;

g. Integrates current information and communication technologies;

h. Adapts the learning environment to accommodate the differing needs and diversity of students; and

i. Utilizes current and emerging assistive technologies that enable students to participate in high-quality communication interactions and achieve their educational goals.

j. Values high academic standards and believes students deserve a high-quality education (Disposition)
3. Instructional Delivery and Facilitation.

The effective educator consistently utilizes a deep and comprehensive knowledge of the subject taught to:

a. Deliver engaging and challenging lessons;

b. Deepen and enrich students’ understanding through content area literacy strategies, verbalization of thought, and application of the subject matter;

c. Identify gaps in students’ subject matter knowledge;

d. Modify instruction to respond to preconceptions or misconceptions;

e. Relate and integrate the subject matter with other disciplines and life experiences;

f. Employ higher-order questioning techniques;

g. Apply varied instructional strategies and resources, including appropriate technology, to provide comprehensible instruction, and to teach for student understanding;

h. Differentiate instruction based on an assessment of student learning needs and recognition of individual differences in students;

i. Support, encourage, and provide immediate and specific feedback to students to promote student achievement; and

j. Utilize student feedback to monitor instructional needs and to adjust instruction.

k. Has a repertoire of teaching techniques and strategies to effectively instruct all students.

l. Values technology as a tool to enhance learning. (Disposition)
4. Assessment.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Analyzes and applies data from multiple assessments and measures to diagnose students’ learning needs, informs instruction based on those needs, and drives the learning process;

b. Designs and aligns formative and summative assessments that match learning objectives and lead to mastery;

c. Uses a variety of assessment tools to monitor student progress, achievement and learning gains;

d. Modifies assessments and testing conditions to accommodate learning styles and varying levels of knowledge;

e. Shares the importance and outcomes of student assessment data with the student; and

f. Applies technology to organize and integrate assessment information.

g. Grades student performance fairly and without bias (Disposition)

Continuous Improvement, Responsibility and Ethics.

5. Continuous Professional Improvement.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Designs purposeful professional goals to strengthen the effectiveness of instruction based on students’ needs;

b. Examines and uses data-informed research to improve instruction and student achievement;

c. Works with colleagues to meet identified educational, physical, social, linguistic, cultural, and emotional needs of students;

d. Engages in targeted professional growth opportunities and reflective practices, both independently and in collaboration with colleagues; and
e. Implements knowledge and skills learned in professional development in the teaching and learning process.

6. Professional Responsibility and Ethical Conduct.

a. Does not intentionally distort or misrepresent facts concerning an educational matter in direct or indirect public expression

b. Encourages student responsibility, appropriate social behavior, integrity, valuing of diversity, honesty, and honoring multiple perspectives

c. Understanding that educators are held to a high moral standard in a community, the effective educator adheres to the Code of Ethics and the Principles of Professional Conduct of the Education Profession of Florida, pursuant to State Board of Education Rules 6B-1.001 and 6B1.006, F.A.C, and fulfills the expected obligations to students, the public and the education profession. Rulemaking Authority 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. Law Implemented 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. History–New 7-2-98; Amended 12-17-10.

Demonstrates concern for student learning and promotes student well-being through professional commitment including being punctual, responsible, organized, attends class regularly, demonstrates pride in self and work, gets along well with others, is self-controlled, and is flexible (Disposition).

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central of Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements

  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
  - Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies

Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Catalog Description

Achievement of skills used by teachers and professionals as they gather student data, confer with students, and help students plan for employment or further education.

Course Overview

This course begins with providing a background of the major career counseling theories and assessments. As you go through the activities, you will collect various resources and construct one assessment that you can implement in your classroom. One of the resources provided is an online career decision making tool that students can use. This resource provides various activities, discussion questions, and lessons for teachers or counselors to implement. Towards the end of the course, you will apply everything that you have learned and conduct a counseling interview, plan the steps needed for further counseling, and create career plans that have various activities for multiple student populations.
Student Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate clear understanding and appropriate use of APA style protocol.
- Provide constructive and substantive peer responses and feedback.
- Research scholarly articles using scholastic databases, such as the UCF Library and ERIC.
- Gain an historical perspective of career development as a field
- Explain key career theories and theorist
- Evaluate career development resources found on the World Wide Web
- Analyze various types of career assessments
- Construct value sort assessment cards
- Locate career resources using the World Wide Web
- Apply national career guidance competencies and ethics
- Compare current career counseling techniques and theories with past techniques and theories.
- Apply career development theories, assessments, and techniques
- Conduct three preliminary counseling interviews
- Explore emerging issues and trends for counseling diverse student populations
- Plan counseling activities for 2 diverse student populations
- Develop career guidance lesson plans

Webcourses
This course is offered in an online platform called Webcourses. It is an online course management system (accessed through my.ucf.edu and through https://webcourses.ucf.edu/). You will find all the course materials, resources, assignments, discussions, and announcements in your Webcourse. My recommendation is to check Webcourses every two days for announcements and updates from your teammates or myself.

Academic Course Requirements

The following course expectations are used in determining your grade in the course.

Module Assignments (70%)
Your written work must be professional in appearance and in APA style format. It should also be free from grammatical and spelling errors. It is very important that your work be posted on or before the published due date/time to be considered on time. You will have until a specific date and time noted for each course (see Schedule). Please see the "Grading Procedures" provided below.

Module Discussions (5%)
There are five module discussion activities. Each discussion activity is worth 10 points for a total of 50 points or 5% of your final grade. You will contribute to a discussion about the course lessons and engage in a conversation with your peers. This is done to encourage class discussion and master the course content.

Reflection (5%)
At the very end of each course, we require a reflection. It is done to offer you an opportunity to sit and think about the course – any aspect of it – and note your reflections.

Final Examination (20%)
There will be one overall exam at the end of the course. It is weighted at 10% of the total course grade. Turnaround time for this varies, but is usually 7-10 days. Pay attention to the course Schedule.

Administrative Course Requirements

Attendance
Our online courses place a strong emphasis upon the interaction of the students. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class sessions. The failure to attend class will negatively affect your grade. Attending class in Webcourses includes, but is not limited to, logging in at least every two days, reading the syllabus and course schedule, reading course content, completing assignments, engaging in discussions as required, and reading announcements.

Academic Activity
Federal regulations require that federal aid awards be based on courses in which students have completed an academically related activity. Effective beginning in fall 2014, federal aid awards will disburse based on the number of credit hours in which an academic activity has been confirmed.

In order to document that you began this course, please complete the assignment posted on Webcourses@UCF as an “Academic Activity “by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than the fourth day of the start of the course. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.

Late Assignments
- Late point deductions are 10% of the assignment total per day late. For instance, if the assignment is worth 150 points or 15% of the final grade, then late points will be 15 points per day late. Late peer replies will not receive points as the assignment has already passed, and your peers are onto the next module.

- Make-Up work and late excuses may be accepted on a case-by-case basis and only under approval of the instructor. Documentation must be provided, such as a doctor's note. If you believe you will be late or would like to talk to me about this issue, please email me through the Canvas Inbox (conversations tool) above.

- Incomplete final grade. Incomplete final grades are rarely given and only in extreme circumstance. To be considered for an incomplete grade, at least 75% of all the assignments must have been completed before the end of the course.

*As per instructor policy.

Evaluation and Grading System
All of our courses use the same grading scale and follow the same grading procedure. This is based on specific principles:
- The work you do is performance-based; assignments are actual or simulate real-world work.
- There is one opportunity to revise selected work within five (5) days of the date it is graded as per your instructor.
Career and Technical Education M.A. Degree Program
Department of Educational Leadership and Higher Education

- Work is assessed using criterion and not norm-referenced; a "normal curve" is not used in calculating grades or activity scores in our courses.
- We attempt to treat adult learners as adult learners; hence, exams, as such, are weighted lower than in most other college courses. There are no make-up exams.
- A "participation" component termed "Professionalism" is included in each course to simulate required participation in real-world work.

Each student earns points throughout the course. Below is the grading scale used in the course. Points available for each assignment are listed in the "Schedule".

Grading Scale

</tbody>
</table>

The faculty in this program have chosen NOT to adopt plus or minus policy for grades.

Grading Procedures

The following are the grading procedures used in determining your grade in each course.

Assignments Posting
Assignments need to be posted to discussion areas by 11:55 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the due date. See the late policy above. Any time you feel you might be falling behind in the course, it is best to contact the instructor immediately to discuss your situation. No assignments will be accepted after the final day of class. Late assignment policies are at the discretion of the instructor.

Reposting
If you did not receive 100% of the points assigned to an activity, you MAY have the chance to repost the activity within five (5) days of receiving the grade (please see the "Posting of Grades" section below) as per instructor's policy. However, reposting does not apply to an activity that requires you to post a response to another student. In other words, you are not able to go back into an activity and post a response to another student’s original posting after the activity's due date. Reposting only applies to an original posting for an assignment that did not receive full point value.

Grade Availability
Grades are completed approximately one week after the due date. You can view your grades by selecting the "Grades" link from the Course Homepage. If you do not see your grade after two weeks, please notify your instructor.

Make-up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-Curricular Activities
Students are frequently asked to represent the university in authorized events and activities. In some cases, this participation conflicts with the students' course assignments and requirements. It is university policy that faculty members offer a reasonable opportunity for such students to complete missed classroom deadlines or assignments, including written or oral examinations, quizzes, term papers, or other assignments. Furthermore, the make-up assignment and grading scale should be equivalent to the missed assignment and its grading scale. No penalty due to absence may be applied to these make-up assignments.

The names of students participating in authorized activities, intercollegiate athletics, band, choir, co-curricular activities, and academically related program events will be listed on a Program Verification Form. It is the student’s responsibility to present a copy of this form signed by the appropriate individual to the faculty member(s) responsible for the class from which the student will be absent. The student must provide the Program Verification Form prior to the class in which the absence occurs. The university sponsor signs a copy of the Program Verification Form and files it with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for verification purposes.

Course Accessibility
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371).

Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety
This course is offered online. However, if there is a need for a student to come to campus, please read the following:

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts. In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance. Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.
Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. If there is a medical emergency, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html> (click on link from menu on left).

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

UCF Cares

During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges.

You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.
UCF University Writing Center
The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Tutors provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix or edit papers, but to teach writing strategies that can be applied to any writing situation. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by clicking the Success Resources tab on Webcourses, calling the UWC at 407-823-2197, or through the UWC website. Contact the UCF University Writing Center for online help.

- The UWC seeks graduate and undergraduate tutors from all majors. To learn more about becoming a writing tutor, please contact us.

Online Learning
Online learning is not for everyone; some people may not be able to manage a course that does not meet face to face to learn. Online learning requires lots of planning and self-pacing so that you may be successful in my course. Since I will be covering much material in 16 weeks, I would highly recommend treating this course like a regular lecture course, and keeping up with lectures and assignments. Please do not be tempted to skip two weeks of lectures and expect to catch up easily. Review this website for more information: Student Support for Learning Online

Knight's Email Account and Webcourse Communication
In this class, our official mode of communication is through email located inside Webcourses. All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. It is the student's responsibility to check the "course mail" tool frequently.

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you constantly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications.

To create your Knight's Email account, visit www.knightsemail.ucf.edu.

Plagiarism & Turnitin
As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/).

In this course we may utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit assignments in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Ethical Policies
At UCF adhering to acceptable ethical practices is considered essential. To that end you are asked to:

- Access the Golden Rule on line
- Read thoroughly Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Rules of Student Conduct
- Student Academic Behavior Standards

THIS SYLLABUS MAY BE MODIFIED AT THE DISCRETION OF THE INSTRUCTOR. CHANGES WILL BE DISCUSSED IN CLASS AND/OR VIA EMAIL.
The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence
I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

Conceptual Framework

The graphical representation of our conceptual framework is based on basic geometric shapes that aptly portray key aspects of the framework:

At the heart of the model are three concentric circles creating a “target” for graduates from all of our professional education programs. The core objective (“bull’s eye”) is becoming a Professional Educator, an achievement that requires continuous reflective practice (middle ring) and professional development aligned with applicable national, state, and institutional standards (outer ring).

The three triangles represent three broad levels of professional development: Pre-professional, Professional, and Accomplished (note the physical progression indicating that professional development always moves in the direction toward Professional Educator). These triangles also represent the three major dimensions of professional development: knowledge, skills, and dispositions.

Integrated throughout all aspects of our conceptual framework and thus reflected as a circle-in-motion is our circle of core beliefs (Research Base, Best Practice, Life-Long Learning, Ethics, Social Justice, Equity, Diversity, Caring, Democracy, Academic Standards, and High Quality Education).

The outer pentagon of the conceptual framework represents five broad orientations regarding the preparation of professional educators (Academic, Teaching/Scientific, Practical, Critical/Social, and Humanistic), which serve as a broad foundation for the framework.
Career & Technical Education Educator Accomplished Practices

The Educator Accomplished Practices. Each effective educator applies the foundational principles through six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices. Each of the practices is clearly defined to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility.

Quality of Instruction

1. Instructional Design and Lesson Planning.

Applying concepts from human development and learning theories, the effective educator consistently:

a. Aligns instruction with state-adopted workforce standards at the appropriate level of rigor;

b. Sequences lessons and concepts to ensure coherence and required prior knowledge.

c. Designs instruction for students to achieve mastery;

d. Selects appropriate formative assessments to monitor learning;
e. Uses a variety of data, independently, and in collaboration with colleagues, to evaluate learning outcomes, adjust planning and continuously improve the effectiveness of the lessons; and

f. Develops learning experiences that require students to demonstrate a variety of applicable skills and competencies.

g. Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities

h. Models and implements the use of higher order thinking abilities

i. Reflects research-based best practices in instructional methods (Disposition)

2. The Learning Environment.

To maintain a student-centered learning environment that is safe, organized, equitable, flexible, inclusive, and collaborative, the effective educator consistently:

a. Organizes, allocates, and manages the resources of time, space, and attention;

b. Manages individual and class behaviors through a well-planned management system;

c. Conveys high expectations to all students;

d. Respects students’ cultural, linguistic and family background;

e. Models clear, acceptable oral and written communication skills;

f. Maintains a climate of openness, inquiry, fairness and support;

g. Integrates current information and communication technologies;

h. Adapts the learning environment to accommodate the differing needs and diversity of students; and

i. Utilizes current and emerging assistive technologies that enable students to participate in high-quality communication interactions and achieve their educational goals.

j. Values high academic standards and believes students deserve a high-quality education (Disposition)

3. Instructional Delivery and Facilitation.
The effective educator consistently utilizes a deep and comprehensive knowledge of the subject taught to:

a. Deliver engaging and challenging lessons;

b. Deepen and enrich students’ understanding through content area literacy strategies, verbalization of thought, and application of the subject matter;

c. Identify gaps in students’ subject matter knowledge;

d. Modify instruction to respond to preconceptions or misconceptions;

e. Relate and integrate the subject matter with other disciplines and life experiences;

f. Employ higher-order questioning techniques;

g. Apply varied instructional strategies and resources, including appropriate technology, to provide comprehensible instruction, and to teach for student understanding;

h. Differentiate instruction based on an assessment of student learning needs and recognition of individual differences in students;

i. Support, encourage, and provide immediate and specific feedback to students to promote student achievement; and

j. Utilize student feedback to monitor instructional needs and to adjust instruction.

k. Has a repertoire of teaching techniques and strategies to effectively instruct all students.

l. Values technology as a tool to enhance learning. (Disposition)

4. Assessment.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Analyzes and applies data from multiple assessments and measures to diagnose students’ learning needs, informs instruction based on those needs, and drives the learning process;

b. Designs and aligns formative and summative assessments that match learning objectives and lead to mastery;
c. Uses a variety of assessment tools to monitor student progress, achievement and learning gains;

d. Modifies assessments and testing conditions to accommodate learning styles and varying levels of knowledge;

e. Shares the importance and outcomes of student assessment data with the student; and

f. Applies technology to organize and integrate assessment information.

g. Grades student performance fairly and without bias (Disposition)

Continuous Improvement, Responsibility and Ethics.

5. Continuous Professional Improvement.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Designs purposeful professional goals to strengthen the effectiveness of instruction based on students’ needs;

b. Examines and uses data-informed research to improve instruction and student achievement;

c. Works with colleagues to meet identified educational, physical, social, linguistic, cultural, and emotional needs of students;

d. Engages in targeted professional growth opportunities and reflective practices, both independently and in collaboration with colleagues; and

e. Implements knowledge and skills learned in professional development in the teaching and learning process.

6. Professional Responsibility and Ethical Conduct.

a. Does not intentionally distort or misrepresent facts concerning an educational matter in direct or indirect public expression

b. Encourages student responsibility, appropriate social behavior, integrity, valuing of diversity, honesty, and honoring multiple perspectives
c. Understanding that educators are held to a high moral standard in a community, the effective educator adheres to the Code of Ethics and the Principles of Professional Conduct of the Education Profession of Florida, pursuant to State Board of Education Rules 6B-1.001 and 6B1.006, F.A.C, and fulfills the expected obligations to students, the public and the education profession. Rulemaking Authority 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. Law Implemented 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. History–New 7-2-98; Amended 12-17-10.

Demonstrates concern for student learning and promotes student well-being through professional commitment including being punctual, responsible, organized, attends class regularly, demonstrates pride in self and work, gets along well with others, is self-controlled, and is flexible (Disposition).

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF’s accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hour</th>
<th>1</th>
<th>1</th>

<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Course Engagement</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated. Also indicate who approves content before a course is repeated.

Repeat for credit?  ☐ Yes  ☐ No

If yes, indicate the degree program name and the total times the course may repeated.

If the course you are revising is a split-level class, please note this revision form will only impact the graduate side of the course. The undergraduate component of the course should be revised through the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. As a reminder, the graduate syllabus should clearly demonstrate more advanced subject matter, expectations, and rigor.

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail discussion you have had.

Detail Discussion

There are no possible duplications or conflicts with other departments or colleges as this course is an elective class for the Career and Technical Education M.A. program or any student who is interested in CTE.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements
  - Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  - Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies

Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Catalog Description
A study in the supervision of CTE instruction, including plans for teacher professional education, curriculum and instruction improvement, coordination of program activities, and personnel relations.

Course Objectives
At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Examine supervisory theories for career and technical education
2. Identify resources and develop a bibliography of supervisor techniques, styles, and theories
3. Establish performance goals and objectives for CTE program faculty and staff
4. Examine support staff roles in a CTE program
5. Develop a teacher professional education workshop program
6. Explain a teacher evaluation observation session to improve instruction
7. Create a CTE program curriculum and instruction review plan
8. Examine various student codes of conduct and disciplinary methods
9. Explore various student attendance and program performance monitoring systems
10. Demonstrate strategies for diversity and inclusion for faculty, staff, and students in CTE programs
11. Reflect upon the topics covered in this course.
12. Demonstrate clear understanding and appropriate use of APA style protocol.
13. Provide constructive and substantive peer responses and feedback.
14. Research scholarly articles using scholastic databases, such as the UCF Library and ERIC.

Webcourses
This course is offered in an online platform called Webcourses. It is an online course management system (accessed through my.ucf.edu and through https://webcourses.ucf.edu/). You will find all the course materials, resources, assignments, discussions, and announcements in your Webcourse. My recommendation is to check Webcourses every two days for announcements and updates from your teammates or myself.

Academic Course Requirements

The following course expectations are used in determining your grade in the course.

Module Assignments (70%)
Your written work must be professional in appearance. It should also be free from grammatical and spelling errors. It is very important that your work be posted on or before the published due date/time to be considered on time. You will have until a specific date and time noted for each course (see Schedule). Please see the "Grading Procedures" provided below.

Module Discussions (5%)
There are five module discussion activities. Each discussion activity is worth 10 points for a total of 50 points or 5% of your final grade. You will contribute to a discussion about the course lessons and engage in a conversation with your peers. This is done to encourage class discussion and master the course content.

Reflection (5%)
At the very end of each course, we require a reflection. It is done to offer you an opportunity to sit and think about the course – any aspect of it – and note your reflections.

Final Examination (20%)
There will be one overall exam at the end of the course. It is weighted at 10% of the total course grade. Turnaround time for this varies, but is usually 7-10 days. Pay attention to the course Schedule.
Administrative Course Requirements

Attendance
Our online courses place a strong emphasis upon the interaction of the students. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class sessions. The failure to attend class will negatively affect your grade. Attending class in Webcourses includes, but is not limited to, logging in at least every two days, reading the syllabus and course schedule, reading course content, completing assignments, engaging in discussions as required, and reading announcements.

Academic Activity
Federal regulations require that federal aid awards be based on courses in which students have completed an academically related activity. Effective beginning in fall 2014, federal aid awards will disburse based on the number of credit hours in which an academic activity has been confirmed.

In order to document that you began this course, please complete the assignment posted on Webcourses@UCF as an “Academic Activity “by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than the fourth day of the start of the course. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.

Late Assignments
• Late point deductions are 10% of the assignment total per day late. For instance, if the assignment is worth 150 points or 15% of the final grade, then late points will be 15 points per day late. Late peer replies will not receive points as the assignment has already passed, and your peers are onto the next module.

• Make-Up work and late excuses may be accepted on a case-by-case basis and only under approval of the instructor. Documentation must be provided, such as a doctor's note. If you believe you will be late or would like to talk to me about this issue, please email me through the Canvas Inbox (conversations tool) above.

• Incomplete final grade. Incomplete final grades are rarely given and only in extreme circumstance. To be considered for an incomplete grade, at least 75% of all the assignments must have been completed before the end of the course.

*As per instructor policy.
Evaluation and Grading System

All of our courses use the same grading scale and follow the same grading procedure. This is based on specific principles:

- The work you do is performance-based; assignments are actual or simulate real-world work.
- There is one opportunity to revise selected work within five (5) days of the date it is graded as per your instructor.
- Work is assessed using criterion and not norm-referenced; a "normal curve" is not used in calculating grades or activity scores in our courses.
- We attempt to treat adult learners as adult learners; hence, exams, as such, are weighted lower than in most other college courses. There are no make-up exams.
- A "participation" component termed "Professionalism" is included in each course to simulate required participation in real-world work.

Each student earns points throughout the course. Below is the grading scale used in the course. Points available for each assignment are listed in the "Schedule".

The faculty in this program have chosen NOT to adopt plus or minus policy for grades.
Grading Procedures

The following are the grading procedures used in determining your grade in each course.

Assignments Posting
Assignments need to be posted to discussion areas by 11:55 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the due date. See the late policy above. Any time you feel you might be falling behind in the course, it is best to contact the instructor immediately to discuss your situation. No assignments will be accepted after the final day of class. Late assignment policies are at the discretion of the instructor.

Reposting
If you did not receive 100% of the points assigned to an activity, you have the chance to repost the activity within five (5) days of receiving the grade (please see the "Posting of Grades" section below) as per instructor’s policy. However, reposting does not apply to an activity that requires you to post a response to another student. In other words, you are not able to go back into an activity and post a response to another student’s original posting after the activity’s due date. Reposting only applies to an original posting for an assignment that did not receive full point value.

Grade Availability
Grades are completed approximately one week after the due date. You can view your grades by selecting the "Grades" link from the Course Homepage. If you do not see your grade after two weeks, please notify your instructor.

Make-up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-Curricular Activities
Students are frequently asked to represent the university in authorized events and activities. In some cases, this participation conflicts with the students' course assignments and requirements. It is university policy that faculty members offer a reasonable opportunity for such students to complete missed classroom deadlines or assignments, including written or oral examinations, quizzes, term papers, or other assignments. Furthermore, the make-up assignment and grading scale should be equivalent to the missed assignment and its grading scale. No penalty due to absence may be applied to these make-up assignments.

The names of students participating in authorized activities, intercollegiate athletics, band, choir, co-curricular activities, and academically related program events will be listed on a Program Verification Form. It is the student’s responsibility to present a copy of this form signed by the appropriate individual to the faculty.
member(s) responsible for the class from which the student will be absent. The student must provide the Program Verification Form prior to the class in which the absence occurs. The university sponsor signs a copy of the Program Verification Form and files it with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for verification purposes.

UCF Policies, Guidelines, and Resources

Course Accessibility
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371).

Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety
This course is offered online. However, if there is a need for a student to come to campus, please read the following:

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts. In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance. Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.
Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. If there is a medical emergency, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html> (click on link from menu on left).

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

UCF Cares
During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges.

You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.
UCF University Writing Center
The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Tutors provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix or edit papers, but to teach writing strategies that can be applied to any writing situation. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by clicking the Success Resources tab on Webcourses, calling the UWC at 407-823-2197, or through the UWC website. Contact the UCF University Writing Center for online help.

- The UWC seeks graduate and undergraduate tutors from all majors. To learn more about becoming a writing tutor, please contact us.

Online Learning
Online learning is not for everyone; some people may not be able to manage a course that does not meet face to face to learn. Online learning requires lots of planning and self-pacing so that you may be successful in my course. Since I will be covering much material in 16 weeks, I would highly recommend treating this course like a regular lecture course, and keeping up with lectures and assignments. Please do not be tempted to skip two weeks of lectures and expect to catch up easily. Review this website for more information: Student Support for Learning Online

Knight’s Email Account and Webcourse Communication
In this class, our official mode of communication is through email located inside Webcourses. All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. It is the student's responsibility to check the "course mail" tool frequently.

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you constantly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications.

To create your Knight's Email account, visit www.knightsemail.ucf.edu.

Copyright
This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment.
Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Plagiarism & Turnitin
As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/).

In this course we may utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit assignments in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Ethical Policies
At UCF adhering to acceptable ethical practices is considered essential. To that end you are asked to:

- Access the Golden Rule on line
- Read thoroughly Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Rules of Student Conduct
- Student Academic Behavior Standards

This syllabus may be modified at the discretion of the instructor. Changes will be discussed in class and/or via email.
The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence
I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

Conceptual Framework

The graphical representation of our conceptual framework is based on basic geometric shapes that aptly portray key aspects of the framework:

At the heart of the model are three concentric circles creating a “target” for graduates from all of our professional education programs. The core objective (“bull’s eye”) is becoming a Professional Educator, an achievement that requires continuous reflective practice (middle ring) and professional development aligned with applicable national, state, and institutional standards (outer ring).

The three triangles represent three broad levels of professional development: Pre-professional, Professional, and Accomplished (note the physical progression indicating that professional development always moves in the direction toward Professional Educator). These triangles also represent the three major dimensions of professional development: knowledge, skills, and dispositions.

Integrated throughout all aspects of our conceptual framework and thus reflected as a circle-in-motion is our circle of core beliefs (Research Base, Best Practice, Life-Long Learning, Ethics, Social Justice, Equity, Diversity, Caring, Democracy, Academic Standards, and High Quality Education).

The outer pentagon of the conceptual framework represents five broad orientations regarding the preparation of professional educators (Academic, Teaching/Scientific, Practical, Critical/Social, and Humanistic), which serve as a broad foundation for the framework.
Career & Technical Education Educator Accomplished Practices

The Educator Accomplished Practices. Each effective educator applies the foundational principles through six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices. Each of the practices is clearly defined to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility.

Quality of Instruction

1. Instructional Design and Lesson Planning.

Applying concepts from human development and learning theories, the effective educator consistently:

a. Aligns instruction with state-adopted workforce standards at the appropriate level of rigor;

b. Sequences lessons and concepts to ensure coherence and required prior knowledge.

c. Designs instruction for students to achieve mastery;
d. Selects appropriate formative assessments to monitor learning;

e. Uses a variety of data, independently, and in collaboration with colleagues, to evaluate learning outcomes, adjust planning and continuously improve the effectiveness of the lessons; and

f. Develops learning experiences that require students to demonstrate a variety of applicable skills and competencies.

gh. Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities

h. Models and implements the use of higher order thinking abilities

i. Reflects research-based best practices in instructional methods (Disposition)

2. The Learning Environment.

To maintain a student-centered learning environment that is safe, organized, equitable, flexible, inclusive, and collaborative, the effective educator consistently:

a. Organizes, allocates, and manages the resources of time, space, and attention;

b. Manages individual and class behaviors through a well-planned management system;

c. Conveys high expectations to all students;

d. Respects students’ cultural, linguistic and family background;

e. Models clear, acceptable oral and written communication skills;

f. Maintains a climate of openness, inquiry, fairness and support;

g. Integrates current information and communication technologies;

h. Adapts the learning environment to accommodate the differing needs and diversity of students; and

i. Utilizes current and emerging assistive technologies that enable students to participate in high-quality communication interactions and achieve their educational goals.

j. Values high academic standards and believes students deserve a high-quality education (Disposition)
3. Instructional Delivery and Facilitation.

The effective educator consistently utilizes a deep and comprehensive knowledge of the subject taught to:

a. Deliver engaging and challenging lessons;
b. Deepen and enrich students’ understanding through content area literacy strategies, verbalization of thought, and application of the subject matter;
c. Identify gaps in students’ subject matter knowledge;
d. Modify instruction to respond to preconceptions or misconceptions;
e. Relate and integrate the subject matter with other disciplines and life experiences;
f. Employ higher-order questioning techniques;
g. Apply varied instructional strategies and resources, including appropriate technology, to provide comprehensible instruction, and to teach for student understanding;
h. Differentiate instruction based on an assessment of student learning needs and recognition of individual differences in students;
i. Support, encourage, and provide immediate and specific feedback to students to promote student achievement; and
j. Utilize student feedback to monitor instructional needs and to adjust instruction.
k. Has a repertoire of teaching techniques and strategies to effectively instruct all students.
l. Values technology as a tool to enhance learning. (Disposition)

4. Assessment.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Analyzes and applies data from multiple assessments and measures to diagnose students’ learning needs, informs instruction based on those needs, and drives the learning process;
b. Designs and aligns formative and summative assessments that match learning objectives and lead to mastery;

c. Uses a variety of assessment tools to monitor student progress, achievement and learning gains;

d. Modifies assessments and testing conditions to accommodate learning styles and varying levels of knowledge;

e. Shares the importance and outcomes of student assessment data with the student; and

f. Applies technology to organize and integrate assessment information.

g. Grades student performance fairly and without bias (Disposition)

5. Continuous Professional Improvement.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Designs purposeful professional goals to strengthen the effectiveness of instruction based on students’ needs;

b. Examines and uses data-informed research to improve instruction and student achievement;

c. Works with colleagues to meet identified educational, physical, social, linguistic, cultural, and emotional needs of students;

d. Engages in targeted professional growth opportunities and reflective practices, both independently and in collaboration with colleagues; and

e. Implements knowledge and skills learned in professional development in the teaching and learning process.

6. Professional Responsibility and Ethical Conduct.

a. Does not intentionally distort or misrepresent facts concerning an educational matter in direct or indirect public expression
b. Encourages student responsibility, appropriate social behavior, integrity, valuing of diversity, honesty, and honoring multiple perspectives

c. Understanding that educators are held to a high moral standard in a community, the effective educator adheres to the Code of Ethics and the Principles of Professional Conduct of the Education Profession of Florida, pursuant to State Board of Education Rules 6B-1.001 and 6B1.006, F.A.C, and fulfills the expected obligations to students, the public and the education profession. Rulemaking Authority 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. Law Implemented 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. History–New 7-2-98; Amended 12-17-10.

Demonstrates concern for student learning and promotes student well-being through professional commitment including being punctual, responsible, organized, attends class regularly, demonstrates pride in self and work, gets along well with others, is self-controlled, and is flexible (Disposition).

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hour Design Options</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Course Engagement</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated. Also indicate who approves content before a course is repeated.

Repeat for credit?  Yes  No

If yes, indicate the degree program name and the total times the course may repeated.

If the course you are revising is a split-level class, please note this revision form will only impact the graduate side of the course. The undergraduate component of the course should be revised through the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. As a reminder, the graduate syllabus should clearly demonstrate more advanced subject matter, expectations, and rigor.

Split-Level Class:  Yes  No

Term of Offering

When will the course be offered?  Odd Fall  Even Fall  Odd Spring  Even Spring  Odd Summer  Even Summer  Every Semester  Occasional

Intended Utilization of Course

The course will be used primarily as:  Required Course  Elective Course

Justification for Course Revision
What is the rationale for revising this course?*

As requested by Dr. Bartee, the CTE program course offerings have been revised to better sequence the POS. This proposal changes the offering from Fall to Spring.

What grad programs/tracks require or recommend this course for graduation?

If not a major requirement, what will be the source of students?

What is the estimated annual enrollment?

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail discussion you have had.

Detail Discussion

There are no possible duplications or conflicts with other departments or colleges as this course is a specific core class for the Career and Technical Education M.A. program.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central of Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements

  Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
  Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies

Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Catalog Description
The study and achievement of the knowledge, skills, and academic preparation competencies needed to establish, maintain, and coordinate school, college, and career readiness activities and programs.

Course Overview
In this course, you will investigate Florida Statutes and the State Board of Education Rule to identify policy and procedures regarding school, college, and career readiness. You will review existing research studies on school, college and career readiness. You will explore the Florida Postsecondary Readiness Competencies, skills, and academic preparation necessary for students to attain school, college, and career readiness standards. Finally, you will develop a school, college, and career readiness action plan.

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Discover the various state definitions of college and career readiness.
2. Discuss the similarities and differences between the various state definitions of college and career readiness.
3. Investigate the various national and state legislative policies and practices regarding college and career readiness in the United States.
4. Explain the Common Core Standards and the Florida Standards.
5. Differentiate between Every Student Succeeds Act and the Race to the Top Fund.
6. Explore the various Florida College System’s student admission policies.
7. Explain the core content areas of a Florida standard high school diploma and its equivalents.
8. Analyze the Postsecondary Education Readiness Test.
9. Differentiate common placement testing for public postsecondary institutions.
10. Categorize pathways to higher levels of competency measurements with SAT and ACT tests; AP, IB, dual enrollment, and AICE programs.
11. Investigate the Florida Postsecondary Readiness Competencies in English and mathematics.
12. Debate developmental (remedial) education issues.
13. Describe postsecondary instructional units.
15. Examine the eight career readiness competencies from NACE.
16. Create industry and workforce competency models for a globally competitive workforce.
17. Explain state-approved industry certifications entrance requirements.
18. Examine existing literature and research studies on school, college, and career readiness programs.
19. Develop a school, college, and career readiness action plan.
20. Write scholarly reports in APA format.

Webcourses

This course is offered in an online platform called Webcourses. It is an online course management system (accessed through my.ucf.edu and through https://webcourses.ucf.edu/). You will find all the course materials, resources, assignments, discussions, and announcements in your Webcourse. My recommendation is to check Webcourses every two days for announcements and updates from your teammates or myself.
The following course expectations are used in determining your grade in the course.

Module Assignments (70%)
Your written work must be professional in appearance. It should also be free from grammatical and spelling errors. It is very important that your work be posted on or before the published due date/time to be considered on time. You will have until a specific date and time noted for each course (see Schedule). Please see the "Grading Procedures” provided below.

Module Discussions (5%)
There are five module discussion activities. Each discussion activity is worth 10 points for a total of 50 points or 5% of your final grade. You will contribute to a discussion about the course lessons and engage in a conversation with your peers. This is done to encourage class discussion and master the course content.

Reflection (5%)
At the very end of each course, we require a reflection. It is done to offer you an opportunity to sit and think about the course – any aspect of it – and note your reflections.

Final Examination (20%)
There will be one overall exam at the end of the course. It is weighted at 10% of the total course grade. Turnaround time for this varies, but is usually 7-10 days. Pay attention to the course Schedule.

Administrative Course Requirements

Attendance
Our online courses place a strong emphasis upon the interaction of the students. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class sessions. The failure to attend class will negatively affect your grade. Attending class in Webcourses includes, but is not limited to, logging in at least every two days, reading the syllabus and course schedule, reading course content, completing assignments, engaging in discussions as required, and reading announcements.

Academic Activity
Federal regulations require that federal aid awards be based on courses in which students have completed an academically related activity. Effective beginning in fall 2014, federal aid awards will disburse based on the number of credit hours in which an academic activity has been confirmed.

In order to document that you began this course, please complete the assignment posted on Webcourses@UCF as an “Academic Activity“ by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than the fourth day of the start of the course. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.
Late Assignments

- Late point deductions are 10% of the assignment total per day late. For instance, if the assignment is worth 150 points or 15% of the final grade, then late points will be 15 points per day late. Late peer replies will not receive points as the assignment has already passed, and your peers are onto the next module.

- Make-Up work and late excuses may be accepted on a case-by-case basis and only under approval of the instructor. Documentation must be provided, such as a doctor's note. If you believe you will be late or would like to talk to me about this issue, please email me through the Canvas Inbox (conversations tool) above.

- Incomplete final grade. Incomplete final grades are rarely given and only in extreme circumstance. To be considered for an incomplete grade, at least 75% of all the assignments must have been completed before the end of the course.

*As per instructor policy.

Evaluation and Grading System

All of our courses use the same grading scale and follow the same grading procedure. This is based on specific principles:

- The work you do is performance-based; assignments are actual or simulate real-world work.
- There is one opportunity to revise selected work within five (5) days of the date it is graded as per your instructor.
- Work is assessed using criterion and not norm-referenced; a "normal curve" is not used in calculating grades or activity scores in our courses.
- We attempt to treat adult learners as adult learners; hence, exams, as such, are weighted lower than in most other college courses. There are no make-up exams.
- A "participation" component termed "Professionalism" is included in each course to simulate required participation in real-world work.

Each student earns points throughout the course. Below is the grading scale used in the course. Points available for each assignment are listed in the "Schedule".

The faculty in this program have chosen NOT to adopt plus or minus policy for grades.

Grading Procedures

The following are the grading procedures used in determining your grade in each course.

Assignments Posting
Assignments need to be posted to discussion areas by 11:55 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the due date. See the late policy above. Any time you feel you might be falling behind in the course, it is best to contact the instructor immediately to discuss your situation. No assignments will be accepted after the final day of class. Late assignment policies are at the discretion of the instructor.

Reposting
If you did not receive 100% of the points assigned to an activity, you have the chance to repost the activity within five (5) days of receiving the grade (please see the "Posting of Grades" section below) as per instructor’s policy. However, reposting does not apply to an activity that requires you to post a response to another student. In other words, you are not able to go back into an activity and post a response to another student’s original posting after the activity's due date. Reposting only applies to an original posting for an assignment that did not receive full point value.

Grade Availability
Grades are completed approximately one week after the due date. You can view your grades by selecting the "Grades" link from the Course Homepage. If you do not see your grade after two weeks, please notify your instructor.
Make-up Assignments for Authorized University Events or Co-Curricular Activities

Students are frequently asked to represent the university in authorized events and activities. In some cases, this participation conflicts with the students' course assignments and requirements. It is university policy that faculty members offer a reasonable opportunity for such students to complete missed classroom deadlines or assignments, including written or oral examinations, quizzes, term papers, or other assignments. Furthermore, the make-up assignment and grading scale should be equivalent to the missed assignment and its grading scale. No penalty due to absence may be applied to these make-up assignments.

The names of students participating in authorized activities, intercollegiate athletics, band, choir, co-curricular activities, and academically related program events will be listed on a Program Verification Form. It is the student’s responsibility to present a copy of this form signed by the appropriate individual to the faculty member(s) responsible for the class from which the student will be absent. The student must provide the Program Verification Form prior to the class in which the absence occurs. The university sponsor signs a copy of the Program Verification Form and files it with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for verification purposes.

Course Accessibility
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371).

Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety
This course is offered online. However, if there is a need for a student to come to campus, please read the following:

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts. In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance. Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.

Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. If there is a medical emergency, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html> (click on link from menu on left).

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
A deployed active duty military student who feels the need for a special accommodation due to that unique status should contact their instructor to discuss the circumstances.

UCF Cares
During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges.

You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

UCF University Writing Center
The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Tutors provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix or edit papers, but to teach writing strategies that can be applied to any writing situation. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by clicking the Success Resources tab on Webcourses, calling the UWC at 407-823-2197, or through the UWC website. Contact the UCF University Writing Center for online help.

- The UWC seeks graduate and undergraduate tutors from all majors. To learn more about becoming a writing tutor, please contact us.

Online Learning
Online learning is not for everyone; some people may not be able to manage a course that does not meet face to face to learn. Online learning requires lots of planning and self-pacing so that you may be successful in my course. Since I will be covering much material in 16 weeks, I would highly recommend treating this course like a regular lecture course, and keeping up with lectures and assignments. Please do not be tempted to skip two weeks of lectures and expect to catch up easily. Review this website for more information: Student Support for Learning Online

Knight’s Email Account and Webcourse Communication
In this class, our official mode of communication is through email located inside Webcourses. All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. It is the student's responsibility to check the "course mail" tool frequently.
Career and Technical Education M.A. Degree Program
Department of Educational Leadership and Higher Education
College of Community Innovation and Education

You will be expected to have daily access to the internet and email, since I will be emailing you constantly about assignment updates, additions and changes. All students at UCF are required to obtain a Knight's Email account and check it regularly for official university communications.

To create your Knight's Email account, visit www.knightemail.ucf.edu.

Plagiarism & Turnitin
As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism and cheating contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/).

In this course we may utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit assignments in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Ethical Policies
At UCF adhering to acceptable ethical practices is considered essential. To that end you are asked to:

- Access the Golden Rule on line
- Read thoroughly Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Rules of Student Conduct
- Student Academic Behavior Standards

THIS SYLLABUS MAY BE MODIFIED AT THE DISCRETION OF THE INSTRUCTOR. CHANGES WILL BE DISCUSSED IN CLASS AND/OR VIA EMAIL.

The UCF Creed
Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity  I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.
Scholarship I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.
Community  I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.
Creativity  I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.
Excellence  I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

Conceptual Framework

The graphical representation of our conceptual framework is based on basic geometric shapes that aptly portray key aspects of the framework:

At the heart of the model are three concentric circles creating a “target” for graduates from all of our professional education programs. The core objective (“bull’s eye”) is becoming a Professional Educator, an achievement that requires continuous reflective practice (middle ring) and professional development aligned with applicable national, state, and institutional standards (outer ring).

The three triangles represent three broad levels of professional development: Pre-professional, Professional, and Accomplished (note the physical progression indicating that professional development always moves in the direction toward Professional Educator). These triangles also represent the three major dimensions of professional development: knowledge, skills, and dispositions.

Integrated throughout all aspects of our conceptual framework and thus reflected as a circle-in-motion is our circle of core beliefs (Research Base, Best Practice, Life-Long Learning, Ethics, Social Justice, Equity, Diversity, Caring, Democracy, Academic Standards, and High Quality Education).

The outer pentagon of the conceptual framework represents five broad orientations regarding the preparation of professional educators (Academic, Teaching/Scientific, Practical, Critical/Social, and Humanistic), which serve as a broad foundation for the framework.
Career and Technical Education Educator Accomplished Practices

The Educator Accomplished Practices. Each effective educator applies the foundational principles through six (6) Educator Accomplished Practices. Each of the practices is clearly defined to promote a common language and statewide understanding of the expectations for the quality of instruction and professional responsibility.

Quality of Instruction

1. Instructional Design and Lesson Planning.

Applying concepts from human development and learning theories, the effective educator consistently:

a. Aligns instruction with state-adopted workforce standards at the appropriate level of rigor;

b. Sequences lessons and concepts to ensure coherence and required prior knowledge.

c. Designs instruction for students to achieve mastery;

d. Selects appropriate formative assessments to monitor learning;

e. Uses a variety of data, independently, and in collaboration with colleagues, to evaluate learning outcomes, adjust planning and continuously improve the effectiveness of the lessons; and

f. Develops learning experiences that require students to demonstrate a variety of applicable skills and competencies.
g. Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities

h. Models and implements the use of higher order thinking abilities

i. Reflects research-based best practices in instructional methods (Disposition)

2. The Learning Environment.

To maintain a student-centered learning environment that is safe, organized, equitable, flexible, inclusive, and collaborative, the effective educator consistently:

a. Organizes, allocates, and manages the resources of time, space, and attention;

b. Manages individual and class behaviors through a well-planned management system;

c. Conveys high expectations to all students;

d. Respects students’ cultural, linguistic and family background;

e. Models clear, acceptable oral and written communication skills;

f. Maintains a climate of openness, inquiry, fairness and support;

g. Integrates current information and communication technologies;

h. Adapts the learning environment to accommodate the differing needs and diversity of students; and

i. Utilizes current and emerging assistive technologies that enable students to participate in high-quality communication interactions and achieve their educational goals.

j. Values high academic standards and believes students deserve a high-quality education (Disposition)

3. Instructional Delivery and Facilitation.

The effective educator consistently utilizes a deep and comprehensive knowledge of the subject taught to:

a. Deliver engaging and challenging lessons;

b. Deepen and enrich students’ understanding through content area literacy strategies, verbalization of thought, and application of the subject matter;

c. Identify gaps in students’ subject matter knowledge;

d. Modify instruction to respond to preconceptions or misconceptions;
e. Relate and integrate the subject matter with other disciplines and life experiences;

f. Employ higher-order questioning techniques;

g. Apply varied instructional strategies and resources, including appropriate technology, to provide comprehensible instruction, and to teach for student understanding;

h. Differentiate instruction based on an assessment of student learning needs and recognition of individual differences in students;

i. Support, encourage, and provide immediate and specific feedback to students to promote student achievement; and

j. Utilize student feedback to monitor instructional needs and to adjust instruction.

k. Has a repertoire of teaching techniques and strategies to effectively instruct all students.

l. Values technology as a tool to enhance learning. (Disposition)

4. Assessment.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Analyzes and applies data from multiple assessments and measures to diagnose students’ learning needs, informs instruction based on those needs, and drives the learning process;

b. Designs and aligns formative and summative assessments that match learning objectives and lead to mastery;

c. Uses a variety of assessment tools to monitor student progress, achievement and learning gains;

d. Modifies assessments and testing conditions to accommodate learning styles and varying levels of knowledge;

e. Shares the importance and outcomes of student assessment data with the student; and

f. Applies technology to organize and integrate assessment information.

g. Grades student performance fairly and without bias (Disposition)
Continuous Improvement, Responsibility and Ethics.

5. Continuous Professional Improvement.

The effective educator consistently:

a. Designs purposeful professional goals to strengthen the effectiveness of instruction based on students’ needs;

b. Examines and uses data-informed research to improve instruction and student achievement;

c. Works with colleagues to meet identified educational, physical, social, linguistic, cultural, and emotional needs of students;

d. Engages in targeted professional growth opportunities and reflective practices, both independently and in collaboration with colleagues; and

e. Implements knowledge and skills learned in professional development in the teaching and learning process.

6. Professional Responsibility and Ethical Conduct.

a. Does not intentionally distort or misrepresent facts concerning an educational matter in direct or indirect public expression

b. Encourages student responsibility, appropriate social behavior, integrity, valuing of diversity, honesty, and honoring multiple perspectives

c. Understanding that educators are held to a high moral standard in a community, the effective educator adheres to the Code of Ethics and the Principles of Professional Conduct of the Education Profession of Florida, pursuant to State Board of Education Rules 6B-1.001 and 6B1.006, F.A.C, and fulfills the expected obligations to students, the public and the education profession. Rulemaking Authority 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. Law Implemented 1004.04, 1004.85, 1012.225, 1012.34, 1012.56 FS. History–New 7-2-98; Amended 12-17-10.

Demonstrates concern for student learning and promotes student well-being through professional commitment including being punctual, responsible, organized, attends class regularly, demonstrates pride in self and work, gets along well with others, is self-controlled, and is flexible (Disposition).

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

| Credit Hour | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| (Formal) Instruction Time - Class Hours or Online Module, etc. | 1 | 1 | 1 |
Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement

4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:
Information from the official Schedule of Classes

Instructor and/or GTA contact information
Explicit, public description of the course
Student learning outcomes
Sequence of course activity
Assessment and grading procedures
Course Materials and Resources
Core policy statements

- Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
- Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
- Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
- Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Governments routinely create financial plans to allocate taxes and fees to programs and services in a process called budgeting. This course examines the dollars and figures found in a budget to better understand its function as a management tool, policy statement, financial plan, and communications device; along with the political and rational dimensions of the budgetary process. PREREQUISITE: PAD 6700, or instructor consent.

REQUIRED COURSE MATERIALS

Other readings as assigned via Webcourses. Additional reading materials may be assigned.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Utilize the budget to create legislative and executive control over organizational finances
- Connect economic, fiscal, and other environmental conditions to the budget
- Utilize the budgeting process to assist in performance management and operations evaluation
- Tie resources to organizational strategic, capital, and operational plans
- Communicate budgetary, financial, and organizational information via the budget document
- Appreciate the tension between rational and political decision-making found in budgeting

This course is designed to introduce, teach, or reinforce one or more of the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs Administration (NASPAA) universal required competencies (full standards available at https://naspaaaccreditation.files.wordpress.com/2015/02/naspaa-accreditation-standards.pdf). The required competencies are that students at the completion of their public administration program of study will be able to demonstrate the ability to:

1. lead and manage in public governance;
2. participate in and contribute to the policy process;
3. analyze, synthesize, think critically, solve problems, and make decisions;
4. articulate and apply a public service perspective; and
5. communicate and interact productively with a diverse and changing workforce and citizenry.

The following abilities will also be introduced, mastered, and reinforced throughout the course:

- Introduce the ability to:
  - lead and manage within multiple networks of stakeholders; and
  - produce consensus or consent among diverse stakeholders;

- Reinforce the ability to:
  - identify, evaluate, and model best practices; and
  - develop professional capacity in basic skills (including writing, speaking, analytical techniques, critical thinking).

- Master the ability to:
  - develop expertise on local government; and
  - develop expertise in techniques used in managing government operations.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct at osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc. According to Section 1, “Academic Misconduct,” students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.

- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

For more information about Academic Integrity, consult the International Center for Academic Integrity academicintegrity.org.

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices” wpacouncil.org/positions/WPAplagiarism.pdf

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating
Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf. UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a “Z Designation” on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

Disability Access Statement
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need access to course content due to course design limitations should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) <http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371). For students connected with SAS, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential course access and accommodations that might be necessary and reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student. Further conversation with SAS, faculty and the student may be warranted to ensure an accessible course experience.

Diversity Statement
Faculty and students will work collaboratively to ensure diversity is an integral component of our course delivery systems. Evidence of these efforts will manifest in readings, lectures, seminars, service learning activities, and group projects. Aspects of diversity include but are not limited to race, ethnicity, color, nationality, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, class, sexual orientation, age, religion, disability, and veteran status.

Campus Safety Statement
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at <http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html>.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see <http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF> (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <https://my.ucf.edu> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (<https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk>).

Make-Up Assignments for Authorized University Events and Co-CurricularActivities

Students who represent the university in an authorized event or activity (for example, student-athletes) and who are unable to meet a course deadline due to a conflict with that event must provide the instructor with documentation in advance to arrange a make-up. No penalty will be applied. For more information, see the UCF policy at <http://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-401.2MakeUpAssignmentsorAuthUnivEventsorCocurricularActivities.pdf>

Religious Observances

Students must notify their instructor in advance if they intend to miss class for a religious observance. For more information, see the UCF policy at <http://regulations.ucf.edu/chapter5/documents/5.020ReligiousObservancesFINALJan19.pdf>.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact their instructors as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they receive notification of deployment to make related arrangements.

INSTRUCTOR’S POLICIES

Expectation of Time Commitment

In a 3-credit-hour graduate level course, a traditional rule of thumb is that a student will spend 3 hours in class each week, and 6 hours outside of class working on the course. Since this course is online, there is not a classroom expectation, but it is still expected that students plan to spend 9 hours a week on the course. Some students will spend less, some more, but that is the average amount expected. If you feel that you are unable to commit this amount of time to this course due to other commitments, I suggest that you contact me to discuss your situation or that you consider dropping the course.

Classroom Decorum

In the classroom, students are to arrive at class on time. Students are to remain for the entire session unless excused by the professor beforehand or confronted with a serious personal emergency. Cell phones, pagers, or any electronic devices that make noise must be turned off during class unless the instructor has been notified beforehand of a special circumstance. No one should talk while someone else is talking; this includes comments meant for a classmate rather than the entire group. What may seem like a whisper or a harmless remark to one person can be a distraction to someone else, particularly in a small room. Dialogue and behavior should always be courteous, respectful of others, and consistent with the expectations set forth by the university and the school. Disruptive or disengaged students may be asked to leave the classroom by the instructor.

Student Rules of Conduct

Any violation of the Student Rules of Conduct is taken seriously by the instructor, who will determine in-course disciplinary action at his discretion. All violations will be reported to and recorded with the Office of Student Conduct, regardless of whether disciplinary action is taken by instructor. The School or the University may take further disciplinary action if warranted, up to and including expulsion.

Description of Graded Course Requirements:

A. Module 0 Exercises (5 points total)
All instructors/faculty are required to document students’ academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, this academic activity must be completed by the end of the first week of classes or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid. In this course, attendance at the first class session on Monday, August 26 will satisfy this requirement—no additional work is necessary.

Students who do not attend the first class session will have to complete a syllabus quiz and introduce themselves on the discussion board in order to gain credit for “attendance”. These activities must be completed by Friday, August 30 at 5:00pm in order to avoid any delay in the disbursement of financial aid.

In addition, each student will work in a team of 4 students to review a municipal budget document as a comprehensive course project. Students will create their own groups with facilitation from the instructor and post the names in Webcourses by Monday, September 9 at 6:00pm.

B. Personal Budget (5 points total)
Each student will complete a personal budget, as described in Module 1 of the course. The budget is worth 5 points and is due on Monday, September 16 at 6:00pm. More information on this requirement will be provided in the Modules section of the Webcourses site.

C. Module Case Exercises (5 x 10 points = 50 points total)
In Modules 2-6, students will demonstrate their comprehension of the material by applying it to a case exercise. Students are expected to draw from the module materials to craft their responses and should provide citations to them as necessary. You may also draw upon your personal experiences as well.
Each exercise will be available as part of the respective module’s opening and due dates are listed in the course schedule. More information is provided in the Modules section of the Webcourses site.

D. Municipal Budget Evaluation (group - 45 points total)
Students will work in groups to complete a semester-long project that evaluates an existing municipal budget. The purpose of this assignment is to apply course materials and knowledge to effectively analyze the content of a municipal budget and evaluate its effectiveness in four areas—1) as a management tool, 2) as a policy statement, 3) as an operations guide, and 4) as a communications device. If completed successfully, students will be able to demonstrate and document experience in the construction of a budget document. Some details of the project are provided below, but others will be provided in Webcourses as the course progresses.

- The group will be assigned a municipality (city or county) for the study. The most recent budget from the municipality will be used for the assignment.
- The project will be broken down into four reviews that will be completed separately, then combined into a final document at the end of the semester. The four reviews respectively examine the budget: 1) as a management tool, 2) as a policy statement, 3) as an operations guide, and 4) as a communications device. The assignments discussed below apply to each of the four reviews.

- For each review, each group member will initially and individually evaluate the budget using a review checklist, which are worth an individual grade of 5 points. The review checklists form the basis for the evaluation paper and ensure that each student participates in each review. Each student must submit their individual review checklist before comparing answers with other group members. Submission of substantially identical review sheets may result in a grade of 0, solely at the discretion of the instructor. The due dates for the review checklists are provided in the course schedule.

- For each review, each group will complete a review paper of approximately 5 pages. Students will rotate taking the lead to develop and submit the paper, and the leader will receive an individual grade of 10 points. The purpose of the group papers is to concisely identify strengths and weaknesses in a budget document, while allowing students to take turns in a leadership role. All group members should contribute to the production of each paper in order to meet the high standards of the assignment. The due dates for the review papers are provided in the course schedule.

- Finally, each group will combine the four review papers into one cohesive evaluation document, complete with introduction and conclusion, and provide this document to the municipality. The purpose of this assignment is to synthesize multiple perspectives into a cohesive document that effectively communicates technical information to a general audience. In addition, the group will present its findings during the final class session on Monday, December 9. The document and presentation will be submitted by each group and is worth a group grade of 15 points.

Submission Policy

All assignments should be submitted electronically via Webcourses unless otherwise noted. If you have technical difficulties with uploading to Webcourses, visit the online@UCF support website. Technical difficulties are not a legitimate excuse for not uploading the assignments in a timely manner.

Much of the work submitted in this course will be in written, paragraph form. These assignments should be typed in 12-point Times New Roman font and double-spaced with 1-inch margins. The School of Public Administration requires the use of APA style for all papers. Assignments that do not comply with these formatting rules will be returned and not considered submitted until remedied. All written assignments submitted via Webcourses will automatically undergo a plagiarism review by TurnItIn.com.

Proofread all assignments for spelling, grammar, and general content before submission. Assignments are to be submitted by the dates indicated on the course schedule below. Each assignment will provide specific instructions for completion and submission.

Late Submissions: All late assignments will receive a 10 percent deduction per day late (except University holidays). For assignments submitted more than 5 days late, the instructor will offer each student one opportunity to submit the assignment for half-credit. All assignments must be submitted no later than Thursday, December 12 at 11:59PM to receive a grade, unless other arrangements have been made with the instructor. Contact the instructor as soon as possible if you miss an assignment or have questions or concerns about an assignment.

Grading Policy

The instructor strives to, but cannot guarantee, release grades for all assignment within 7 days of timely submission. Review papers will be graded prior to case exercises to facilitate edits of the final group paper. Any late submissions will be graded once pending assignments are completed.

Rationale:
Conflict is rampant in society, ranging from personal and workplace conflicts to global conflicts. Students who earn a conflict analysis and resolution certificate will have a deeper understanding of the origins and root causes of conflicts, and they will learn strategies for resolving interpersonal and community conflicts. The certificate will be attractive to students, who are interested in attending law school, practicing in the legal field, working in the business world, or becoming involved in law enforcement and many other fields (outlined above). The Center for Community Schools and the ACE K-8 program are supportive of providing our students with the opportunity to engage with students, teachers, and families in assisting to resolve conflict. (See letter of support). Both recognize the need for training in this area. Finally, this certificate supports the University’s mission of interdisciplinary collaboration to find solution to modern day issues and problems. It provides a gateway to students considering many fields as well as providing skills for individuals already in careers.

Add complete catalog copy here! Must include description, curriculum, contact information, application requirements, and application deadlines. After you add/import courses, click on the View Curriculum Schema button below to add the catalog copy. Please note: this information is what will flow directly to the graduate catalog. Any attached documents to this proposal will not be used for catalog purposes.

Tip: You can import a similar track or certificate to use as a template instead of starting from scratch. Use the Import button at the top left corner of the form. For instructions on adding the catalog copy please view the Graduate Program New: Importing a Template Program training video at: https://graduatecouncil.ucf.edu/curriculum-committee/.

Follow these steps to propose courses to the new track or certificate curriculum:

Step 1

There are two options for adding courses: "Add Course" and "Import Course." For courses already in the catalog, click on "Import Course" and find the courses needed. For new classes going through a Curriculog Approval Process click on "Add Course"-- a box will open asking you for the Prefix, Course Number and Course Title.

Step 2

Click on "View Curriculum Schema." Click on the area/header of the program where you would like to add courses. When you click on "Add Courses" it will bring up the list of courses available from Step 1. Select the courses you wish to add. For removing courses click on the and proceed.

Future Students

Indicate likely career or student outcomes upon completion:

Provide a statement of who is likely to enroll and why. Please state if there is licensure or certification that depends upon this education, etc.

Effective conflict management is essential to leaders in the workplace and community. An understanding of the root causes of conflict and strategies to resolve conflict will benefit many professionals, including counselors, lawyers, law enforcement officers, teachers, social workers, human resources administrators, business and government leaders. These professionals work in and around the downtown area, and our graduate certificate, offered at the downtown campus, will be an attractive option. This certificate is open to graduate students (those possessing a bachelor’s degree).

Subject: Library Assessment for the Proposed Conflict Resolution & Analysis graduate certificate in the College of Community Innovation & Education

Date: January 14, 2020

Projected Costs for New Library Resources

Existing resources are adequate for this new graduate certificate and no new funds are requested. If the program grows beyond a certificate a new analysis should be done. In particular, the monograph portion of this assessment is heavily dependent on print books available at the main campus; an analysis focused on ebooks might be needed if the certificate expands and moves to an emphasis online or at the downtown campus. The library’s current document delivery service should meet the needs for moving books between campuses at the certificate level.

Research Guide

An online library guide for Conflict Resolution & Analysis describes specific online and print resources and provides links to electronic materials. https://guides.ucf.edu/conflictresolution

Program Description and Relevant Subject Areas

The proposed graduate certificate in conflict resolution and analysis “provides the interdisciplinary academic study of and the practical tools to analyze and resolve conflicts by offering a foundation in the theoretical understanding of conflict as well as the skills necessary to address local, regional, national, and global conflicts. This Certificate will benefit those in the following professions: counseling, law, law enforcement, teaching, social work, human resources, business, and government.”

The Legal Studies Department and the School of Communication are jointly proposing the certificate. The interdisciplinary nature extends into multiple other programs and departments, including business, criminal justice, education, political science, psychology, and social work. As the program progresses it might develop a focus in one or more areas and the library will need to keep abreast so that appropriate purchases are selected by the relevant subject librarians in the various disciplines.
Library Acquisitions

All else being equal, electronic format with multiple simultaneous access is preferred for library resources to reach more users. Physical format will be selected if no viable electronic equivalent is available and will default to one copy per title due to budgetary restraints. Duplicate copies may be considered on a case by case basis. The physical copy (occasionally copies) will be housed at the locations chosen by the UCF Libraries to serve the needs of relevant programs.

UCF Libraries offers a robust document delivery system and interlibrary loan service to ensure UCF users at all locations have access to library resources at all locations and beyond.

To achieve best cost efficiency within the library’s budget limits and to serve as many users as possible, most library collections, including books, serve multiple UCF programs. Decisions for how library resources are acquired and where the resources are housed are made by the UCF Libraries. The decisions on location are also driven by the integrity of intended use of the body of publications, and therefore typically physical resources on the same topic are kept at one location, rather than split between multiple locations. The shelving capacity and other aspects of a library’s physical space may also influence location decisions.

Comparison Institutions

In coordination with the Department Chair for Legal Studies the UCF Libraries selected three institutions with similar graduate certificate programs to benchmark for comparison of library resources:

- Florida International University, Graduate Certificate in Conflict Resolution & Consensus Building
- George Mason University, Conflict Analysis & Resolution Graduate Certificate
- Washington University, St. Louis, Post-Master’s Certificate in Mediation & Conflict Resolution Journals & Law Reviews:

Because the program is interdisciplinary there are many potential journals which might be used. A representative sampling of journals is identified for comparison purposes.

No additional databases are needed to support the certificate, but there are three databases for the library to consider in the future if the budget situation improves. Each of these three databases would significantly support research in several other disciplines beyond this certificate.

- ComAbstracts is a database of article abstracts, books, bibliographic records, and other sources of relevance to researchers, scholars, and students interested in fields related to human communication studies (mass communication, human interaction, rhetoric, health communication, communication & new media, journalism, communication theory, etc.). The UCF Libraries subscription to ComAbstracts was cancelled due to budget cuts and there are no funds currently available to resubscribe.
- HeinOnline provides broad and deep coverage beginning with the first issue of more than 2,700 law and law-related periodicals covering more than 100 subject areas and from 60 different countries.
- Peace Research Abstracts indexes thousands of journal articles and other sources covering peace-related topics, including nonviolence, conflict resolution, war, international affairs and peace psychology.

In the unfortunate event library budget shortfalls occur, some existing resource subscriptions may be cut or scaled back.
Monographs/Books

This interdisciplinary program has the potential of covering a very large number of subject areas, including human resources management, interpersonal communications, counseling, teaching, law enforcement, personal or commercial legal disputes, and international relations. The UCF Libraries already provides strong support for many of those individual disciplines, so a relatively small number of relevant subject headings was selected for this analysis for comparison of holdings with other institutions.

UCF Libraries has adequate monograph collections to support the proposed certificate. The holdings of the UCF Libraries compare favorably to those at the benchmark institutions; the chart provides details regarding how the collections compare for title count using selected Library of Congress Subject Headings.

NOTE: The monograph portion of this assessment is heavily dependent on print books available at the main campus; an analysis focused on ebooks might be needed if the certificate expands and moves to an emphasis online or at the downtown campus. The library’s current document delivery service should meet the needs for moving books between campuses at the certificate level.

If you will be submitting other revision forms for tracks or course actions, please list them here:

Is the CIP code being updated?

- Yes
- No

If yes, please provide the new CIP code:

Rationale for revision:
Based on our Institutional Effectiveness data and reports, we have found that our EdD students need additional courses in research design and analysis. Further, not all students need to take a program evaluation class as many are not conducting program evaluations for their dissertation research. Thus, we have added a research seminar to the core curriculum to teach students research design, and we have moved program evaluation to one of the options for students' restricted research electives. We have added other possible research electives, based on the students' dissertation research design, as options for their additional research class, including qualitative and advanced quantitative methods. To accommodate the research seminar, we have reduced the amount of dissertation hours from 18 to 15.

Complete the remaining required fields and LAUNCH this proposal! Do not begin revisions until after launch. Program revisions before launch will not be tracked.

Revise catalog copy here! After you revise courses, click on the Curriculum Schema button below to revise the catalog copy. Please note: this information is what will flow directly to the graduate catalog. Any attached documents to this proposal will not be used for catalog purposes.

Follow these steps to propose courses to the revised program curriculum:

Step 1

There are two options for adding courses: "Add Course" and "Import Course." For courses already in the catalog, click on "Import Course" and find the courses needed. For new classes going through a Curriculog Approval Process click on "Add Course" -- a box will open asking you for the Prefix, Course Number and Course Title.

Step 2

Click on "View Curriculum Schema." Click on the area/header of the program where you would like to add courses. When you click on "Add Courses" it will bring up the list of courses available from Step 1. Select the courses you wish to add. For removing courses click on the X and proceed.

College of Community Innovation and Education - Graduate Program Revision - Curriculum and Instruction EdD

Program Description

The Curriculum and Instruction EdD program is intended for individuals who are engaged in the practice of education in a variety of settings including schools, colleges, universities, businesses and industry. The program prepares students for engaging in the study of practice based problems in education and data driven decision making, to generate real world solutions.

The Curriculum and Instruction EdD program is designed for experienced practicing educators and practitioners who wish to gain advanced skills in:

1. Evaluating the effectiveness of educational and clinical programs and identifying impediments to effective practice and program improvement;
2. Analyzing and synthesizing educational and clinical research and scholarship to identify research-based practices and solutions to complex problems of the practice;
3. Leading the change process through the implementation of data and evidence-based decisions and solutions.

The Doctor of Education program culminates with the Dissertation in Practice.

Curriculum

The Doctor of Education (EdD) program is a professional practice doctorate. It is problem-based and designed for practitioners who aspire to positions of influence through their engagement in the development of others. The program builds that expertise from a core of courses in learning, development and motivation; data, accountability and leadership; organizational contexts and the use of research to drive decision-making. Students will work with a team of faculty and field advisers who will support their specialization area.

This program is intended for professionals who are interested in teaching in a college, university, or community college, or leading program improvement in a school or school district, higher education, social service agencies, military or business settings.

The EdD in Curriculum and Instruction consists of three distinct program areas, all with emphasis on professional practice: core, concentration, and capstone. The program requires 21 credit hours of core courses, 15 credit hours within the chosen concentration area, 3 credit hours of a restricted research elective, and 18 credit hours of dissertation in practice, including proposal, defense, and final submission of a dissertation in practice.

Total Credit Hours Required: 54 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Master's Degree

Required Courses—54 Credit Hours
Core—21 Credit Hours

The Core courses include 12 credit hours covering what all graduates of a professional practice doctoral program should know and be able to do and 9 credit hours of research continuum designed to identify, analyze and evaluate complex problems of practice.

- EDP 7517 Facilitating Learning, Development and Motivation
- EDF 7457 Data, Assessment, and Accountability
- EDA 7101 Organizational Theory in Education
- EDF 7494 Identifying Complex Problems of Practice
- EDF 7478 Analysis of Data for Complex Problems of Practice
- EDF 7468 Evaluation of Complex Problems of Practice
- EDF 7485 Proposing and Implementing Data-Driven Decisions
- IDS 7500 Seminar in Educational Research

Area of Specialization—15-18 Credit Hours

The area of specialization is comprised of 12 to 15 credit hours of specialization courses and 3 credit hours of "Laboratory of Practice."

Students must select an area of specialization. These courses are designed to enhance the student's professional practice by extending the knowledge base earned through the master's degree and work experience. Specialization areas are subject to the discretion of the College based on course and faculty availability. Applicants are advised to contact the Program Director regarding specializations.

Students must complete one 3-credit-hour "Laboratory of Practice" experience. The Laboratory of Practice is a field-based experience. This is not a "work for credit" experience; rather, it places the student in a professional setting for the purpose of gaining practical leadership experience. Students may also enroll in an internship designated by the concentration area as an alternative to the Laboratory of Practice.

- EDG 7947 - Laboratory of Practice (3 credit hours; may be repeated for a total of 6 credit hours) Examples of concentration areas are provided below; however, these are only examples and do not represent specific requirements.

Students should be aware that not every specialization course is offered every semester and concessions will need to be considered based on the availability of coursework, faculty, course prerequisites, and other institutional factors.

Example I: Curriculum and Instruction

The Curriculum and Instruction option provides students with a broad understanding of the factors affecting education and approaches to addressing systemic problems. For example, a student interested in curriculum design and development and contemporary instructional practice may select the following specialization to include:

[Before]
- EDG 7692 Issues in Curriculum 3 Credit Hours
- EDG 7221 Advanced Curriculum Theory

[After]
- EDF 7232 Analysis of Learning Theories in Instruction 3 Credit Hours
- EDG 7325 Models of Teaching and Instructional Theory

Example II: Instructional Design and Technology

- EME 6055 Current Trends in Instructional Technology
- EME 6507 Multimedia for Education and Training
- EME 6417 Interactive Online and Virtual Teaching Environments
- EME 6458 Virtual Teaching and the Digital Educator

Program Milestones

Program milestones are observable demonstrations of competency administered in place of comprehensive exams. Milestones are designed to monitor student progress and clear the student for continuation to the next program level.

- Milestone 1 - Gap Analysis
- Milestone 2 - Prospectus
- Milestone 3 - Dissertation in Practice Proposal and Proposal Defense

To enter EDG 7987 - Dissertation in Practice for the EdD, students must have an overall 3.0 GPA on all graduate work in the program and successfully complete the three required program milestones.

Dissertation in Practice—18 Credit Hours

The dissertation in practice is the culmination of coursework and field experience as it relates to complex problems of education practice. The dissertation is the final demonstration of competency in the Curriculum and Instruction EdD. It is a rigorous academic project and is expected to demonstrate the skills and knowledge the student has acquired throughout the program as applied in an authentic professional environment. The dissertation is completed in partnership with the student, university faculty, and the student's mentor/client. It may be a group or team project.

The dissertation in practice is presented in a thorough and comprehensive written report. It must be appropriately formatted according to APA 6th edition citation guidelines. The student must present findings to both university faculty and the student's client. The dissertation in practice will be evaluated on the thoroughness, applicability and appropriateness of the work.

EDG 7987 Dissertation in Practice

New-Core Restricted Research Elective

Upon completion of the three research continuum courses, students, with the guidance of their dissertation chairs, will select a fourth research course that will best support their dissertation research. Options include ONE of the following courses:

- EDG 6285 Evaluation of School Programs
- EDF 7463 Analysis of Survey, Record, and Other Qualitative Data
- EDF 7403 Quantitative Foundations of Educational Research
- EDF 7475 Qualitative Research in Education

Application Requirements

For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

In addition to the general UCF graduate application requirements, applicants to this program must provide:

- Official transcript

  One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- Master's degree in a closely related field.
- Graduate Record Examination scores and transcripts

  Official, competitive GRE score taken within the last five years.
- The goal statement

  The goal statement is a critical element of your application materials to the Ed. D. program. It should clearly convey the applicant's intended Area of Specialization (see below), professional experience, and professional goals after completion of the program. The admissions committee will review the goal statement to determine whether the EdD program is the right match for the applicant. In addition, as a sample of the applicant's writing ability, the goal statement should be clear and concise.

- Area of Specialization

  The applicant will be asked to indicate a preferred Area of Specialization in the Goal Statement. Areas of Specialization may be found here. Applicants are required to meet or speak with the Specialization Area Advisor about their interests prior to submitting an application. Please contact the Program Coordinator to discuss options for Areas of Specialization not included in our current program offerings.
• Resume

The applicant should include his/her most recent professional resume or curriculum vitae. The EdD in Curriculum and Instruction is a doctorate in the professional practice of education and as such emphasizes a minimum of three (3) years' experience in the field.

• Three letters of reference

Three letters of reference will be read by the admissions committee to determine whether the applicant has the academic ability to succeed in the program. As such, these letters should be written by graduate faculty who are able to judge the applicant's abilities in a doctoral program, including their research and writing skills. One of the letters may be from the applicant's employer/supervisor. This letter will support the applicant's professional experience and commitment to the program.

• Interview

The applicant may be requested should make an appointment to interview meet with EdD the program faculty coordinator and the specialization area adviser before the final admission deadline. These appointments may be conducted in person or over the telephone. The interview is an important way for faculty to attach faces to names and draw distinctions among applicants. Students in the EdD in Curriculum and Instruction program will spend three full years working closely with faculty and colleagues in both individual and group settings. The interview allows faculty to meet potential students to begin the process of forming a cohesive and dynamic cohort.

Financials

Graduate students may receive financial assistance through fellowships, assistantships, tuition support, or loans. For more information, see the College of Graduate Studies Funding website, which describes the types of financial assistance available at UCF and provides general guidance in planning your graduate finances. The Financial Information section of the Graduate Catalog is another key resource.

Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded based on academic merit to highly qualified students. They are paid to students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, based on instructions provided by the College of Graduate Studies. Fellowships are given to support a student's graduate study and do not have a work obligation. For more information, see UCF Graduate Fellowships, which includes descriptions of university fellowships and what you should do to be considered for a fellowship.

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hour</th>

<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Course Engagement</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement
2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement
3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: In determining if a course is repeatable for credit, the concept is that the content is the same, but the student experience with that content will be different each time it is taken.

For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated.

| Repeat for credit?* | Yes ☐ No ☐ |

If yes, indicate the total times the course may be used toward completion of the degree.

Term of Offering

| When will the course be offered? | Odd Fall ☐ Even Fall ☐ Odd Spring ☐ Even Spring ☐ Odd Summer ☑ Even Summer ☐ Every Semester ☐ Occasional ☐ |

Intended Utilization of Course

| The course will be used primarily as:* | Required Course ☐ Elective Course ☐ |

Materials and Supply Fee

| New Materials and Supply Fees?* | Yes ☐ No ☐ |

If yes, also complete the 2020-21 Graduate Materials and Supply Fee form.

This course is an interdisciplinary course focused on the development of language and literacy intervention knowledge and skills to meet the course proposal of a newly-funded grant through the Office of Special Education Programs.

New proposed Intervention in Language and Literacy Graduate Certificate

M.Ed. in ESE and Com. Dis.

35

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail any discussions you have had or attach relevant documents like email threads in the Attachment List Section.

There appear to be no duplications, as this course is an interdisciplinary course across three programs. The content of this proposed course was developed and viewed by faculty in all three of the areas (communication disorders, reading, and exceptional student education.) Faculty from both CCIE and CHPS are collaborating on the Certificate for Intervention in Language and Literacy Graduate Certificate which was approved by and will be housed in CCIE. See attached Grant Abstract.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central of Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
- Course Materials and Resources
- Core policy statements

Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct

Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Full details of the syllabus policy can be found at: https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-403.pdf

For students in Communication Sciences and Disorders Master’s Program

Catalog Course Description
Interdisciplinary approach to exploring issues in language and literacy for struggling children and adolescents and development of collaboration competencies for professionals from different disciplines.

This course is an interdisciplinary collaboration with faculty from Exceptional Student Education, Reading, Teaching English as a Second Language, and Communication Sciences and Disorders (Speech-Language Pathology).

Course Outcomes
A shared knowledge base and experience in collaborating with colleagues who have interest and expertise in language and literacy for children and adolescents.

Course Goals
1. Develop collaborative competencies for professionals from varied disciplines focused on assessment, instruction, and intervention in language and literacy.
2. Demonstrate the oral and written communication skills required for the professional practice as it relates to interdisciplinary language and literacy intervention with children and adolescents with high intensity needs.
3. Demonstrate professional and ethical conduct within professional practices.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in the nature and needs of children and adolescents with language and literacy disorders.
5. Incorporate advanced, specialized preparation in intensive interventions including collaborative field-based internships/practicum within high-need school settings.
6. Identify the unique contributions of reading specialists, ESOL teachers and speech-language pathologists to school-wide literacy and explore collaborative roles of professionals in Multi-Tier Systems of Support.
7. Demonstrate proficiency in collaborating with colleagues from other disciplines.
8. Explain language development from various discipline perspectives (CSD, ExEd, TESOL, Reading).

Role of the Course within the master’s Programs

This is an interdisciplinary course geared toward students enrolled in a master’s program, primarily in the following tracks: Communication Science and Disorders (CSD) and Exceptional Student Education (ExED). It is a required course in the Interdisciplinary Language and Literacy Intervention Graduate Certificate.

Recommended Text:

Readings may be assigned from the following professional journals (Possible readings included in references):

- Intervention in Schools and Clinic
- Teacher Education and Special Education
- Teaching Exceptional Children
- Learning Disabilities: A Contemporary Journal
- Remedial and Special Education
- The Reading Teacher
- Learning Disability Quarterly
Course Assignments (Mixed Mode of Instruction)

Method of Instruction and Online Requirements

This course is a designated M course. We will be meeting face-to-face per course schedule and will have designated assignments and/or meet as a class during "on-line" course time. Please make sure that you read and adhere to the class schedule.

The overall goal of this course is designed to model the effective elements of collaboration. Therefore, assignments and learning opportunities will vary, to include (but not limited to): discussions, demonstration, video/online learning, interviews, case studies and reflection both in writing and orally.

Login and Password Information

Students must follow UCF's log-in and password conventions

Computer System Requirements

- Personal computer or access to public computer (UCF or USF computer labs or public library access)
- High speed internet connection (minimum 56K)
- Competence with Microsoft applications, specifically PowerPoint and Word

Collaborative Face-to-Face Course Sessions:

There will be a total of EIGHT Face-to-Face Class sessions on the dates and times listed on the front of the syllabus. During face-to-face classes you will be expected to come prepared to actively participate in class. You are required to complete specific assignments by deadline dates. These dates can be found in the course schedule.

You are expected to attend all the course sessions for 10 pts. EACH (total of 80 points). Your active engagement in the discussions and in class activities are expected.

This is an important part of the class, as discussions among class members over important course topics deepen our learning and understanding of the topics especially as they relate to collaboration.

Weekly Discussions (15 points each, 120 points)

This course is offered as a mixed-mode delivery which offers opportunities for face-to-face discussions and online discussion. For each weekly module, students will engage in an online discussion about the weekly topic. There are great benefits to engaging in both face-to-face discussions as well as online. Face-to-face discussions allows students to engage in ways that facilitates deeper conversations. Similarly, online discussions allow students to share information, elicit advice, share resources, ask questions, and provide well thought out responses.
Textbook Quizzes (10 points each, 80 total points)

There are 8 weekly quizzes based on the weekly reading from the required textbook.

Article Reviews and Critique (50 points each, 150 total points)

Students will complete THREE articles reviews. Students will select an article from a list of peer-reviewed journal articles written about collaboration between speech-language pathologists and special education teachers and provide review. The review is more than a summary and requires reflection. Completing an article review will allow students to extend their learning and create connections between research and practice.

To complete this assignment, students may submit their response in any of the following ways:
- 3-5 Page Paper
- 8-12 Slide PowerPoint
- 3-4 Minute Video

Collaboration Interview (75 points)

Write a 4-5-page paper (APA style) discussing the impact of collaboration on the roles and responsibilities of educators as they relate to the implementation of intensive intervention and assessment/evaluation for students who struggle academically, their teachers, and families. Research specific strategies and community/agency resources to address the needs and impact. Students will develop interview protocol using skills and knowledge gained in this course related to collaboration and interview at least THREE different people from diverse expertise who are involved in the intervention/instruction/evaluation of students (e.g., school psychologist, special education teacher, general education teacher, curriculum coach, administrator, speech-language pathologist, parent, student, administrator, etc.) to learn about the impact of collaboration on their roles and responsibilities.

Conflict Resolution Paper (35 points)

Students will complete an essay in conflict resolution. This 3-5-page paper will be designed around the major points of conflict and strategies to address them. Students will identify one specific conflict they have had to manage in the past. List the sequence of events and make specific text connections to support their reflection about what happened and why. Students will also include which aspects of the conflict were easiest/hardest to resolve and why.

Co-Teaching/Demonstration: Final Project (100 points)

Using principles of collaboration learned in this course, students will co-plan, co-design, and co-teach a lesson. This performance-based assessment is multilayered and will involve a minimum of two individuals. Paired participants will design a co-teaching episode, submit lesson plans outlining the shared responsibilities and conduct a micro-teaching demonstration during the final class. Further, each participant will evaluate the contribution of their peer and the overall demonstration will be evaluated by the instructor.

Course Requirements

PLEASE NOTE: No late online assignments will be accepted, and all assignments must be completed to pass the course.
Missed Assignments/Make-Ups

Late Work Policy: There are no make-ups for assignments. Points will be deducted for all assignments turned in late (See rubrics in web course.). Any late work will not be accepted if overdue by more than seven days. Please see the instructor immediately if there are serious issues affecting timely submission of learning for this semester. All assignments must be completed in order to pass this course.

Grades of "Incomplete": The current university policy concerning incomplete grades will be followed in this course. Incomplete grades are given only in situations where unexpected emergencies prevent a student from completing the course and the remaining work can be completed the next semester. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for an incomplete. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or the “I” will automatically be recorded as an “F” on your transcript.

All written assignments must be word-processed. Points will be deducted for grievous writing errors such as spelling, capitalization, punctuation, grammar, syntax, run-on sentences, etc. All out of class written assignments must be typed using 7th Edition APA guidelines.

Attendance Policy

It is expected that each of you will demonstrate interest, enthusiasm, and professionalism in the course. Active engagement in role-plays, case studies, data-based assessment discussions, and intervention planning are critical components of this course. Therefore, your active engagement and attendance at each class session is required. Students must contact the instructor to discuss any absences from class. Given that this course focuses on collaboration, your participation/attendance/professional preparations are very important.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism and cheating of any kind on an examination, quiz, or assignment will result at least in an "F" for that assignment (and may, depending on the severity of the case, lead to an "F" for the entire course) and may be subject to appropriate referral to the Office of Student Conduct for further action. See the UCF Golden Rule for further information. I will assume for this course that you will adhere to the academic creed of this University and will maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. In other words, don't cheat by giving answers to others or taking them from anyone else. I will also adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that will not apply to everyone.

Accessibility Statement
The University of Central Florida is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to discuss needed accommodations. No accommodations will be provided until the student has met with the professor to request accommodations. Students who need accommodations must connect with Student Accessibility Services, Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, phone (407) 823-2371, TTY/TDD only phone (407) 823-2116, before requesting accommodations from the professor.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact their instructors as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they received notification of deployment to make related arrangements.

Campus Safety

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to https://my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class. To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk).

Though most emergency situations are primarily relevant to courses that meet in person, such incidents can also impact online students, either when they are on or near campus to participate in other courses or activities or when their course work is affected by off-campus emergencies. The following policies apply to courses in online modalities.

- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to https://my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Diversity and Inclusion

The University of Central Florida considers the diversity of its students, faculty, and staff to be a strength and critical to its educational mission. UCF expects every member of the university community to contribute to an inclusive and respectful culture for all in its classrooms, work environments, and at campus events. Dimensions of diversity can include sex, race, age, national origin, ethnicity, gender identity and expression, intellectual and physical ability, sexual orientation, income, faith and non-faith perspectives, socio-economic class, political ideology, education, primary language, family status, military experience, cognitive style, and communication style. The individual intersection of these experiences and characteristics must be valued in our community.

Title IX prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct, sexual violence, sexual harassment, and retaliation. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find resources available to support the victim, including confidential resources and information concerning reporting options at www.shield.ucf.edu and http://cares.sdes.ucf.edu/.

If there are aspects of the design, instruction, and/or experiences within this course that result in barriers to your inclusion or accurate assessment of achievement, please notify the instructor as soon as possible and/or contact Student Accessibility Services.

Religious Observances

Faculty should include in their syllabi procedures for resolving conflicts between the normal class schedule and major religious observances. Students are expected to notify their instructor in advance if they intend to miss class to observe a holy day of their religious faith. Click here for a list of the major religious holidays in a number of faiths. For more details about these and other holidays, go to http://www.fctl.ucf.edu/TeachingAndLearningResources/CourseDesign/MajorReligiousHolidays/ or contact the Office of Diversity and Inclusion at 407-823-6479.

Course Title:
Assessment of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents

30 Character Abbreviation:
Assessment of Lang Disorders

Course Type:
- [ ] Graduate Course
- [ ] Medicine (MD) Course

Course Description (25 word limit):
The assessment of spoken and written language disorders in children and adolescents.

Grading Scheme:*  ABCDF

Prerequisite(s):
- Admission to M.A. in Communication Sciences and Disorders or C.I.

Corequisite(s):

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF’s accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

| Credit Hour | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| (Formal) Instruction Time - Class Hours or Online Module, etc. | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| Lab/Studio/Field work | 0 | 1 | 2 |
| Out-of-Class (homework, course readings, group work, online posts, etc) | 2 | 1 | 0 |
| Total Course Engagement | 3 | 3 | 3 |

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hour = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement

3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement
4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: In determining if a course is repeatable for credit, the concept is that the content is the same, but the student experience with that content will be different each time it is taken.

For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated.

Repeat for credit?* □ Yes □ No

If yes, indicate the total times the course may be used toward completion of the degree.

Term of Offering

When will the course be offered? □ Odd Fall □ Even Fall □ Odd Spring □ Even Spring □ Odd Summer  □ Even Summer  □ Every Semester □ Occasional

Intended Utilization of Course

The course will be used primarily as: □ Required Course □ Elective Course

Materials and Supply Fee

New Materials and Supply Fees?* □ Yes □ No

If yes, also complete the 2020-21 Graduate Materials and Supply Fee form.
Justification for Course Addition

What is the rationale for adding this course?*  The CSD Graduate Program has previously offered a 6CH course SPA6496 Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents that covers the nature of language disorders as well as the assessment and treatment of these disorders. Historically, this course has been co-taught by two faculty members in the program and the content has been divided by aspects of assessment and treatment. The graduate program committee recommends this content be split into these two content areas and two new courses created in order to allow one instructor for each course, as well as the course to focus specifically in either assessment or treatment. This course will focus specifically on the nature of the language disorders as it related to assessment.

What grad programs/tracks require or recommend this course for graduation?  Communication Sciences and Disorders, MA

What will be the source of students?*  Communication Sciences and Disorders, MA

What is the estimated annual enrollment?*  105

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail any discussions you have had or attach relevant documents like email threads in the Attachment List Section.

Detail Discussion  No conflicts or duplication with other departments or colleges.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central of Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
- Assessment and grading procedures
Course Materials and Resources

Core policy statements

- Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
- Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
- Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
- Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Course Description: (Catalog) “The assessment of spoken and written language disorders in children and adolescents.”

This course addresses the assessment of linguistic, metalinguistic, cognitive, metacognitive, social, emotional and academic correlates of language disorders in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, in the preschool and school-age populations. It focuses on a range of assessment practices, formal and informal, to identify oral and written language disorders in children and adolescents. A variety of roles and responsibilities of the speech language pathologist related to assessment and in collaboration with relevant providers in the assessment process will be explored.

Course Outcome: A working knowledge of assessing and identifying language disorders in the preschool and school-age populations that will enable the practitioner to serve as a productive collaborator in a variety of settings.

Course Goals:
1. Activate prior knowledge regarding the nature of language and language development as it relates to assessment and identification.
2. Demonstrate the oral and written communication skills required for the practice of speech-language pathologists as it relates to assessment and identification.
3. Demonstrate professional and ethical conduct as it relates to assessment and identification.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in the nature and needs of children and adolescents with language disorders.
5. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in the assessment of children and adolescents with language disorders, specifically in instruments and procedures, administration of instruments/procedures and interpretation of results.
6. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in determining for eligibility for children and adolescents with language disorders across a variety of settings.
7. Demonstrate knowledge about collaboration with others on behalf of children and adolescents with language disorders as it relates to assessment and identification.

Learning Outcomes:

Prior Knowledge
- Activate prior knowledge regarding the nature of language.
- Activate prior knowledge regarding language development.

Professional and Ethical Conduct
Demonstrate professional and ethical conduct:
- Work cooperatively with other class members on assigned tasks.
- Exert effort in mastery of knowledge and skills.
- Demonstrate ethical conduct by adhering to UCF’s honesty policy, known as “The Golden Rule.”

Communication
- Speak and write professionally using Standard American English.

Nature and Needs
1. Explain the various definitions related to language problems (e.g., language disorder, language impairment, language learning disabilities).
2. Differentiate language disorders from language differences, language delay from language disorder.
3. Explain reciprocity issues in language disorders.
4. Describe the oral and written language characteristics (including form, content, and use) associated with various disorders, including genetic syndromes.
5. Explain factors which impact oral and written language development to include sensory, cognitive and social/emotional factors.
6. Explain the changing symptomotology of language across the age span in children and adolescents.
7. Describe the following causal or comorbid conditions in language disorder: autism, intellectual disabilities, emotional disabilities, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, hearing impairment, physical impairment, visual impairment, traumatic brain injury/closed head injury, multiple disabilities.
8. Name genetic syndromes that involve language disorder.
9. Recognize signs that indicate that a child or adolescent is not achieving milestones in spoken written language acquisition.

Assessment
Instruments/Procedures
10. Explain the purposes of language assessments (e.g., identifying language disorders, measuring progress).
11. Identify specific language and related sensory and cognitive demands in assessment instruments and procedures.
12. Identify important elements of a case history on a child or adolescent with suspected language disorders.
13. Identify sources of key information on students (e.g., caregivers, teachers).
14. Identify formal and informal assessment procedures and instruments for oral and written language, appropriate to age and purpose.
15. Analyze key language tests to ascertain what they actually assess.
16. Evaluate the psychometric properties of tests (e.g., validity, reliability).
17. Analyze the language requirements of specific settings: play, classroom, home/community.
18. Link appropriate assessment procedures and instruments to specific assessment purposes.
19. Design a comprehensive evaluation to include listening, speaking, reading, and writing, based on age, presenting problems and cultural/linguistic diversity.
20. Gauge developmental or academic progress to delineate the need for assessment.

Administration

20. Describe/demonstrate how to administer a language test.
21. Know how to conduct other language assessment procedures (oral and written language).
22. Calculate standard scores, etc. on standardized tests.
23. List modifications of assessment procedures according to the individual needs of children and adolescents (e.g., physical, cognitive, and sensory differences).

Interpretation

25. Identify signs of problems in language functioning from a variety of data sources (e.g., social, academic, psychological).
26. Analyze a variety of scores/data for language implications.
27. Analyze oral and written language samples at word, sentences, and discourse levels.
28. Determine language strengths, differences and weaknesses from observation.
29. Identify specific linguistic, metalinguistic and metacognitive factors in performance.
30. Explain criteria for diagnosing language disorders in culturally & linguistically diverse students.
31. Generate a diagnostic hypothesis with regard to language disorder.
32. Synthesize evaluation data to create a profile of strengths and weaknesses in spoken and written language.
33. Identify the components of a language evaluation report.
34. Explain when to make referrals to other professionals for further assessment.
35. Explain what “eligibility” for school programs means.

Collaboration

36. Explain the SLP’s roles and responsibilities in relationship to others.
37. Explain the principles of effective collaboration.

However, a late penalty may be assessed for work submitted after it is due, regardless of absence.</td>

Financial Aid Requirement (a.k.a “Academic Activity”) |
| • All faculty are required to document students’ academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the following academic activity by the end of the first week of classes or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid. |
| • To fulfill this requirement in this course, you must complete the course pretest and contact information in Webcourses by **** |

Communication

• All email communication should be completed via Webcourses (Not UCF Outlook). Do not expect email responses over the weekend and please allow 48 hours for emails sent Monday-Friday. Students are required to use Knights email accounts for communication in this course, consistent with department policy. |
| • All office hours are by appointment. |
| • There may be times when you will be asked to access websites to obtain information or complete tasks. |
Webcourses
- If you are unfamiliar with Webcourses, locate information about it at [http://learn.ucf.edu/support/] or contact Online Support at 407-823-3808 or at onlinesupport@ucf.edu.
- Consider using the Canvas app for faster communication and course access.
- Ensure your settings and notifications in Webcourses are updated. You are solely responsible for checking Webcourses – whether you are alerted by Webcourses of an update or not.

Class Preparation
- Course materials are posted in Webcourses for each class. YOU MUST BE SURE TO DOWNLOAD THEM AND BRING THEM TO EACH CLASS electronically or in paper form, whichever you prefer.
- As you are downloading materials for classes and assignments, be sure to access these ONLY through Modules and Assignments (NOT FILES). This will ensure you have the most updated materials for the current semester.
- Please be sure to check Webcourses the day before and the day of each class for class materials and important announcements.
- A notetaking format is provided for you to use in reading the textbook and other assigned reading. Bring your notes to class so that you can add to them as appropriate.
- Bring your textbook to each class.

Laptop Computers
- You may bring your laptop to class to access resource materials and take notes, only if this use of technology is productive and permits our community of learners to learn effectively. If laptops and other handheld devices (e.g., iPad, Kindle), when approved by the instructor, thwart interaction or in any other way disrupt the learning environment, he/she reserves the right to discontinue their use in class.

Cell Phone & Etc.
- I realize that some students use smart phones to access Canvas. No other cell phone use is permitted. If you need to text or make a call, please do so on the break outside the classroom. If you have a specific need to be on the alert for a call, please discuss this situation with the instructor.
- Cell phones, beepers, and pagers must be turned to silent during class sessions.

Lectures & Examination
- Some assigned readings, materials, and other course-related content may not be discussed in class. However, unless stated otherwise by the instructor, you must know that content for examinations, quizzes, assignments, discussions, and etc.
- Examinations and quizzes MUST BE taken on the day assigned. Makeup examinations, quizzes, and assignments are NOT given unless stated otherwise by the instructor. All assignments MUST be completed by the end of the semester, regardless of point value awarded at that time. Failure to complete all assignments will result in your final course grade being lowered by one letter grade.

Recordings
- Recording class sessions (e.g., audio, video) is prohibited, unless you (1) have gotten the instructor’s prior consent and/or (2) provide the course instructor with a documentation from the University’s Office of Student Accessibility Services that recording is an appropriate accommodation. Contact the instructor if further information is needed.

Readings as Assigned
- Read textbook chapters and journal articles as indicated on the course schedule or as announced via email and/or class.

Access to ASHA Resources for CSD Majors
- CSD majors are expected to have access to ASHA member resources for use in this class, consistent with Department policy. (NOTE: This requires NSSLHA membership.)

Standards Mastery
- This is a core course within the Master’s Program. Therefore, I have to document your progress toward the knowledge and skill competencies (KASA) of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), our national accrediting body. The applicable KASA standards are provided in a separate document in Webcourses. You must meet the threshold of competency for an academic course for each applicable standard. Failure to do so, regardless of the grade earned in the course, may result in a remediation plan to help you achieve the competency in question. See the Department’s graduate handbook for remediation plan policy and procedures.

Academic Integrity
- As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Do not cheat by giving answers to others or taking them from anyone else. Do not collaborate on tasks unless specifically asked to do so. Please familiarize yourself with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (The Golden Rule). See http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/.
- Although recycling is good for the environment, it is not acceptable in this course. You are expected to generate original work from the beginning, whether you are (1) taking this course for the first time or (2) retaking some or all of it in fulfillment of a remediation plan.
- Original work is required on all assignments, examinations, and elsewhere and must be done specifically for this course (unless an exception is approved in advance.).
- When you make legitimate use of the work of others, be sure to follow APA standards for citation of sources.
- Penalties for academic dishonesty can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, dismissal from the course, dismissal from the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders (DCSD) Master’s Program, or suspension or expulsion from the university.

Academic Conduct
- See the university policy regarding students’ rights and responsibilities and The Golden Rule (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/).

Grading Procedures
- Assignments will be graded based on the criteria and format stated, with a rubric given for the specific assignments noted above. Each assignment is worth the number of points designated.
- Late assignments will be deducted 20% for each day late.
- Examinations MUST BE taken on the day assigned.
- All assignments MUST BE COMPLETED. If you are missing any assignment, your final course grade will be lowered by one letter grade.
The grading system is as follows:
- A = 94-100%
- A- = <94-90%
- B+ = <90 – 87%
- B = <87 – 84%
- B- = <84 – 80%
- C+ = <80 – 77%
- C = <77 – 74%
- C- = <74 – 70%
- D = <70-60%
- F = 59 & below

Group/Partner Assignments
- Through group projects and other coursework, you will develop conceptual and interaction skills that will be critical to your future success. Therefore, group projects will require the participation of each group member. Individual projects will NOT be accepted unless deemed necessary by the instructor.
- In situations where the instructor determines that the student did not meet/comply with course requirements for project assignments and related work, this will result immediately in, but not necessarily limited to, a failing grade on that course evaluation procedure(s).

Students with Disabilities
- It is a university policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in class activities and assignments. Students with disabilities should contact Student Accessibility Services at (407) 823-2371 to obtain assistance with arranging the necessary accommodations.
- The professor will be more than happy to assist with accommodations that are established through the University’s prescribed process.

Technology/Software Requirements
- You are expected to have frequent access to a computer, as all writing assignments must be typed out and not handwritten. You are required to have access to Microsoft Word for your assignments for this course.
- If you do not own a computer, there are computers accessible to you in all of UCF’s computer labs. For further information on UCF technology policy, see the following website: http://registrar.sdes.ucf.edu/weg/policy_statements/use_of_technology/.
- Make certain that you utilize a consistently reliable internet service to complete the online assessments in this course. Under no circumstances will you be permitted another attempt at an examination, assignment, and etc. due to computer “glitches”, network “glitches”, or other electronic “glitches” that prevent you from submitting your work on time. Please do not contact your instructor to reopen, reset, or accept an assignment because you did not allow sufficient time for the system to process your work before the deadline.

Campus Safety
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.
• In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
• Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
• Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
• If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
• To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
• Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
• To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video.

Deployed Active Duty Military Status
• Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact their instructors as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they receive notification of deployment to make related arrangements.

Community Principles
• As a productive learning community, it is important for us all to abide by the community principles that we co-construct during the first class. Please write these on your Course Organizer. They will in effect become part of the syllabus.

University Writing Center
• The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to UCF students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Trained peer consultants provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix papers or to make better writers, but to teach writers strategies to navigate complex situations for writing, both in and outside the University. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. To make the best use of the UWC, visit far enough before your due date to allow yourself time to revise after your consultation, browse the writing resources on our website, and arrange a regular weekly appointment if you’d like long-term help. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by phone or by using the TutorTrac scheduler on our website; walk-in consultations are also available. http://uwc.cah.ucf.edu/

Syllabus Changes
• Many factors can influence the development and implementation of a course. The instructor, therefore, reserves the right to alter this syllabus when necessary to facilitate the attainment of course learning outcomes and objectives, address academic honesty and integrity, and accommodate accessibility or extenuating circumstances. Any changes will be announced in class or in Webcourses. You are responsible for adapting to such changes. Examples of changes include lecture dates, readings, examinations, assignments, activities, and policies.

The UCF Creed
Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence

Credit Hour Information

As part of UCF's accreditation with SACSCOC, we are required to have a formal model of credit hour designations. The following chart provides a general framework for faculty to use as they make course proposals. The elements will help faculty to better determine the credit hour designation for a course and help the institution with a standard approach in this determination.

Credit Hour Design Options

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hour</th>
<th>1</th>

<td>2</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Course Engagement</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Any combination of these elements that extend beyond the 3 hours of Total Course Engagement, could be considered a 2 credit hour class. The course should try to maintain a 1:3 ratio.

1 Credit hours = 3 hours of Total Course Engagement

2 Credit hours = 6 hours of Total Course Engagement
3 Credit hours = 9 hours of Total Course Engagement

4 Credit hours = 12 hours of Total Course Engagement

Please note the Out-of-Class hours will not appear in the graduate catalog. This field is for information only.

For further review, please see the SACSCOC definition: http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/Credit%20Hours.pdf

NOTE: In determining if a course is repeatable for credit, the concept is that the content is the same, but the student experience with that content will be different each time it is taken.

For a repeatable course, indicate in the syllabus what will remain the same and what will change when the course is repeated.

| Repeat for credit?* | Yes ☐ No ☐ |

If yes, indicate the total times the course may be used toward completion of the degree.

Term of Offering

| When will the course be offered? | ☐ Odd Fall ☐ Even Fall ☐ Odd Spring ☐ Even Spring ☐ Odd Summer ☐ Even Summer ☑ Every Semester ☐ Occasional |

Intended Utilization of Course

| The course will be used primarily as:* | ☑ Required Course ☐ Elective Course |

Materials and Supply Fee

| New Materials and Supply Fees?* | Yes ☐ No ☐ |
If yes, also complete the 2020-21 Graduate Materials and Supply Fee form.

Justification for Course Addition

| What is the rationale for adding this course? | The CSD Graduate Program has previously offered a 6CH course SPA6496 Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents that covers the nature of language disorders as well as the assessment and treatment of these disorders. Historically, this course has been co-taught by two faculty members in the program and the content has been divided by aspects of assessment and treatment. The graduate program committee recommends this content be split into these two content areas and two new courses created in order to allow one instructor for each course, as well as the course to focus specifically in either assessment or treatment. This course will focus specifically on the nature of the language disorders as it related to treatment. |
| What grad programs/tracks require or recommend this course for graduation? | Communication Sciences and Disorders MA |
| What will be the source of students? | Communication Sciences and Disorders MA |
| What is the estimated annual enrollment? | 105 |

Possible duplications and conflicts with other departments or colleges should be discussed with appropriate parties. Please detail any discussions you have had or attach relevant documents like email threads in the Attachment List Section.

Detail Discussion

No conflicts of duplications with other departments or colleges.

Course Syllabus Policy

The University of Central of Florida has established guidelines as it relates to the form and structure of all course syllabi. An effective syllabus provides an overview of the purpose of a course, outlines course requirements, and defines expectations for student performance. Faculty members are responsible for developing course content and selecting pedagogical approaches for their courses. Leveraging this policy to develop them will provide a consistent approach for presenting essential information that supports learning and ensures that UCF is in compliance with the standards set forth by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and other accrediting bodies.

To this end, each syllabus should include the following required elements:

- Information from the official Schedule of Classes
- Instructor and/or GTA contact information
- Explicit, public description of the course
- Student learning outcomes
- Sequence of course activity
Assessment and grading procedures
Course Materials and Resources
Core policy statements

- Academic integrity statement including definition(s) of and consequences for academic misconduct
- Statement directing students needing accommodations to work with faculty and with Student Accessibility Services to ensure equal access to educational activities
- Statement regarding emergency procedures and campus safety, encouraging students to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies
- Statement regarding accommodations for active duty military students

Full details of the syllabus policy can be found at: https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/4-403.pdf

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CONTENTS OF THIS SYLLABUS. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

Course Description: (Catalog) "The nature and treatment of spoken and written language disorders in children and adolescents."

This course addresses the linguistic, metalinguistic, cognitive, metacognitive, social, emotional and academic correlates of language disorders in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, in the preschool and school-age populations. It focuses on a range of appropriate intervention practices to meet the personal, social, academic, and vocational needs of these children and adolescents. A variety of roles and responsibilities of the speech language pathologist related to intervention and in collaboration with others in different practice settings will be explored.

Course Outcome: A working knowledge of intervention practices for language disorders in the preschool and school-age populations that will enable the practitioner to serve as a productive collaborator in delivering appropriate services in a variety of settings.

Course Goals:
1. Activate prior knowledge regarding the nature of language and language development as it relates to intervention practices.
2. Demonstrate the oral and written communication skills required for the practice of speech-language pathologists as it relates to intervention practices.
3. Demonstrate professional and ethical conduct as it relates to intervention practices.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in the nature and needs of children and adolescents with language disorders as it relates to intervention practices.
5. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in prevention of language disorders and the negative consequences of language disorders in children and adolescents.
6. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in intervention with children and adolescents with language disorders, specifically in intervention planning and implementation.
7. Demonstrate knowledge about collaboration with others on behalf of children and adolescents with language disorders as it relates to intervention practices.

Learning Outcomes:

Prior Knowledge
- Activate prior knowledge regarding the nature of language.
- Activate prior knowledge regarding language development.

Professional and Ethical Conduct
Demonstrate professional and ethical conduct:
- Work cooperatively with other class members on assigned tasks.
- Exert effort in mastery of knowledge and skills.
- Demonstrate ethical conduct by adhering to UCF’s honesty policy, known as “The Golden Rule.”

Communication
- Speak and write professionally using Standard American English.

Nature and Needs
1. Explain the various definitions related to language problems (e.g., language disorder, language impairment, language learning disabilities).
2. Explain reciprocity issues in language disorders.
3. Describe the oral and written language characteristics (including form, content, and use) associated with various disorders, including genetic syndromes.
4. Explain factors which impact oral and written language development to include sensory, cognitive and social/emotional factors.
5. Explain the changing symptomatology of language across the age span in children and adolescents.
6. Describe the following causal or comorbid conditions in language disorder: autism, intellectual disabilities, emotional disabilities, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, hearing impairment, physical impairment, visual impairment, traumatic brain injury/closed head injury, multiple disabilities.
7. Name genetic syndromes that involve language disorder.

Prevention
8. Explain levels of prevention from a language perspective.
9. Explain the relationship between language difficulties and literacy acquisition.
10. Describe approaches to preventing problems in literacy.
11. Explain Response to Intervention (RTI) and possible roles of SLPs within RTI.

Intervention Planning
12. Identify critical information needed for intervention planning.
13. Describe various types of goals and objectives.
14. Explain the use of backward design in intervention planning.
15. Identify factors influencing goal setting.
16. Utilize a language/literacy profile to draft appropriate goals.
17. Write language goals appropriate to specific ages and needs.
18. Articulate the rationale for selection of a goal.
20. Select appropriate methods for evaluating a variety of language/literacy goals.
21. Explain how to change objectives, based on data.
22. Name the components of a treatment plan.
23. Develop a treatment plan based on a language/literacy profile that is appropriate for specific students at different ages, functioning in different environments.
24. Explain integration of goals and continuity of treatment from goals to activities.
25. Explain the process of engaging students in goal setting and goal refinement.
26. Explain principles of counseling with students with language disorders and their family members.

Implementation

27. State important principles of intervention.
28. Differentiate knowledge, skills and strategies in intervention.
29. Describe types of intervention approaches.
30. Employ evidence-based practice decision-making in selecting intervention approaches.
31. Analyze the relationships among listening, speaking, reading and writing processes in intervention.
32. Identify language and literacy intervention techniques for a variety of disorder types, ages and conditions.
33. Describe techniques for addressing the language underpinnings of curriculum.
34. Modify intervention procedures according to needs of student (e.g., physical, cognitive, and sensory differences).
35. Select implementation activities tied to an intervention approach.
36. Explain explicit/direct teaching and scaffolding.
37. Explain the use of technology in intervention.
38. Discuss the roles of families and teachers in delivering intervention.
39. List criteria for effective an intervention program.
40. Describe individualized intervention program (IEP) and components and processes.
41. Identify issues in literacy interventions with special populations.

Collaboration

42. Explain the SLP’s roles and responsibilities in relationship to others.
43. Describe how to work with others to ensure opportunities in emergent language acquisition in young children.
44. Explain collaboration with teachers, parents, and other service providers to promote generalization of language and literacy goals.
45. Explain the principles of effective collaboration.

Policies

Attendance
- As stated in the requirements, I expect you to attend all classes. Our community of learners is not the same without you. More than many other university courses, this one requires your presence and active participation in all classroom activities and discussions. In an emergency that precludes your attendance, please notify the instructor in advance. All students are responsible for class outcomes when absence is necessary. However, a late penalty may be assessed for work submitted after it is due, regardless of absence.
- Points are deducted for absences and incomplete attendance. Documentation of emergencies that interfere with attendance will be required for an absence or incomplete attendance to be excused. However, “excused absences or incomplete attendance” are at the discretion of the instructors.
- Four or more absences will result in the lowering of your final semester grade by a minimum of one letter grade (e.g., With four absences, an “A” will become a “B”). More than 15 minutes late for a class session will be considered as an absence. Additionally, leaving a class session early will be considered as an absence.
- You must schedule, or reschedule, vacations, retreats, trips, and etc. around class meeting dates, exams, deadlines, and etc. If NOT, you might want to enroll in this course when you are able to fulfill all requirements.
- Any student using technology for other than class work will be asked to leave the class and will be marked absent for the class.

Financial Aid Requirement (a.k.a “Academic Activity”)
- All faculty are required to document students’ academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the following academic activity by the end of the first week of classes or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.
- To fulfill this requirement in this course, you must complete the course pretest and contact information in Webcourses by ****

Communication
- All email communication should be completed via Webcourses (Not UCF Outlook). Do not expect email responses over the weekend and please allow 48 hours for emails sent Monday-Friday. Students are required to use Knights email accounts for communication in this course, consistent with department policy.
- All office hours are by appointment.
- There may be times when you will be asked to access websites to obtain information or complete tasks.

Webcourses
- If you are unfamiliar with Webcourses, locate information about it at http://learn.ucf.edu/support/ or contact Online Support at 407-823-3808 or at onlinesupport@ucf.edu.
- Consider using the Canvas app for faster communication and course access.
- Ensure your settings and notifications in Webcourses are updated. You are solely responsible for checking Webcourses – whether you are alerted by Webcourses of an update or not.
Class Preparation

- Course materials are posted in Webcourses for each class. YOU MUST BE SURE TO DOWNLOAD THEM AND BRING THEM TO EACH CLASS electronically or in paper form, whichever you prefer.
- As you are downloading materials for classes and assignments, be sure to access these ONLY through Modules and Assignments (NOT FILES). This will ensure you have the most updated materials for the current semester.
- Please be sure to check Webcourses the day before and the day of each class for class materials and important announcements.
- A notetaking format is provided for you to use in reading the textbook and other assigned reading. Bring your notes to class so that you can add to them as appropriate.
- Bring you textbook to each class.

Laptop Computers

- You may bring your laptop to class to access resource materials and take notes, only if this use of technology is productive and permits our community of learners to learn effectively. If laptops and other handheld devices (e.g., iPad, Kindle), when approved by the instructor, thwart interaction or in any other way disrupt the learning environment, he/she reserves the right to discontinue their use in class.

Cell Phone & Etc.

- I realize that some students use smart phones to access Canvas. No other cell phone use is permitted. If you need to text or make a call, please do so on the break outside the classroom. If you have a specific need to be on the alert for a call, please discuss this situation with the instructor.
- Cell phones, beepers, and pagers must be turned to silent during class sessions.

Lectures & Examination

- Some assigned readings, materials, and other course-related content may not be discussed in class. However, unless stated otherwise by the instructor, you must know that content for examinations, quizzes, assignments, discussions, and etc.
- Examinations and quizzes MUST BE taken on the day assigned. Makeup examinations, quizzes, and assignments are NOT given unless stated otherwise by the instructor. All assignments MUST be completed by the end of the semester, regardless of point value awarded at that time. Failure to complete all assignments will result in your final course grade being lowered by one letter grade.

Recordings

- Recording class sessions (e.g., audio, video) is prohibited, unless you (1) have gotten the instructor’s prior consent and/or (2) provide the course instructor with a documentation from the University’s Office of Student Accessibility Services that recording is an appropriate accommodation. Contact the instructor if further information is needed.

Readings as Assigned

- Read textbook chapters and journal articles as indicated on the course schedule or as announced via email and/or class.

Access to ASHA Resources for CSD Majors

- CSD majors are expected to have access to ASHA member resources for use in this class, consistent with Department policy. (NOTE: This requires NSSLHA membership.)
Standards Mastery

- This is a core course within the Master’s Program. Therefore, I have to document your progress toward the knowledge and skill competencies (KASA) of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), our national accrediting body. The applicable KASA standards are provided in a separate document in Webcourses. You must meet the threshold of competency for an academic course for each applicable standard. Failure to do so, regardless of the grade earned in the course, may result in a remediation plan to help you achieve the competency in question. See the Department’s graduate handbook for remediation plan policy and procedures.

Academic Integrity

- As reflected in the UCF creed, integrity and scholarship are core values that should guide our conduct and decisions as members of the UCF community. Plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty contradict these values, and so are very serious academic offenses. Do not cheat by giving answers to others or taking them from anyone else. Do not collaborate on tasks unless specifically asked to do so. Please familiarize yourself with and follow the University’s Rules of Conduct (The Golden Rule). See http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/.
- Although recycling is good for the environment, it is not acceptable in this course. You are expected to generate original work from the beginning, whether you are (1) taking this course for the first time or (2) retaking some or all of it in fulfillment of a remediation plan.
- Original work is required on all assignments, examinations, and elsewhere and must be done specifically for this course (unless an exception is approved in advance.).
- When you make legitimate use of the work of others, be sure to follow APA standards for citation of sources.
- Penalties for academic dishonesty can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, dismissal from the course, dismissal from the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders (DCSD) Master’s Program, or suspension or expulsion from the university.

Academic Conduct

- See the university policy regarding students’ rights and responsibilities and The Golden Rule (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/).

Grading Procedures

- Assignments will be graded based on the criteria and format stated, with a rubric given for the specific assignments noted above. Each assignment is worth the number of points designated.
- Late assignments will be deducted 20% for each day late.
- Examinations MUST BE taken on the day assigned.
- All assignments MUST BE COMPLETED. If you are missing any assignment, your final course grade will be lowered by one letter grade.
- The grading system is as follows:
  - A = 94-100%
  - A- = <94-90%
  - B+ = <90 – 87%
  - B = <87 – 84%
  - B- = <84 – 80%
C+ = <80 – 77%
C = <77 – 74%
C- = <74 – 70%
D = <70-60%
F = 59 & below

Group/Partner Assignments
- Through group projects and other coursework, you will develop conceptual and interaction skills that will be critical to your future success. Therefore, group projects will require the participation of each group member. Individual projects will NOT be accepted unless deemed necessary by the instructor.
- In situations where the instructor determines that the student did not meet/comply with course requirements for project assignments and related work, this will result immediately in, but not necessarily limited to, a failing grade on that course evaluation procedure(s).

Students with Disabilities
- It is a university policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in class activities and assignments. Students with disabilities should contact Student Accessibility Services at (407) 823-2371 to obtain assistance with arranging the necessary accommodations.
- The professor will be more than happy to assist with accommodations that are established through the University’s prescribed process.

Technology/Software Requirements
- You are expected to have frequent access to a computer, as all writing assignments must be typed out and not handwritten. You are required to have access to Microsoft Word for your assignments for this course.
- If you do not own a computer, there are computers accessible to you in all of UCF's computer labs. For further information on UCF technology policy, see the following website: http://registrar.sdes.ucf.edu/weg/policy_statements/use_of_technology/.
- Make certain that you utilize a consistently reliable internet service to complete the online assessments in this course. Under no circumstances will you be permitted another attempt at an examination, assignment, and etc. due to computer “glitches”, network “glitches”, or other electronic “glitches” that prevent you from submitting your work on time. Please do not contact your instructor to reopen, reset, or accept an assignment because you did not allow sufficient time for the system to process your work before the deadline.

Campus Safety
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.
- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
• If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
• To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
• Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
• To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video.

Deployed Active Duty Military Status
• Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact their instructors as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they receive notification of deployment to make related arrangements.

Community Principles
• As a productive learning community, it is important for us all to abide by the community principles that we co-construct during the first class. Please write these on your Course Organizer. They will in effect become part of the syllabus.

University Writing Center
• The University Writing Center (UWC) offers writing support to UCF students from first-year to graduate in every discipline. Trained peer consultants provide help at every stage of the writing process, including understanding assignments, researching, drafting, revising, incorporating sources, and learning to proofread and edit. The UWC’s purpose is not merely to fix papers or to make better writers, but to teach writers strategies to navigate complex situations for writing, both in and outside the University. Consultations are available for individuals and small groups. To make the best use of the UWC, visit far enough before your due date to allow yourself time to revise after your consultation, browse the writing resources on our website, and arrange a regular weekly appointment if you’d like long-term help. You may schedule a 45-minute appointment by phone or by using the TutorTrac scheduler on our website; walk-in consultations are also available. http://uwc.cah.ucf.edu/

Syllabus Changes
• Many factors can influence the development and implementation of a course. The instructor, therefore, reserves the right to alter this syllabus when necessary to facilitate the attainment of course learning outcomes and objectives, address academic honesty and integrity, and accommodate accessibility or extenuating circumstances. Any changes will be announced in class or in Webcourses. You are responsible for adapting to such changes. Examples of changes include lecture dates, readings, examinations, assignments, activities, and policies.
The UCF Creed

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

Integrity
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

Scholarship
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

Community
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

Creativity
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

Excellence
I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

If you will be submitting other revision forms for tracks or course actions, please list them here: Course addition

Is the CIP code being updated? Yes ☐ No

If yes, please provide the new CIP code:

Rationale for revision: The CSD Graduate Program has previously offered a 6CH course SPA6496 Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents that covers the nature of language disorders as well as the assessment and treatment of these disorders. Historically, this course has been co-taught by two faculty members in the program and the content has been divided by aspects of assessment and treatment. The graduate program committee recommends this content be split into these two content areas and two new courses created in order to allow one instructor for each course, as well as the course to focus specifically in either assessment or treatment. These courses will focus specifically on the nature of the language disorders as it related to assessment and intervention separately.

The two new courses will be: SPA 6498 Assessment of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents and SPA 6499 Intervention of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents.

This revision applies to program and all tracks: Accelerated BS/MS and Consortium Track.

Complete the remaining required fields and LAUNCH this proposal! Do
Do not begin revisions until after launch. Program revisions before launch will not be tracked.

Revise catalog copy here! After you revise courses, click on the Curriculum Schema button below to revise the catalog copy. Please note: this information is what will flow directly to the graduate catalog. Any attached documents to this proposal will not be used for catalog purposes.

Follow these steps to propose courses to the revised program curriculum:

Step 1

There are two options for adding courses: "Add Course" and "Import Course." For courses already in the catalog, click on "Import Course" and find the courses needed. For new classes going through a Curriculog Approval Process click on "Add Course"– a box will open asking you for the Prefix, Course Number and Course Title.

Step 2

Click on "View Curriculum Schema." Click on the area/header of the program where you would like to add courses. When you click on "Add Courses" it will bring up the list of courses available from Step 1. Select the courses you wish to add. For removing courses click on the ✗ and proceed.

Program Description

The School of Communication Sciences and Disorders offers three plans of study leading to the Master of Arts degree: the Traditional, Consortium (summers mainly) and Accelerated programs.

Each track is intended for those interested in working with children and adults who have communication disorders and is based on the same curriculum and degree requirements but allows students to follow different plans of study. Students enrolled in each track must follow a prescribed sequence of academic and clinical courses.

Each track provides academic and clinical education experiences necessary for certification by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) and the Florida Department of Education, and licensure by the state of Florida. For information on how this program may prepare students for professional licensure, please visit https://healthprofessions.ucf.edu/csd/masters/. The Council on Academic Accreditation (CAA) of the ASHA has accredited the Master of Arts Degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders since 1986.

The Communication Sciences and Disorders program strives to educate students to become successful practitioners in the field of speech-language pathology. To that end, the ASHA Code of Ethics is reinforced throughout the academic curriculum. Students who violate the ASHA Code of Ethics may be subject to academic sanctions or dismissed from the program.

The Traditional track is a two-year, full-time program (six consecutive semesters, including two summers) for students with undergraduate degrees in communication sciences and disorders or speech-language pathology and audiology. For students with undergraduate degrees in other majors (out-of-field), the program requires additional prerequisite coursework. Students must begin the program in the semester for which they are admitted and must enroll full-time each semester.

The Consortium (summers mainly) track is a five-year program, including five consecutive summers of full-time enrollment and occasional enrollment during fall or spring semesters, with prior advisor approval from the master's program coordinator. The goal of this program is to address the critical shortage of public school speech-language pathologists and is a cooperative effort between the UCF School of Communication Sciences and Disorders and the Central Florida Public School Consortium. Participating school districts in the Central Florida Consortium are Brevard, Citrus, Flagler, Lake, Marion, Orange, Osceola, Seminole, Sumter, and Volusia.

The Accelerated track enables highly qualified current UCF undergraduate majors in communication sciences and disorders to achieve a master's degree in the UCF School of Communication Sciences and Disorders graduate program in one less semester than students in the Traditional track. This program is a BA/BS to MA program. Students are able to enroll in 16 credit hours of graduate-level courses while completing the bachelor's degree.

Program Tracks

- Communication Sciences and Disorders MA, Accelerated BA/BS to MA Track
Curriculum

The Communication Sciences and Disorders MA program consists of a minimum of 72 credit hours, including 38 credit hours of core academic courses, 9 credit hours of electives, and 25 credit hours of clinical practice. Thesis students take 6 credit hours of Thesis and one elective course (3 credit hours).

Total Credit Hours Required: 72 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor's Degree

Prerequisites

- To be certified to practice by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), all students must have undergraduate transcript credit, which could include course work, advanced placement, CLEP, or examination equivalency, for each of the following areas: biological sciences, physical sciences, social/behavioral sciences, and statistics. Courses may consist of any number of credits and must be taken outside the discipline.

- All students must complete at least 3 credit hours in statistics with a grade of "C" or better. Undergraduate or graduate course work in statistics is a prerequisite to SPA 6805 - Research in Communicative Disorders.

- The program admits qualified in-field applicants, with an undergraduate degree in communication sciences and disorders or speech-language pathology and audiology, and out-of-field applicants, with undergraduate degrees in other majors. Out-of-field students require an additional 32 to 35 credit hours of prerequisite course work that may be completed in approximately two semesters once admitted.

Out-of-field students must complete the following undergraduate prerequisite courses or their equivalents once admitted:

- STA 2014C - Principles of Statistics 3 Credit Hours or STA 2023 - Statistical Methods I 3 credit hours
- LIN 3713 - Language Science 3 Credit Hours
- LIN 3716/3716L - Language Development 5 Credit Hours
- SPA 3101 - Physiological Bases of Speech and Hearing 3 Credit Hours
- SPA 3104 - Neural Bases of Communication 3 Credit Hours
- SPA 3112/3112L - Basic Phonetics and Lab 4 Credit Hours
- SPA 3011/3011L - Speech Science I: Production and Lab 4 Credit Hours
- SPA 3123/3123L - Speech Science II: Perception and Lab 4 Credit Hours
- SPA 4032 - Audiology 3 Credit Hours
- SPA 4326 - Hearing Disorders Across the Lifespan 3 credit hours

Required Courses: 38 Credit Hours

SPA 6204 Articulation/Phonological Dis
SPA 6211C Voice Disorders
Clinical Practice: 25 Credit Hours

Supervised clinical practice is an integral part of the graduate program in communication sciences and disorders. It provides students with an opportunity to apply classroom knowledge to the evaluation and management of individuals with a wide variety of communication disorders. Students complete three clinical practa at the UCF Communication Disorders Clinic and other affiliated facilities, as well as externships in schools, hospitals, rehabilitation centers, skilled nursing facilities, long-term care facilities, community clinics, and private practices. Through these practa and externships, students obtain a minimum of 400 clock hours of supervised clinical experience in accordance with the guidelines outlined by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). Clinical practa and externships vary in length and do not always coincide with the academic calendar.

Thesis Option: 9 Credit Hours

Students who elect this option complete a thesis in Communication Sciences and Disorders for 6 credit hours and select one elective in consultation with a faculty adviser.
Thesis hours cannot be counted toward graduation requirements if students fail to complete or successfully defend their thesis. For additional information, thesis students and their advisory committees should refer to the thesis requirements in the UCF Graduate Catalog.

- SPA 6971 - Thesis 6 Credit Hours
- Elective 3 Credit Hours

Nonthesis Option: 9 Credit Hours
Students who elect this option must select three electives in consultation with a faculty adviser.

- Electives 9 Credit Hours

Comprehensive Examination
Passing a School Comprehensive Examination is a requirement for completion of the master's degree in communication sciences and disorders.

Equipment Fee
Students in the Communication Sciences and Disorders MA Program pay a $90 equipment fee each semester they are enrolled.

Additional Program Costs
The program requires students to pay additional fees for the required background checks, clinic uniform, and registration for the academic/clinical competencies tracking system.

Sample Plan of Study for the Traditional Program
The Traditional MA program requires a prescribed sequence of academic and clinical courses which may vary according to the semester of entry. The following is a sample plan of study.

Independent Learning

All students in the Master of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders program engage in independent learning through inquiry, dialogue, and practice. Experiences such as client case studies, scholarly reviews, research projects, clinical practica and externships provide students independent learning opportunities to attain knowledge, skills, and professional behaviors. In capstone externships, students bridge university classroom and clinic lessons to real-world educational and health-related settings.

Application Requirements

For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

The Master of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders program at UCF participates in the Communication Sciences and Disorders Centralized Application Service, known as CSDCAS. Prospective students applying to the Communication Sciences and Disorders MA program at UCF must apply online using the CSDCAS application in addition to the UCF online application. To learn more about the CSDCAS application process, visit http://www.capcsd.org/csdcas-student-page/

Entry Terms: The program only accepts one application from each prospective student per application deadline. For the February 1 deadline, applicants must choose to apply for either the Summer or Fall semester. However, applicants may apply for spring (October 1 deadline), regardless if they have applied for admission in other terms.

Step 1: Complete the CSDCAS application for the UCF program

- Completed CSDCAS Application (https://csdcas.liaisoncas.com/applicant-ux/#/login)
- One official transcripts (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- Official, competitive GRE score (verbal, quantitative, and written) obtained within the last five years. Use GRE CODE for UCF CSDCAS: 7407. (Do not use the "Institution Code" for GRE listed to the right).
- Three (3) letters of recommendation with CSDCAS recommendation forms, preferably two from former faculty members. Letters of recommendation cannot be dated more than one year prior to the date of the application deadline.
- A letter of intent describing educational background, professional experiences, future goals, and how you will embody and uphold the ASHA Code of Ethics (http://www.asha.org/code-of-ethics/) in your professional career
- A current resume.
- Applicants applying to this program who have attended a college/university outside the United States must provide a course-by-course credential evaluation with GPA calculation. Credential evaluations are accepted from World Education Services (WES) or Josef Silny and Associates, Inc. only.
- All international students must meet university minimum TOEFL score requirements regardless of language in which the undergraduate program was completed.

Incomplete applications will NOT be reviewed.
All application materials MUST be sent directly to CSDCAS. Materials sent to the university or program will not be accepted. Application materials must be received by CSDCAS no later than October 1st for Spring admission and February 1st for Summer and Fall admission.

Step 2: Complete University of Central Florida's Graduate School application

In addition to your CSDCAS application, applicants must also submit a UCF application for graduate admission at https://application.graduate.ucf.edu/. Supporting documents (i.e. transcripts, test scores, etc.) do not need to be submitted to UCF directly. University applications must also be submitted by the stated application deadlines.

Admission to the Communication Sciences and Disorders program is granted on a competitive basis. Approximately thirty-five (35) students are admitted each semester. Meeting the minimum admission requirements does not guarantee admission to the program. The recent class statistics are listed on the Graduate Program Profile webpage. Additionally, the program reserves the right to deny admission or dismiss a student after admission to the program if, in the judgment of the faculty, the student fails to demonstrate and/or uphold the ASHA Code of Ethics (http://www.asha.org/code-of-ethics/) during coursework and/or practice in the field.

Application Deadlines

The Traditional Track admits students three times per year in the fall, spring, and summer. The Consortium Track admits students once per year in the summer.

*Applicants who plan to enroll full time in a degree program and who wish to be considered for university fellowships or assistantships should apply by the Fall Priority date.

Financials

Graduate students may receive financial assistance through fellowships, assistantships, tuition support, or loans. For more information, see the College of Graduate Studies Funding website, which describes the types of financial assistance available at UCF and provides general guidance in planning your graduate finances. The Financial Information section of the Graduate Catalog is another key resource.

Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded based on academic merit to highly qualified students. They are paid to students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, based on instructions provided by the College of Graduate Studies. Fellowships are given to support a student’s graduate study and do not have a work obligation. For more information, see UCF Graduate Fellowships, which includes descriptions of university fellowships and what you should do to be considered for a fellowship.

Full-time students are eligible for a limited number of graduate teaching and research assistantships and for positions providing faculty assistance. In addition, there may be opportunities for funding through faculty grants or special incentives. For additional information, consult the School website.

Rationale for revision:

The CSD Graduate Program has previously offered a 6CH course SPA6496 Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents that covers the nature of language disorders as well as the assessment and treatment of these disorders. Historically, this course has been co-taught by two faculty members in the program and the content has been divided by aspects of assessment and treatment. The graduate program committee recommends this content be split into these two content areas and two new courses created in order to allow one instructor for each course, as well as the course to focus specifically in either assessment or treatment. These courses will focus specifically on the nature of the language disorders as it related to assessment and intervention seperately.

The two new courses will be: SPA 6498 Assessment of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents and SPA 6499 Intervention of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents.

This revision applies to program and all tracks: Accelerated BS/MS and Consortium Track.

Complete the remaining required fields and LAUNCH this proposal! Do not begin revisions until after launch. Program revisions before launch will not be tracked.
Revise catalog copy here! After you revise courses, click on the Curriculum Schema button below to revise the catalog copy. Please note: this information is what will flow directly to the graduate catalog. Any attached documents to this proposal will not be used for catalog purposes.

Follow these steps to propose courses to the revised program curriculum:

Step 1

There are two options for adding courses: "Add Course" and "Import Course." For courses already in the catalog, click on "Import Course" and find the courses needed. For new classes going through a Curriculog Approval Process click on "Add Course"-- a box will open asking you for the Prefix, Course Number and Course Title.

Step 2

Click on "View Curriculum Schema." Click on the area/header of the program where you would like to add courses. When you click on "Add Courses" it will bring up the list of courses available from Step 1. Select the courses you wish to add. For removing courses click on the X and proceed.

Track Description

The School of Communication Sciences and Disorders offers an Accelerated BA/BS to MA Track for highly qualified UCF undergraduate majors in communication sciences and disorders that enables them to complete a master’s degree in one less semester than students in the Traditional Track.

The program is intended for those interested in working with children and adults who have communication disorders. Once students complete the BA/BS, they must apply and be admitted to the master’s degree program and follow a prescribed sequence of academic and clinical courses.

The Communication Sciences and Disorders program strives to educate students to become successful practitioners in the field of speech-language pathology. To that end, the American Speech-Language-
Hearing Association (ASHA) Code of Ethics is re-enforced throughout the academic curriculum. Students who violate the ASHA Code of Ethics may be subject to academic sanctions or dismissed from the program.

For information on how this program may prepare students for professional licensure, please visit https://healthprofessions.ucf.edu/csd/masters/.

Curriculum

The School of Communication Sciences and Disorders offers an Accelerated BA/BS to MA program for highly qualified undergraduate majors in communication sciences and disorders. Undergraduate students enroll in 16 credit hours of graduate-level courses while completing the bachelor's degree. This enables students to achieve a master's degree in the UCF School of Communication Sciences and Disorders in one less semester.

Total Credit Hours Required: 72 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor’s Degree

Up to 16 credit hours of approved 6000-level courses, with grades of "B" (3.0) or better, may be counted toward the BA/BS and MA degrees. Additional requirements include:

- Adopting the most current catalog for students changing degree programs.
- Earning at least a "B" (3.0) in each undergraduate and graduate course to be counted toward the major.
- Being assessed tuition and fees at the graduate rate for graduate courses.

Undergraduate Requirements

The Shared Courses below replace:

SPA 4400 Language Disorders Across the Life Span
SPA 4476 Speech Disorders Across the Life Span
SPA 4478 Multicultural Aspects of Communication Disorders and Differences SPA 4803 Research Methods in Communication Sciences and Disorders
SPA 4870 Capstone Course

SPA 6565 Feeding and Swallowing Disorders
SPA 6805 Research in Communicative Disorders
SPA 6498 Assessment of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents
SPA 6499 Intervention of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents

Clinical Practice: 25 Credit Hours

Supervised clinical practice is an integral part of the graduate program in communication sciences and disorders. It provides students with an opportunity to apply classroom knowledge to the evaluation and management of individuals with a wide variety of communication disorders. Students complete three clinical practica at the UCF Communication Disorders Clinic and other affiliated facilities, as well as externships in schools, hospitals, rehabilitation centers, skilled nursing facilities, long-term care facilities, community clinics, and private practices. Through these practica and externships, students obtain a minimum of 400 clock hours of supervised clinical experience in accordance with the guidelines outlined by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). Clinical practica and externships vary in length and do not always coincide with the academic calendar.

Thesis Option: 9 Credit Hours

Students who elect this option complete a thesis in Communication Sciences and Disorders for 6 credit hours and select one elective in consultation with a faculty adviser.

Thesis hours cannot be counted toward graduation requirements if students fail to complete or successfully defend their thesis. For additional information, thesis students and their advisory committees should refer to the thesis requirements in the UCF Graduate Catalog.

SPA 6971 - Thesis 6 Credit Hours

Elective 3 Credit Hours
Nonthesis Option: 9 Credit Hours

Students who elect this option must select three electives in consultation with a faculty adviser.

Electives 9 Credit Hours

Comprehensive Examination

Passing a School Comprehensive Examination is a requirement for completion of the master's degree in communication sciences and disorders.

Equipment Fee

Students in the Communication Sciences and Disorders MA Program pay a $90 equipment fee each semester they are enrolled.

Additional Program Cost

The program requires students to pay additional fees for the required background checks, clinic uniform, and registration for the academic/clinical competencies tracking system.

Application Requirements

For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

The Accelerated B.A./B.S. to M.A. track in Communication Sciences and Disorders allows highly qualified University of Central Florida undergraduate majors in Communication Sciences and Disorders to begin taking graduate level courses that will count toward their master's degree while completing their baccalaureate degree program. Students apply for admission to the Accelerated Track either in the last semester of their sophomore year or the first semester of their junior year.

Applicants must submit a hard copy (paper) application for the
A bachelor's program directly to the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders. Please contact the school for the appropriate application form. An electronic application for admission to the graduate program must be submitted during the senior year of the bachelor's program.

In addition to the general UCF graduate application requirements, applicants to this program must provide:

- One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
- 3.7 GPA or higher in communication sciences and disorders course work earned at the University of Central Florida.
- Official, highly competitive GRE score obtained within the last five years.
- Three letters of recommendation from faculty in the school.
- Résumé.
- A letter of intent describing educational background, professional experiences, future goals, and how you will embody and uphold the ASHA Code of Ethics (http://www.asha.org/code-of-ethics/) in your professional career.

A formal admission decision for the master's program will be made following receipt of the bachelor's degree. Successful completion of the bachelor's degree does not guarantee admission to the master's program. The Communication Sciences and Disorders program reserves the right to deny admission or dismiss a student after admission to the program if, in the judgment of the faculty, the student fails to demonstrate and/or uphold the ASHA Code of Ethics (http://www.asha.org/code-of-ethics/) in coursework or practice in the field. A background check is required for all new students during their first semester in the master's program.

Application Deadlines

The Traditional Track admits students three times per year in the fall, spring, and summer. The Consortium Track admits students once per year in the summer.

Financials

Graduate students may receive financial assistance through fellowships, assistantships, tuition support, or loans. For more information, see the College of Graduate Studies Funding website, which describes the types of financial assistance available at UCF and provides general guidance in planning your graduate finances. The Financial Information section of the Graduate Catalog is another key resource.

Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded based on academic merit to highly qualified students. They are paid to students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, based on instructions provided by the College of Graduate Studies. Fellowships are given to support a student's graduate study and do not have a work obligation. For more information, see UCF Graduate Fellowships, which includes descriptions of university fellowships and what you should do to be considered for a fellowship.

Full-time students are eligible for a limited number of graduate teaching and research assistantships and for positions providing faculty assistance. In addition, there may be opportunities for funding through faculty grants or special incentives. For additional information, consult the school website.

Is the CIP code being updated?: Yes

If yes, please provide the new CIP code:

Rationale for revision:
The CSD Graduate Program has previously offered a 6CH course SPA6496 Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents that covers the nature of language disorders as well as the assessment and treatment of these disorders. Historically, this course has been co-taught by two faculty members in the program and the content has been divided by aspects of assessment and treatment. The graduate program committee recommends this content be split into these two content areas and two new courses created in order to allow one instructor for each course, as well as the course to focus specifically in either assessment or treatment. These courses will focus specifically on the nature of the language disorders as it related to assessment and intervention separately.

The two new courses will be: SPA 6498 Assessment of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents and SPA 6499 Intervention of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents.

This revision applies to program and all tracks: Accelerated BS/MS and Consortium Track.

Track Description

The School of Communication Sciences and Disorders offers the Consortium track leading to the Master of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders.

The Consortium track is designed specifically for students with a bachelor's degree in communication sciences and disorders or speech-language pathology and audiology who currently work in participating central Florida public school districts and have been providing speech and language services for at least one semester prior to application.

The goal of this program is to address the critical shortage of public school speech-language pathologists. It represents a cooperative effort between the UCF School of Communication Sciences and Disorders and the Central Florida Public School Consortium. Participating school districts in the Central Florida Consortium are: Brevard, Citrus, Flagler, Lake, Marion, Orange, Osceola, Seminole, Sumter, and Volusia.

The Communication Sciences and Disorders program strives to educate students to become successful practitioners in the field of speech-language pathology. To that end, the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) Code of Ethics is re-enforced throughout the academic curriculum. Students who violate the ASHA Code of Ethics may be subject to academic sanctions or dismissed from the program.

For information on how this program may prepare students for professional licensure, please visit https://healthprofessions.ucf.edu/csd/masters/.

Curriculum

The Consortium track in the Communication Sciences and Disorders MA program consists of a minimum of 72 credit hours, including 38 credit hours of core academic courses, 9 credit hours of thesis or electives, and 25 credit hours of clinical practice. With regard to requirements for clinical practice, Consortium track students typically complete the full-time clinical practice externship prior to the part-time externship. The full-time externship must be completed in a school setting that is different from the practitioner's primary employment setting.

Total Credit Hours Required: 72 Credit Hours Minimum beyond the Bachelor's Degree

Prerequisites

All students must complete at least 3 credit hours in statistics with a grade of "C" or better. Undergraduate course work in statistics is a prerequisite to SPA 6805 - Research in Communicative Disorders.

To be certified to practice by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), all students must have undergraduate transcript credit, which could include course work, advanced placement, CLEP, or examination equivalency, for each of the following areas: biological sciences, physical sciences, social/behavioral sciences, and statistics. Courses may consist of any number of credits and must be taken outside the discipline.
Required Courses: 38 Credit Hours

- SPA 6204 Articulation/Phonological Disorders
- SPA 6211C Voice Disorders
- SPA 6225C Fluency Disorders
- SPA 6236 Motor Speech Disorders in Adults and Children
- SPA 6327 Aural Habilitation Rehab
- SPA 6410 Aphasia and Related Disorders
- SPA 6474 Assessment and Management of Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Populations
- SPA 6559 Augmentative and Alternative Communication
- SPA 6565 Feeding and Swallowing Disorders
- SPA 6805 Research in Communicative Disorders
- SPA 6498 Assessment of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents
- SPA 6499 Intervention of Language Disorders in Children and Adolescents

Clinical Practice: 25 Credit Hours

Supervised clinical practice is an integral part of the graduate program in communication sciences and disorders. It provides students with an opportunity to apply classroom knowledge to the evaluation and management of individuals with a wide variety of communication disorders. Students complete three clinical practica at the UCF Communication Disorders Clinic and other affiliated facilities, as well as externships in schools, hospitals, rehabilitation centers, skilled nursing facilities, long-term care facilities, community clinics, and private practices. Through these practica and externships, students obtain a minimum of 400 clock hours of supervised clinical experience in accordance with the guidelines outlined by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). Clinical practica and externships vary in length and do not always coincide with the academic calendar.

Thesis Option: 9 Credit Hours

Students who elect this option complete a thesis in Communication Sciences and Disorders for 6 credit hours and select one elective in consultation with a faculty adviser.

Thesis hours cannot be counted toward graduation requirements if students fail to complete or successfully defend the thesis. For additional information, thesis students and their advisory committees should refer to the thesis requirements in the UCF Graduate Catalog.

SPA 6971 - Thesis 6 Credit Hours
Elective 3 Credit Hours

Nonthesis Option: 9 Credit Hours

Students who elect this option must select three electives in consultation with a faculty adviser.

Electives 9 Credit Hours

Comprehensive Examination

Passing a School Comprehensive Examination is a requirement for completion of the master's degree in communication sciences and disorders.
Equipment Fee

Students in the Communication Sciences and Disorders MA Program pay a $90 equipment fee each semester that they are enrolled.

Additional Program Costs

The program requires students to pay additional fees for the required background checks, clinic uniform, and registration for the academic/clinical competencies tracking system.

Sample Plan of Study for the Consortium Program with a Nonthesis Option

The Consortium Track requires a prescribed sequence of academic and clinical courses that may vary. Students must meet with the Master’s Program Coordinator and Consortium Coordinator to devise a program of study. The following is a sample plan of study.

Summer Semester 1

*SPA 6553L must be taken in two semesters during either the third, fourth, or fifth semesters.

Independent Learning

All students in the master of arts in communication sciences and disorders program engage in independent learning through inquiry, dialogue, and practice. Experiences such as client case studies, scholarly reviews, research projects, clinical practica and externships provide students independent learning opportunities to attain knowledge, skills and professional behaviors. In capstone externships, students bridge university classroom and clinic lessons to real-world educational and health-related settings.

Application Requirements

For information on general UCF graduate admissions requirements that apply to all prospective students, please visit the Admissions section of the Graduate Catalog. Applicants must apply online. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline.

The Master of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders program at UCF participates in the Communication Sciences and Disorders Centralized Application Service, known as CSDCAS. Prospective students applying to the Communication Sciences and Disorders MA program must apply online using the CSDCAS application in addition to the UCF online application. To learn more about the CSDCAS application process, visit http://www.capcsd.org/csdcas-student-page/

Entry Terms: The Consortium track admits for summer term only. Please note that admission is granted for the summer term only and for this specific track only. Applicants may not change start terms or tracks after an admission decision has been made. If the applicant determines that they cannot accept the offer of admission as presented in the admission letter, they must rescind the offer and may apply to the desired track in the next admissions cycle.

Step 1: Complete the CSDCAS application for UCF

Completed CSDCAS Application (https://csdcas.liaisoncas.com/applicant-ux/#/login)

One official transcript (in a sealed envelope) from each college/university attended.
Official, competitive GRE score (verbal, quantitative, and written) obtained within the last five years. Use GRE CODE for UCF CSDCAS: 7407. (Do not use the "Institution Code" for GRE listed to the right side of this page).

Three (3) letters of recommendation with CSDCAS recommendation forms. One of the three letters of recommendation must be from the district school administrator or program specialist of the Speech-Language Program of the employing school district, one from the school principal, and one from a former professor. Letters of recommendation cannot be dated more than one year prior to the date of the application deadline.

A letter of intent describing educational background, professional experiences, future goals, and how you will embody and uphold the ASHA Code of Ethics (http://www.asha.org/code-of-ethics/) in your professional career

A current resume.

Incomplete applications will NOT be reviewed.

All application materials MUST be sent directly to CSDCAS. Materials sent to the university or program will not be accepted. Application materials must be received by CSDCAS no later than February 1st for Summer admission.

Step 2: Complete University of Central Florida’s Graduate School application

In addition to the CSDCAS application, applicants must also submit a UCF application for graduate admission at https://application.graduate.ucf.edu/. Supporting documents (i.e. transcripts, test scores, etc.) do not need to be submitted to UCF directly. University applications must also be submitted by the stated application deadlines.

Admission to the Communication Sciences and Disorders program is granted on a competitive basis. Approximately thirty-five (35) students are admitted each semester. Meeting the minimum admission requirements does not guarantee admission to the program. The recent class statistics are listed on the Graduate Program Profile webpage. Additionally, the program reserves the right to deny admission or dismiss a student after admission to the program if, in the judgment of the faculty, the student fails to demonstrate and/or uphold the ASHA Code of Ethics (http://www.asha.org/code-of-ethics/) during coursework and/or practice in the field. A background check is required for all new students during their first semester in the program. All applicants and admitted students must perform certain Essential Functions in order to participate and complete program requirements.
Application Deadlines

The Traditional Track admits students three times per year in the fall, spring, and summer. The Consortium Track admits students once per year in the summer.

Financials

Graduate students may receive financial assistance through fellowships, assistantships, tuition support, or loans. For more information, see the College of Graduate Studies Funding website, which describes the types of financial assistance available at UCF and provides general guidance in planning your graduate finances. The Financial Information section of the Graduate Catalog is another key resource.

Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded based on academic merit to highly qualified students. They are paid to students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, based on instructions provided by the College of Graduate Studies. Fellowships are given to support a student's graduate study and do not have a work obligation. For more information, see UCF Graduate Fellowships, which includes descriptions of university fellowships and what you should do to be considered for a fellowship.

Consortium students are not typically eligible for fellowships or graduate assistantship positions since they require full-time enrollment. However, if you would like information about the options available for financial support through the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders, please consult the school website.
