

Golden Rule

The Golden Rule is the university's policy regarding non-academic discipline of students and limited academic grievance procedures for graduate (grade appeals in individual courses, not including thesis and dissertation courses) and undergraduate students. Information concerning The Golden Rule can be found at www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/. Section 11, Student Academic Behavior, addresses appeals of graduate program actions or decisions.

Proposed Amendment:

Golden Rule University Policy 4-412 Student Academic Appeals

~~The Golden Rule Policy 4-412 Student Academic Appeals~~ is the university's policy regarding ~~non-academic discipline of students and limited academic grievance procedures~~ ~~grade appeals (not including thesis and dissertation)~~ and ~~academic program appeals~~ for graduate ~~(grade appeals in individual courses, not including thesis and dissertation courses)~~ and undergraduate students. Information concerning ~~The Golden Rule University Policy 4-412~~ can be found at ~~www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/~~ <https://policies.ucf.edu/>. ~~The policy is posted in the Academic Affairs Ssection 11, Student Academic Behavior, addresses appeals of graduate program actions or decisions.~~

Effective Term: Fall 2025

Rationale: Update the Golden Rule section since the regulation was repealed September 22, 2025, and replace it with text reflecting the recently approved Student Academic Appeals policy.
